GAZETTE NOTICE NO. 3908

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT
CAUSE NO. 30 OF 1965

Parties:

The Kenya Distributive and Commercial Workers' Union and
Messrs Kanjee Naranjee (Kenya) Limited

Issues in Dispute:

- (i) Housing Allowance.
- (ii) Annual Leave.
- (iii) Annual Increments.
- (iv) Travelling Allowance.
- (v) Maternity Leave.
- (vi) Minimum Wages.
- (vii) Retirement Pay.
- (viii) Date of Implementation.

1. The issues were referred to the Industrial Court for settlement in accordance with the provisions of the Trade Disputes Act, 1965.

The parties were heard in Nairobi on 20th September 1965. The Kenya Distributive and Commercial Workers' Union (hereinafter referred to as the Claimants) called one witness.

GENERAL BACKGROUND

2. On the expiry of the Tripartite Agreement the Claimants submitted new terms and conditions of service proposals to Messrs. Kanjee Naranjee (Kenya) Limited (hereinafter referred to as the Respondents). The Respondents employ some 14 employees, mostly watchmen, cleaners and office staff. Although much correspondence took place between the parties, it was not until 9th August 1965, that a meeting was held to consider the Claimants' proposals. The existing Agreement between the parties came into force on the 1st of August 1963, for a minimum period of one year but was subject to the effect of the Tripartite Agreement. No agreement was reached on any of the new proposals and both parties agreed to refer them to the Industrial Court. At the hearing the Claimants withdrew two issues, i.e. (i) Housing Allowance and (ii) Annual Leave, from the issues in dispute before the Court.

MAIN SUBMISSIONS BY THE CLAIMANTS

3. (iii) and (vi) On the issues of Annual Increments and Minimum Wage the Claimants submitted that, as the wages included the housing element, the Respondents should be reasonable and take this fact, together with other human needs, into account, when arguing their case. The Claimants asked that no employee should be denied an increase of wages by virtue of the Court's Award being less than the point to which he had reached in his present scale. The Claimants' wages and incremental demands, which were stated to be lower than their original proposals to the Respondents, were as follows:—

- (a) Clerks, Sh. 500 by Sh. 35.
- (b) Drivers, Sh. 380 by Sh. 30.
- (c) Watchmen, Sh. 280 by Sh. 25.
- (d) Messengers, Sh. 250 by Sh. 25.
- (e) Liftmen, Sh. 250 by Sh. 25.
- (f) Cleaners (male), Sh. 230 by Sh. 20.
- (g) Cleaners (female), Sh. 230 by Sh. 20.

(iv) The Claimants submitted that their demand for an increased travelling allowance was reasonable. They asked that for the purpose of this claim the employees should be divided into two groups—Manual Workers and Non-manual Workers. Manual Workers should be paid a travelling allowance of Sh. 75 and non-manual workers Sh. 120. They asked that this allowance should not be tied to the employee having to take his holiday at his own home, but should be paid to the employee when he went on his holiday—no matter where.

(v) As their existing Agreement did not make any provision for sick leave the Claimants asked the Court to award 30 days with full pay and 30 days with half pay as sick benefit which female employees could take as a maternity leave. This, it was stated, would remove their usual confusion on this issue.

(vii) The Claimants requested the Court to award gratuity at the rate of 1 month's pay for every completed year of service as from the engagement date of the employee up to the date when Government introduced its National Provident Fund Scheme.

(viii) It was the Claimants' submission that the Respondents were somewhat confused over the effect of the Tripartite Agreement on the existing Agreement. The Court was asked to award that the implementation date of the new agreement be as from the expiry of the Tripartite Agreement.

MAIN SUBMISSIONS BY THE RESPONDENTS

4. (iii), (vi) and (viii) The Respondents' submission was that their existing Agreement could only be terminated after one month's notice, in accordance with clause 18 of their Agreement, to vary the same, had been given. They were of the opinion that no negotiations on wages should take place until a further 14 months (the life of the Tripartite Agreement) after this month's notice had elapsed. Even if the Court did not agree with their submission, they suggested that the earliest date a new agreement on wages could be made was 14 months from 31st July 1964, which was the date of expiry of the minimum period of their existing Agreement.

The Respondents considered that the Claimants' wage claims were most unreasonable and they were left with the impression that this was deliberate in order to extract more than fair conditions from them. This view they considered was strengthened by the Claimants' action in submitting a reduced wages claim, to the Court, to that originally submitted to them.

At a meeting with the Claimants, the Respondents stated the Claimants had suggested that the claims put forward were to be regarded as intended to lead to negotiations for the terms to be applied to the particular post, and not to individuals. It was their submission that this course should be followed, and that if a scale of wages was adopted for any particular class of work, that the individual worker should come into this particular scale at the point next above his present wage, provided that he had not received any increase within the past two years.

The Respondents submitted that should the Court reject their argument that wage negotiations should be deferred for a further 14 months, then the best offer they could make, which was inclusive of housing allowance, was as follows:—

	per month
(a) Clerks (experienced) ..	Sh. 350 by Sh. 15 to Sh. 500
(b) Drivers ..	Sh. 250 by Sh. 10 to Sh. 300
(c) Watchmen ..	Sh. 200
(d) Liftmen ..	Sh. 200
(e) Office Messengers ..	Sh. 200 by Sh. 10 to Sh. 250
(f) Cleaners (male) ..	Sh. 200
(g) Cleaners (female) ..	Sh. 130 by Sh. 4 to Sh. 150

(iv) On leave allowance the Respondents considered that their offer to pay their employees third class railway or bus fare within Kenya to a nominated destination subject to a maximum of Sh. 60 was reasonable. It was wrong that any of their employees should make money out of this allowance. The Court was asked to award accordingly.

(v) The Respondents stated that they had offered to grant unpaid leave, in maternity cases, subject to earned annual leave being taken on pay within the same period when so required. This, they submitted was reasonable and was in keeping with the terms of service for agricultural workers as contained in the Regulation of Wages (Agricultural Industries) Order, 1965 (L.N. No. 233), section 10, which prescribed that an employed woman shall be entitled to unpaid maternity leave. It was also submitted that this Government Regulation was in line with the International Labour Organization's thinking set out in the Report of the Committee of Experts on the Application of Conventions and Recommendations (49th Session, Geneva 1965) which accepted that the matter of maternity protection was a matter for the State and not for the individual employer.

(vii) It was the Respondents' submission that as the Government had announced its intention to introduce a National Provident Fund no further action should be taken on this issue.

AWARD

5. The Respondents' submission, that the agreement dated 8th August 1963, was terminated in April this year and therefore the standstill period of 14 months should commence from that time, is over-ruled. The agreement did not expire during the life of the Tripartite Agreement, but during the standstill period. There is no merit in this submission. The Court notes that the demands in respect of housing and leave (long) allowance have been withdrawn by the Claimants.

After a careful consideration of all the arguments, the Court awards as follows:—

- (i) Housing allowance.—Nil award as withdrawn by the Claimants.
- (ii) Annual leave.—Nil award as withdrawn by the Claimants.
- (iii) Annual increments.—Nil award.
Incremental scales are dispensed with as the practice appears to be to negotiate annually.
- (iv) Travelling allowance.—An employee when proceeding on leave (once a year) shall get the following travelling allowance with no conditions:—
Clerical—Sh. 75
Non-clerical—Sh. 60

(v) Maternity leave.—In the past, the Court has treated Maternity leave as a "sickness", and given the female employees the benefit of the remainder of sick leave in any one year. In this case there appears to be no agreement on sick leave and the Court, therefore, lays down a period of sick leave for the purposes of maternity for female employees as follows:—

Two weeks with full pay.

Two weeks on half pay.

The rest of the Maternity leave shall be without pay.

The total Maternity leave not to exceed six weeks before, and six weeks after, child-birth. A female employee shall be entitled to this benefit on completion of one year.

(vi) Wages:—

Clerks (experienced)	Sh. 450 per month
Drivers (light)	Sh. 310 per month
Watchmen	Sh. 225 per month
Messengers	Sh. 225 per month
Liftmen	Sh. 225 per month
Cleaners (male)	Sh. 225 per month
Cleaners (female)	Sh. 180 per month

(vii) Retirement pay.—An employee shall be entitled to ten days' pay for every completed year of service, with effect from 1st January 1960, on retirement by the employer.

(viii) Implementation.—With effect from 1st October 1965, for a period of 12 months.

Given in Nairobi this 12th day of October 1965.

SAEED R. COCKAR,
President.

C. G. HEYWOOD,
ELIZABETH MUTURI (Mrs.),
