GAZETTE NOTICE No. 298

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE No. 44 OF 1985

Parties:

Kenya Union of Commercial Food and Allied Workers and

Kenya Canners Ltd.

Issue in dispute:

Wrongful dismissal of James Mutie Muthwa.

THE Kenya Union of Commercial Food and Allied Workers shall hereinafter be referred to as the claimants and the Kenya Canners Ltd. shall hereinafter be referred to as the respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on 16th and 17th December, 1985 and relied on their written and verbal submissions.

AWARD

3. The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 6th June, 1984, duly signed by both parties, was received by the court on 23rd April, 1985, together with the statutory certificates signed by the Labour Commissioner and the Minister for Labour.

The background of the case is that Mr. Muthwa was employed by the respondents on 13th March, 1977 as a tool-store clerk in the engineering department. He was dismissed on 29th March, 1983. The claimants admitted in court that their member, Mr. Muthwa, had received a tyre serial No. IG/39V/4347, size 900X20 fitted on to a rim. The claimants went ahead to tell the court that the security guard and the security supervisor who were on duty on that day had conspired to implicate their member simply because he happened to be on duty on that day and again because Mr. Muthwa had received the tyre, recorded and signed for it. The claimants blamed the security guard, Mr. Makao, who having discovered the tyre instead of investigating properly as to who had deposited it where it was found, had hastily concluded that it was Mr. Muthwa who had done so.

To back up their case, the claimants had called Mr. Muthwa as their witness. Mr. Muthwa denied in court that he had attempted to steal the tyre as alleged by the respondents nor was he the one who was seen by Mr. Makao to have been moving away from where the tyre was found. He told the court that at 8 p.m. he went for his supper and he left James Thuo in charge of the store and therefore the tyre could have disappeared during his absence. In conclusion, Mr. Muthwa told the court that he does not know how to drive and therefore the allegations by the respondents that he had attempted to use the company pick-up KRA 147 to ferry the tyre outside the compound of the respondents was not true. The claimants ended their submissions by telling the court that the investigator appointed by the Ministry of Labour had recommended a normal termination for their member, but they were now asking the court to reinstate him despite the fact that he is currently working for Ryce Motors Ltd.

The respondents contested this case very strongly. They went straight to demolish the evidence given by Mr. Muthwa in court. The respondents produced the statement recorded and signed by Mr. Muthwa the following day after the incident. The respondents pointed to the court that it was not true that Mr. Muthwa had gone for supper at 8 p.m. and that he had left his workmate James Thuo in charge of the store and therefore the tyre could have disappeared during his absence. The respondents continued to tell the court that the statement by Mr. Muthwa showed that James Thuo had left for home at 7 p.m. not 8 p.m. as claimed by Mr. Muthwa. The respondents informed the court that it was only Mr. Muthwa who had the key to the store and the other duplicate key was kept in the head office, therefore the respondents had every reason to believe that it was Mr. Muthwa who had attempted to steal the tyre.

The respondents called two witnesses to back up their case, the chief security officer and the security guard who was on duty on that day. Mr. Makao started his evidence by telling the court that as he was patrolling the area he heard a noise of a falling object and as he proceeded towards the dark spot under the tree, he saw somebody moving away from that spot. He continued to tell the court that because of the security lights he recognized that it was Mr. Muthwa who was moving away from the spot where he later found the tyre and therefore he concluded that it was Mr. Muthwa who had attempted to steal the tyre in question. Mr. Makao continued to inform the court that he decided to report the matter to his security supervisor, and as he was going towards his supervisor he was surprised again to meet Mr. Muthwa who at this time was driving company pick-up KRA 147 and he greeted him in Kikamba. Mr. Makao concluded his evidence by telling the court that he suspected that Mr. Muthwa was trying to use company pick-up to take the tyre outside the respondents' compound. Mr. Makao ended by saying that Mr. Muthwa had attempted to obtain a pass so as to enable him to go out of the compound, but because he had earlier reported the matter his request was turned down by the security supervisor.

Festus Njeru, the last witness of the respondents, informed the court that the matter was reported to him the following day and he instituted an investigation. He told the court he interviewed Mr. Muthwa and he, Mr. Muthwa, could not explain how the tyre which was in his custody had disappeared. The respondents concluded their submissions by telling the court that further investigation was carried out on 19th March, 1983 and to their surprise they recovered three rims, in the field near the factory, which were the property of the respondents. The respondents pointed to the court that the discovery of the rims cast more distrust on the grievant's faith and integrity as an employee of the respondents. The respondents ended their submissions by saying that they did not accept the recommendations and findings of the Ministry of Labour and concluded by requesting the court to uphold their decision.

The court has taken into account the submissions presented to the court by both parties, written and verbal and the evidence given by their witnesses. The court noted that both parties agreed that there was attempt within the factory of the respondents to steal a tyre fitted on to the rim.

The court was not impressed with the evidence given by Mr. Muthwa and he did not appear to be a truthful witness. The respondents' two witnesses, Festus Njeru, the chief security officer and Mr. Makao, the security guard, appeared to be honest witnesses.

The court has come to the conclusion that the grievant was involved in a serious misconduct and the court has no alternative but to reject the claimants demands and uphold the respondents' decision to dismiss him.

Dated in Nairobi the 14th January, 1986.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS TO THE KENYA GAZETTE

THE following notes are for the guidance of persons submitting "copy" for inclusion in the Kenya Gazette, Supplements, etc.:

- (1) The Kenya Gazette contains notices of a general nature which do not affect legislation. They are therefore submitted to the Government Printer directly.
- (2) Legislative Supplement contains Rules and Regulations which are issued by the Central Government. Because of this they must be submitted to the Government Printer through the office of the Attorney-General.
- (3) Bill Supplement contains Bills which are for introduction in the National Assembly.
- (4) Act Supplement contains Acts passed by the National Assembly.

All "copy" submitted for publication should be prepared on one side of an A4 sheet no matter how small the notice or Act, each page being numbered, and should be typewritten with double spacing. Copy should be clear, legible and contain a minimum of alterations.

Particular attention should be paid to the following points:

- (i) Signatures must be clarified by means of rubber-stamping or typing the name of the signer in capital letters.
- (ii) Dates must be correct and filled in where necessary.
- (iii) Care should be taken to ensure that all headings to notices and references to legislation are up to date and conform with the Revised Edition of the Laws of Kenya.

EXTRACT FROM THE CODE OF REGULATIONS, SECTION D—Kenya Gazette

"D.14.(1) Communications for the Kenya Gazette should reach the Government Printer not later than 12 noon, on Tuesday of the week that publication is desired. The Government Printer will not publish communications received after that hour until the next subsequent issue of the Gazette.

(2) It will facilitate work at the Press if Permanent Secretaries will forward Gazette notices to the Government Printer when ready."

It is emphasized that these notes are for guidance only, but it is requested that persons submitting copy for publication first satisfy themselves that such copy is complete in every respect.
