GAZETTE NOTICE No. 1604

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE NO. 28 OF 1980

Parties:

Kenya Union of Commercial Food & Allied Workers
and Wellcome (Kenya) Ltd.

Interpretation Application Ruling

The Court announced its award in the above dispute on 3rd November, 1980. The Court awarded Mr. Munyaka nine months' salary by way of compensation and added that this compensation included the one month's notice. The Court further directed that the Respondents should also pay 25 per cent of their contribution to the staff pension scheme to Mr. Munyaka as he had been refunded only his contributions. This was in accordance with the rules of the staff pension scheme which were produced to the Court during the hearing.

The Claimants have pointed out that Mr. Munyaka was entitled to two months' notice as he had served between five and ten years. This was in accordance with the collective agreement between the Claimants and the Association of Pharmaceutical Industries. The Respondents accept this. The Court therefore rules that Mr. Munyaka is entitled to an additional one months' pay to cover the second month of the notice period.

The Claimants have also argued in this interpretation application that Mr. Munyaka was entitled to 23 days' leave and leave travelling allowance. The Respondents stated that for the period between November, 1978 and April, 1979 the accrued leave due to Mr. Munyaka was 15 days and they agree to pay him for that.

The Court finds that Mr. Munyaka is entitled to 23 days' leave and the Court further rules that he should be paid the leave allowance as well. The Court would like to point out that the Respondents have been found to have wrongfully dismissed Mr. Munyaka and he is therefore entitled to these benefits.

The Court would now like to deal with the rather important point in this interpretation application and that is what is Mr. Munyaka's entitlement as far as the employer's contribution to the pension scheme is concerned. During the hearing the Court was given a little booklet entitled "your guide to the Wellcome E.A. Pension Scheme" and in this it is stated as follows under the heading "what if you leave the company":

"If you leave the company before the normal pension age you will always be entitled to 100 per cent return of your own contributions and you will become entitled to the benefits secured by the company's contributions as follows—

Before completing five years' service—nil.

After completing five years' service and before completing 10 years service—25 per cent.

After completing 10 years' service and before completing 15 years' service—50 per cent.

After completing 15 years' service—100 per cent."

The Claimants produced this booklet and the Respondents at that time did not challenge its contents and the Court proceeded to make an award that Mr. Munyaka should be paid 25 per cent of the Respondents' contribution to the pension scheme.

The dispute has now arisen because according to the Claimants the Respondents should pay Mr. Munyaka Sh. 14,475 being the benefits secured by the Respondents' contribution to the staff pension scheme. The Claimants argued that the Respondents' contribution had amounted to Sh. 57,900 and the amount they were claiming was 25 per cent of this amount.

The Respondents claimed that Mr. Munyaka was entitled to 25 per cent of Sh. 182/45 which they stated was their contribution towards Mr. Munyaka's target pension in accordance with the rules of the staff pension scheme.

The Court was very concerned at this aspect of the dispute as it was apparent that the workers were not at all aware of how the pension scheme operated and what benefits were secured by them through their own contributions and through the employer's contributions the extent of which was not known to them. The Court accordingly directed that a representative of the insurance brokers who arranged this pension scheme should appear before the Court and explain the various points. Accordingly A. R. Odongo who works for H. Clarkson & Southern Ltd. as manager in charge of employee benefit division i.e. life and pensions and medical came and gave evidence before the Court on oath. He explained in detail how the scheme operated and pointed out that on the termination of a member's contract by leaving the Respondents' service the benefits would become payable in accordance with the provisions of rule 14. He added Mr. Munyaka's entitlement would be as follows:

Date	Employee	Employer	Single Premium
1-3-1975	1,352/40		2,130/-
1-3-1976	1,447/20	182/45	—
1-3-1977	1,540/80	—	—
1-3-1978	1,764/-	—	—
1-3-1978 and 1-4-1979	294/-	—	—
TOTAL	6,398/40	182/45	2,130/-
Surrender value (66 2/3%)	4,265/60	121/65	× 94% 2,002/20

In this particular case the employer's surrender value (Sh. 121.65) is less than Sh. 2,132/80 to make up the difference of 100 per cent return of employee's contribution, it follows therefore that the employer has to raise Sh. 2,011/15 from other sources to ensure the 100 per cent return. In addition to this there is also Sh. 2,002/20 arising from the single premium payable to Munyaka."

The Court finds the members' ignorance of their pension scheme to be very regrettable. It is a pity that the workers were not explained in details the rules of the pension scheme and how various amounts would be worked out under various contingencies as was explained by Mr. Odongo in Court. The fact however remains that the Industrial Court has no powers to tamper with the terms of the pension scheme and in the booklet it is stated in the beginning that while this guide shows the main provisions in plain language it does not supersede the rules of the scheme (as may be amended from time to time) which are the governing regulations. It is further stated that the copy of the rules is held by the company secretary.

In view of Mr. Odongo's evidence the Court is satisfied that the Claimants' method of working out the Respondents' contribution is not the correct way and their claim of Sh. 14,475 is misconceived mainly through the ignorance of their member regarding the various ramifications of the pension scheme.

After careful consideration of all the submissions on this point the Court rules that Mr. Munyaka is entitled to his own contributions of Sh. 6,398/40, 25 per cent of the employer's contributions i.e. Sh. 45/65 and the single premium of Sh. 2,002/20 making a total of Sh. 8,446/25.

Dated the 15th May, 1981.

Judge.

THE TRADE MARKS ACT (Cap. 506)

NOTICE is given that any person who has grounds of opposition to the registration of any of the trade marks advertised herein according to the classes may, within 60 days from the date of this Gazette, lodge notice of opposition on Form T.M. No. 6 (in duplicate) together with a fee of Sh. 50.

Notice is also given that official objection will be taken under rule 21 (3) to all applications in which the specification claims all the goods included in any class unless the Registrar is satisfied that the claim is justified by the use of the mark which the applicant has made, or intends to make if and when it is registered. Where an applicant considers that a claim in respect of all the goods included in a class can be justified it will save unnecessary delay in examining applications if a claim is filed simultaneously with the application, accompanied in appropriate cases by supporting documents.

The period for lodging notice of opposition may be extended by the Registrar as he thinks fit and upon such terms as he may direct. Any request for such extension should be made to the Registrar so as to reach him before the expiry of the period allowed.

Formal opposition should not be lodged until after reasonable notice has been given by letter to the applicant for registration so as to afford him any opportunity of withdrawing his application before the expense of preparing the notice of opposition is incurred. Failure to give such notice will be taken into account in considering any application by an opponent for an order for costs if the opposition is uncontested by the applicant.

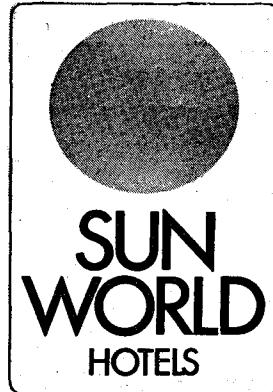

Where it is stated in the advertisement of the applicant that the mark, upon its registration, is to be limited to certain colours, the colours are as far as possible, indicated in the accompanying representations of the mark in the usual heraldic manner.
