THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE NO. 56 OF 1988

Parties:

Kenya Engineering Workers Union

and

Engineering and Allied Industries Employers Association

Interpretation application

Ruling

The court announced its award in the above dispute on 10th January, 1990, in respect of two issues in dispute. These are namely (1) gratuity clause amendment and (2) employment of casuals. However, this application is directed at the gratuity clause amendment.

The court awarded a gratuity scheme in addition to the existing retirement benefits as: "This scheme however will be effective from 1st September, 1988, i.e. the workers' years of service for this scheme will be counted from this date:

After 1 to 5 years service, one-and-a-half weeks pay for each completed year of service.

From 6 to 10 years service, two weeks pay for each completed year of service.

From 10 years service, two-and-a-half weeks pay for each completed year of service.

An employee who resigns or loses his job on disciplinary grounds will not be entitled to benefit from this scheme."

The respondents have moved the court for an interpretation of this award saying that the claimants have demanded that retiring employees should benefit from both the gratuity scheme as awarded by the court and private provident fund schemes in force in some companies in their group. The respondents informed the court that the gratuity scheme awarded by the court was a supplementary scheme to the N.S.S.F. The respondents stressed that they are not opposed to the gratuity scheme running concurrently with the private provident fund schemes because a retiring employee would benefit from one which is more favourable to him/her.

The respondents further stated that the claimants have failed to show in their arguments how the court's award is being violated by the above interpretation. In view of the above, respondents asked the court to find their interpretation as the correct one.

The claimants accepted the principle of gratuity scheme as a supplementary retirement benefit to those already in existence, but felt that it was more beneficial to draw retirement benefits from both private provident funds and the gratuity scheme than from one of them. The claimants stressed that they could not accept the respondents' interpretation without the court's ruling because some employers would take advantage and discontinue the private provident fund schemes in favour of the gratuity scheme. The claimants prayed the court to rule that it's award applied in addition to the private provident funds.

The court confirms that the respondents interpretation of the court award is correct and the retiring employee will be entitled to benefit either from the court award on the gratuity scheme or the private provident fund scheme whichever is most beneficial to the worker but not from both but this will be in addition to the N.S.S.F.

Dated the 8th March, 1990.

TO THE KENYA GAZETTE

THE following notes are for the guidance of persons submitting "copy" for inclusion in the Kenya Gazette, Supplement, etc.:

- (1) The Kenya Gazette contains notices of a general nature which do not affect legislation. They are, therefore, submitted to the Government Printer directly.

All "copy" submitted for publication should be prepared on one side of an A4 sheet no matter how small the notice or Act, each page being numbered, and should be typewritten with double spacing. Copy should be clear, legible and contain a minimum of alterations.

Particular attention should be paid to the following points:

- (i) Signature must be clarified by means of rubber-stamping or typing the name of the signer in capital letters.
- (ii) Dates must be correct and filled in where necessary.
- (iii) Care should be taken to ensure that all headings to notices and references to legislation are up to date and conform with the Revised Edition of the Laws of Kenya.
