THE INDUSTRIAL COURT
CAUSE NO. 19 OF 1985*Parties:*

Railways and Harbours Union (K)
and
Kenya Railways Corporation

Issue in dispute:

Wrongful and/or unjustifiable dismissal of Bernard H. R. Sedda by the District Traffic Superintendent, Kisumu.

THE court announced its award in this dispute on 23rd October, 1985, and awarded Bernard Sedda reinstatement, with effect from the first of the month following the court award without any loss of benefits or seniority. The court further awarded him full salary for all the time he was out of employment.

On 11th June, 1986, the respondents wrote to the court stating that Mr. Sedda, who was dismissed by them on 23rd April, 1982, had started working with another state corporation on 14th December, 1983. Following the court award on 23rd October, 1985, Mr. Sedda reported to their Kisumu office on 1st November, 1985, and was subsequently posted to Mombasa where he arrived on 25th November, 1985. Immediately thereafter he applied for ninety (90) days accumulated annual leave, with effect from 28th November, 1985, which leave he was later to extend by a further sixty (60) days. However, on 30th March, 1986, he resigned at 24 hours' notice by tendering a month's salary in lieu of notice to the respondents through the post.

The respondents further informed the court that Mr. Sedda was paid KSh. 47,270.85 as awarded by the court. They bitterly complained that Mr. Sedda's main concern was to receive the benefits of the court award and promptly return to his job with the Lake Basin Development Authority (L.B.D.A.). They asked the court to review its award as Mr. Sedda should not be allowed to earn double salary from two state corporations. They asked for a refund of KSh. 36,681.30 from Mr. Sedda.

On receipt of this complaint the court arranged for a further hearing on 6th February, 1987, when it heard both the claimants and the respondents on the issue raised by the respondents.

The claimants made their position very clear by stating that Mr. Sedda had not informed them at any time during the hearing even afterwards that he had found another job with L.B.D.A. It came as news to them when the respondents registered their complaint with the court.

Notwithstanding the above the claimants pleaded that Mr. Sedda's job with the L.B.D.A. was purely of a temporary nature and that he was lucky to get a job after eight months without any means of subsistence. Furthermore, the suffering he endured during the period he stayed out of employment was much more than the money paid to him and that his reputation had been tarnished by his dismissal by the respondents. The claimants asked the court to ignore the respondents' complaint.

The court has given very serious thought and consideration to this matter and to begin with the court would like to absolve the claimants from any blame in this regrettable state of affairs.

The court over the years has repeatedly stressed that both the employers and the trade unions should be honest in their factual presentation to the court. Obviously Mr. Sedda, for his benefit, kept the claimants completely in the dark about his having secured a job with another state corporation, with effect from 14th December, 1983. The court is really disgusted at Mr. Sedda's behaviour and the manner in which he misled everybody including his trade union. Had it not been for the fact that the respondents found out the truth a few months after the court had made its award, Mr. Sedda would have got away with double salary from state corporations. This sort of situation is untenable and the court is duty bound to rectify it.

Given the circumstances of this dispute the court has no hesitation in reviewing its award and the court has decided to award Mr. Sedda full salary for the period 23rd April, 1982 to 14th December, 1983 the day he started working with L.B.D.A. at a higher salary than what he was earning from the respondents. The court notes that in addition to reinstating him to his job as awarded by the court (from where he resigned by giving a 24 hours notice) the respondents have paid him KSh. 47,270.85. The court feels that Mr. Sedda should get something for the mental anguish that he suffered at the dismissal during the time he was unemployed and the court assesses this at KSh. 5,000 only. The court therefore directs that Mr. Sedda should immediately refund to the respondents a sum of KSh. 31,681.30.

The court would like to state to all the parties that appear before it that they will not be allowed to get away with favourable court awards if they obtain them by misleading the court and as in this case even their own representatives. As soon as such facts come to light the court will not hesitate to take the necessary action. The parties are expected to come to court with clean hands. The court accordingly rules that its original award stands varied as directed above.

Given on the 23rd April, 1987.

Judge.

GAZETTE NOTICE NO. 1909

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT
CAUSE NO. 105 OF 1985*Parties:*

Railways and Harbours Union (K)
and
Kenya Railways Corporation

Issue in dispute:

Wrongful and/or unjustifiable dismissal of Reuben Luvaha ex-Yard Foreman, Grade RBV.

THE Kenya Railways and Harbours Union shall hereinafter be referred to as the claimants and Kenya Railways Corporation shall hereinafter be referred to as the respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on 14th May, 1986 and 24th March, 1987 and relied on their written and verbal submissions. The delay between the two hearings was caused by the claimants who informed the court that they were not ready to proceed with the hearing.

AWARD

3. The Notification of Dispute Form A dated 23rd May, 1985, duly signed by the parties was received by the court on 24th September, 1985 together with the statutory certificates signed by the Minister for Labour and the Labour Commissioner.

Reuben Luvaha was first employed as a trainee assistant yard foreman by the then East African Railways Corporation on 15th July, 1970. He attended a course of instruction at the Tabora Railways Training School in Tanzania, from where he qualified and earned his promotion to yard foreman grade NB VB, with effect from 17th February, 1971.

Mr. Luvaha remained on the same grade throughout his service of approximately nine (9) years until the event which led to his dismissal on 28th April, 1979.

The claimants stated that the charges levelled against Mr. Luvaha by respondents were that whilst working as a yard foreman at Mombasa Yard from 06.00 hours to 18.00 hours on 8th August, 1977, Mr. Luvaha failed to notice, report and/or intercept wagons Nos. CLB 54926 and CGB 52847 when being shunted through his portion of the yard, while he had reason to know or believe that their movements were improper. Secondly, Mr. Luvaha failed to prepare and issue any handing over notes which were necessary at the end of every shift despite his being on duty on 7th, 8th and 10th August, 1977 even though wagon numbers 55027, 55763 and 54769 were at the high level siding for Messrs. Edmund Schluter.

The claimants further stated that Mr. Luvaha was accused of neglecting his duties on 26th May, 1978 which is the day he received a letter outlining his offences on 8th August, 1977. The claimants went on to say that the grievant was given a personal hearing together with their representatives. During the hearing which took place on 22nd May, 1978 under the chairmanship of the Assistant Traffic Superintendent, Mombasa, the matter ended abruptly as it was alleged that the chairman appeared biased and furthermore failed to clarify certain points raised by the claimants regarding some technicalities of operation of wagons in the railway siding in question.

The claimants insisted that the grievant should be given a second hearing under a different person as chairman but without success. The claimants later learnt that Mr. Luvaha had been dismissed, an act which forced the claimants to take up the matter with the Ministry of Labour for redress. The claimants went on to say that it is not possible for wagons to Mbaraki Siding to pass through high level siding. It is only possible for the Mombasa Yard foreman, who is in charge of marshalling wagons for different sidings to know the lines for which the wagons are destined but not the grievant who was in charge of high level siding.

The claimants further explained in detail the nature of duties of yard foreman in the railways indicating in detail the circumstances under which the yard foreman and others like Mr. Luvaha operated. Briefly, the claimants stated that Mr. Luvaha could not have easily or of necessity noticed, so as to report or intercept any wagons if they were shunted through his portion of the yard as he had been charged by the district traffic superintendent. Regarding the second charge levelled against Mr. Luvaha by the respondents, Mr. Luvaha did not leave any handing over notes on wagons at the high level siding for the simple reason that there were no wagons left behind at the siding on the material date. Mr. Luvaha had therefore to endorse the word "Clear" in the handing over diary on that date. The claimants further stated that on 8th August, 1977 after placing CLB 55027, 55763 and 54763 at the high level siding for off loading, Mr. Luvaha was instructed to proceed to Mbaraki Siding to relieve Gilbert Kidialla, who had been picked up by the police for interrogation on the same case and therefore Mr. Luvaha had to work with Mr. Kidialla's engine for the rest of the day at the end of which he handed over the duties to the in-coming yard foreman using the diary for Mbaraki Siding. The claimants therefore maintained that in the circumstances, the question of any handing over notes should not arise.

The claimants further stated that the respondents had no evidence to suggest that the two wagons, Nos. CLB 54926 and CGB 52847, passed through the high level siding during shunting where the grievant was in charge. In conclusion, the claimants stated that the documentary evidence presented to the court by the respondents showed beyond any doubt that Mr. Rastafa the senior yard foreman, assigned Gilbert Kidialla the responsibility of moving the two wagons, Nos. CLB 54926 and CGB 52847, to Mbaraki Siding for off loading. According to the obtaining procedure Mr. Kidialla, who was the yard foreman, Mbaraki Siding, was wholly responsible for the movement and delivery of the wagons to the consignee on the siding. To help him in the delivery of the wagons he had a police constable with him. The information given by the respondents reveals that he delivered nine out of the eleven wagons and deliberately left two in the main yard. It is therefore very clear from the evidence before the court that the movement of the two wagons on the day in question was the responsibility of Mr. Kidialla and not the grievant. The claimants in summing up pointed out that the chairman of the departmental hearing in this case was an interested party having been involved in the investigation itself and was therefore rendered incapable of hearing the case to stress the principles of justice.

The claimants therefore submitted that the dismissal of the grievant was wrongful and totally unjustifiable. They asked the court to reinstate the grievant and pay him compensation for the period he had remained out of employment.

The respondents in their submission stated that during the coffee trade boom in 1977/87 there was widespread theft of coffee in transit from railway wagons, particularly at Mombasa from where the commodity was being exported. The racket involved railway employees, in collusion with outsiders who caused the wagons to be diverted from railway marshalling yard to rail-served factories and godowns within the town from where off loading was carried out. As a result, the respondents disbursed several million shillings in compensation to the owners of the stolen consignments and it became necessary to take deterrent measures to arrest the situation.

The respondents went on to say that train No. A 40 arrived in Mombasa Yard at 11.30 hours on 8th August, 1977 with wagons from up-country loaded with coffee, and consigned to the Coffee Marketing Board and Messrs. Edmund Schluter, for delivery to their sidings as indicated hereunder:

- 52847 Mbaraki Siding Coffee Marketing Board.
- 54926 Mbaraki Siding Coffee Marketing Board.
- 73142 Makupa Siding Coffee Marketing Board.
- 54520 Makupa Siding Coffee Marketing Board.
- 54750 Mbaraki Siding Coffee Marketing Board.
- 54546 Mbaraki Siding Coffee Marketing Board.
- 53378 Mbaraki Siding Coffee Marketing Board.
- 73061 Mbaraki Siding Coffee Marketing Board.

- 55596 Mbaraki Siding Coffee Marketing Board.
- 55586 Makupa Siding Coffee Marketing Board.
- 53426 Mbaraki Siding Coffee Marketing Board.
- 55722 Mbaraki Siding Coffee Marketing Board.
- 62190 Mbaraki Siding Coffee Marketing Board.
- 61489 Mbaraki Siding Coffee Marketing Board.
- 54027 High Level Siding Messrs. Edmund Schluter.
- 58763 High Level Siding Messrs. Edmund Schluter.
- 54769 High Level Siding Messrs. Edmund Schluter.

All the above-mentioned wagons arrived with their seals intact, indicating that their contents were not interfered with. The next phase of the operation was to sort out the train loads for placing individual wagons into respective correct sidings. For shunting engines intending to remove wagons from Mombasa Yard to their respective destination sidings, permission to enter or leave the yard is granted by the senior yard foreman who controls movements into and out of the yard. On this particular day, the shift yard foreman attached to Mbaraki and High level sidings were Messrs. Kidialla and Luvaha, respectively.

It transpired that of the eleven wagons for Mbaraki Siding, only nine were placed at that line. Two of them, namely Nos. 52847 and 54926, were left in Mombasa Yard by the yard foreman concerned, Mr. Kidialla. The two wagons were subsequently found the following day empty in the Mombasa Yard. Their contents having been mysteriously off loaded and disappeared. Consequent upon the discovery of the theft all employees who were on duty at the time the wagons arrived and their subsequent discovery in the empty state were suspected of collusion in the crime and the matter was handed over to the police for investigation. However, the police after interrogation of the suspects reported that their investigation had been unsuccessful and closed their file. The employees concerned were, therefore, called upon to exculpate themselves from charges of neglect of duty. All of them, with the exception of Mr. Luvaha, offered their explanation and were given the benefit of doubt as their complicity in the affair was not proved beyond reasonable doubt. It is noteworthy that Mr. Luvaha had also failed to prepare handing over notes of any wagons placed at the High Level Siding where he was working between 7th and 10th August, 1977 even though he had shunted wagons Nos. 55027, 55763 and 54769 to the same siding on the fateful day of 8th August, 1977 consigned to Messrs. Edmund Schluter.

Reverting to the charges preferred against Mr. Luvaha, the respondents stated that the claimants' representatives at the aborted personal hearing first objected to the words "while working as a yard foreman at Mombasa Yard" on the grounds that Mr. Luvaha was, according to his assignment, at the High Level Siding. The other ground of their objection was that they wanted the chairman of the hearing to prove first that it was necessary to shunt wagons for Mbaraki Siding through the High Level Siding. Thirdly, they alleged that the chairman had himself first investigated the case and accused him of bias even though he had not commented on the evidence which he had just started to record.

To counter the above grounds of objection, the respondents pointed out that although the siding are situated outside Mombasa Yard, they are connected thereto. The respondents added that the claimants' memorandum depicts the Mombasa Yard layout only and excludes the sidings, hence it does not give a true picture of the areas. Mr. Luvaha was, of course, rostered to work at the High Level Siding, but the point at which he was to report for duty is at Mombasa Yard where handing and taking over takes place and charge diary is maintained.

Secondly, the yard is the focal point from which all shunting movements begin and end. It is, therefore, incorrect to say that because Mr. Luvaha was manning the High Level Siding shunting locomotive, he had nothing to do with the main Mombasa Yard. As a matter of fact, his shunting engine removed wagons from the Mombasa Yard on this particular day.

The respondents went on to say that the demand that the chairman first prove the possibility of shunting wagons for Mbaraki Siding through High Level Siding, before the hearing could proceed, was tantamount to dictating conditions by the claimants' representatives who should have proceeded to prove their point. They, however, failed to do so. The accusation that the chairman was involved in the investigation of the case was a false one. The case was, in fact, investigated by the district traffic inspector whose report was made known to the court. Furthermore it defies logic to have accused the chairman of bias when the personal hearing had just begun without him having heard and recorded the evidence. Contrary to the claimants' contentions Mr. Luvaha, along with other suspects in this incident, was afforded full opportunity to exculpate himself from the charges. The personal hearing had to be postponed on two occasions at the claimants' request and when it was finally arranged for 22nd July, 1978 the chairman started recording Mr. Luvaha's statement when the claimants' representatives, as an after thought, decided to terminate the proceedings and walked out from the meeting. This action, the respondents contended, was not in the best interest of their member whom they had come to represent and who complied with their advice and thus effectively failed to offer an explanation in defence.

The respondents pointed out that the claimants' representatives' attitude and the subsequent walk-out was spearheaded by a Mr. Nyakundi who, at that time, had a criminal case pending against him in another court for theft of coffee in transit and for which he was later convicted and jailed. The respondents asked the court to note that investigations that were going on in respect of Mr. Luvaha could jeopardize Mr. Nyakundi's interests, hence his leading role in frustrating the personal hearing. Mr. Luvaha himself having forfeited his right to a defence, the respondents were left with no other alternative but to assume that Mr. Luvaha had no explanation to offer and, accordingly, proceeded to dismiss him for serious neglect of duty.

The respondents further made it clear that all employees connected with yard shunting on the particular shift when the wagons were diverted were called upon to exculpate themselves from the charges. Because of the difficulty in pinpointing the actual siding to where the wagons might have been shunted, each of the affected employees was given an opportunity to put forward a disclaimer and all of them, except Mr. Luvaha, chose to do so.

Turning over to the demands that the handing over diary be produced by the respondents, the respondents stated that it should be borne in mind that those involved with coffee malpractices at the time operated an organised racket and made sure that records were either mislaid or destroyed to conceal the truth.

Lastly, the respondents stated that the fact that the claimants alleged that there were no wagons in the siding to hand over is an admission that Mr. Luvaha did not hand over his duties which as seen from the district traffic inspector's report he failed to do from 7th to 10th August, 1977.

In view of Mr. Luvaha's past service record, which can only be described as deplorable, plus the way he conducted himself by refusing to offer an explanation legitimately called for by the respondents to account for a substantial loss of 1,176 bags of coffee for which the respondents paid a claim of KSh. 7,896,000. The respondents requested the court to reject the demand for the reinstatement of Mr. Luvaha or payment of compensation to him for wrongful dismissal.

After careful consideration of the submissions of the parties in this dispute, the court feels that Mr. Luvaha and the claimants' representatives should have taken the opportunity given to them at the personal hearing to defend him. They should not have demanded adjournment of a meeting in which the grievant had been offered a personal hearing. The court would like to emphasize that obtaining an explanation from an employee is not in itself a punishment but failure for an employee to answer a charge and exonerate himself could suggest an involvement. This fact in itself however is not enough to warrant his dismissal as concrete evidence is necessary to connect him with the missing coffee. The claimants during the hearing have pointed out that wagons being shunted to Mbaraki Siding did not have to go through the High Level Siding where Mr. Luvaha was the yard foreman and the court believes that. Moreover the coffee in question could not have been stolen without the actual knowledge and participation of quite a few other employees like the Mombasa Yard foreman, the Mbaraki Siding Yard foreman and the lower end points controller all of whom are still in the respondents' employment. They certainly had more questions to answer and explain than Mr. Luvaha.

Regarding the second charge against the grievant in which he was charged for failing to prepare and issue handing over notes, the court notes the claimants' explanation as to what had actually happened and further because of the failure of the respondents to produce the relevant documents and the diary used on the particular four days in question when the matter was raised the court cannot find the charge proved against Mr. Luvaha. In the light of foregoing the court finds that Mr. Luvaha has suffered a wrongful dismissal.

The court awards that Mr. Luvaha's dismissal should be reduced to normal termination and he should be paid his gratuity which the court was told was KSh. 28,586.25. The court rejects the claimants' demand for his reinstatement and payment of all the salary for the time he has been out of employment.

GAZETTE NOTICE NO. 1915

THE TRADE MARKS ACT

(Cap. 506)

NOTICE is given that any person who has grounds of opposition to the registration of any of the trade marks advertised herein according to the classes may, within sixty (60) days from the date of this Gazette, lodge notice of opposition on form TM. (No. 6 (in duplicate) together with a fee of KSh. 50.

Notice is also given that official objection will be taken under rule 21 (3) to all applications in which the specification claims all the goods included in any class unless the registrar is satisfied that the claim is justified by the use of the mark which the applicant has made, or intends to make if and when it is registered. Where an applicant considers that a claim in respect of all the goods included in a class can be justified it will save unnecessary delay in examining applications if a claim is filed simultaneously with the application, accompanied in appropriate cases by supporting documents.

The period for lodging notice of opposition may be extended by the registrar as he thinks fit and upon such terms as he may direct. Any request for such extension should be made to the registrar so as to reach him before the expiry of the period allowed.

Formal opposition should not be lodged until after reasonable notice has been given by letter to the applicant for registration so as to afford him an opportunity of withdrawing his application before the expense of preparing the notice of opposition is incurred. Failure to give such notice will be taken into account in considering any application by an opponent for an order for costs if the opposition is uncontested by the applicant.

Where it is stated in the advertisement of the applicant that the mark, upon its registration, is to be limited to certain colours, the colours are, as far as possible, indicated in the accompanying representations of the mark in the usual heraldic manner.

Representations of the marks advertised herein can be seen at the Trade Marks Registry, State Law Office, Nairobi.

Applications for registration in part A of the register are shown with the official number unaccompanied by any letter. Applications for part B are distinguished by the letter B prefixed to the official number.
