THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE NO. 89 OF 1990

Parties:

Kenya Building, Construction, Civil Engineering and Allied Trades Workers' Union and
Afro Italian Company Limited

Issue in dispute:

Dismissal of Morris Mukuku.

THE Kenya Building, Construction, Civil Engineering and Allied Trades Workers' Union shall hereinafter be referred to as the claimants and the Afro-Italian Company Ltd., shall hereinafter be referred to as the respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on 16th January, 1991, and relied on their verbal and written submissions. In addition the following witness was called by the respondents to testify on oath.

Respondents.—Albert Konde.

The claimants did not call any witness.

AWARD

3. The Minister for Labour signed the reference of this dispute to the Industrial Court on 8th August, 1990, in accordance with section 8 of the Trade Disputes Act (Cap. 234), which reference was received by the court on 10th August, 1990, together with the statutory certificates signed by the Labour Commissioner and the Minister himself. Mr. M. Mukuku was employed by the respondents on 24th July, 1978, as a machine operator (terrazzo machine) earning KSh. 700 p.m. It is alleged that he was given a verbal dismissal on 10th March, 1986, after having served the respondents for nearly seven years eight months.

At the end of February 1986, it is alleged that Mr. Mukuku absented himself from duty for nine days from 1st March, 1986, without reasonable excuse.

These parties tried to settle the matter amicably at their own level but failed. The dispute was then reported to the Minister for Labour. Thereafter, the dispute was investigated by the Ministry and the findings and recommendations were released to the parties on 2nd December, 1987.

The Ministry's findings were that Mr. Mukuku had asked and was granted permission to travel to his home up-country. However, on resuming duty, on 10th March, 1986, he was asked to choose either to revoke his union membership or quit his employment which he refused. This led to the grievant's dismissal and the respondents' decision to dismiss him was found to have been unlawful.

The Ministry recommended that Mr. Mukuku be paid all his terminal dues including salary for 1st and 2nd March, 1986, respectively. He was also to be paid four months salary by way of compensation for the wrongful dismissal he had suffered.

The recommendation was turned down by the respondents and now the matter is before the court for consideration.

The claimants prayed the court to make an award as follows:

- (a) Maximum compensation for the wrongful dismissal Mr. Mukuku suffered.
- (b) Payment of cash in lieu of appropriate notice.
- (c) Wages for days worked.
- (d) Underpayment of wages in arrears from 1st May, 1985, to 3rd March, 1986.

The respondents urged the court not to allow the dispute and prayed that it be dismissed in total.

It is most regrettable that the claimants did not call the grievant to come and give evidence—infact the grievant was not even present during the hearing. This has resulted in the evidence of the respondents' witness remaining unchallenged.

The respondents' witness who is also an active trade union member confirmed that the grievant was absent from duty twice at the end of February and March 1986 without permission and that on both occasions he failed to produce any documentary evidence to show either that he had a case or that he attended a funeral.

From the evidence before the court it is evident that the grievant who was a shop steward misbehaved and when asked for an explanation he abandoned his employment—infact absconded from duty.

Under these circumstances the court must reject all the demands made by the claimants on his behalf.

As far as the question of any underpayment is concerned the claimants can take up the matter with the Labour Office, Mombasa to look into it and get the grievant his dues, if any.

Dated the 7th February, 1991.

Judge.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS TO THE KENYA GAZETTE

THE following notes are for the guidance of persons submitting "copy" for inclusion in the Kenya Gazette, Supplement, etc.:

- (1) The Kenya Gazette contains notices of a general nature which do not affect legislation. They are, therefore, submitted to the Government Printer directly.
- (2) Legislative Supplement contains Rules and Regulations which are issued by the central Government. Because of this they must be submitted to the Government Printer through the office of the Attorney-General.
- (3) Bill Supplement contains Bills which are for introduction in the National Assembly.
- (4) Act Supplement contains Acts passed by the National Assembly.

All "copy" submitted for publication should be prepared on one side of an A4 sheet no matter how small the notice or Act, each page being numbered, and should be typewritten with double spacing. Copy should be clear, legible and contain a minimum of alterations.

Particular attention should be paid to the following points:

- i) Signature must be clarified by means of rubber-stamping or typing the name of the signer in capital letters.
- ii) Dates must be correct and filled in where necessary.
- iii) Care should be taken to ensure that all headings to notices and references to legislation are up to date and conform with the Revised Edition of the Laws of Kenya.
