THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE NO. 63 OF 1986

Parties:

Kenya Union of Employees of Voluntary Associations, Trade Unions and Allied Organizations and
Kenya Chemical Workers' Union

Issue in dispute:

Recognition Agreement.

THE Kenya Union of Employees of Voluntary Associations, Trade Unions and Allied Organizations, shall hereinafter be referred to as the claimants and the Kenya Chemical Workers Union, shall hereinafter be referred to as the respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on 5th July, 1990, and relied on their written and verbal submissions. The dispute could not proceed to hearing earlier because the parties mainly the respondents were not ready to do so.

AWARD

3. The Minister for Labour referred this dispute to the court on 23rd May, 1986, in accordance with section 8 of the Trade Disputes Act together with the statutory certificate signed by himself and the Labour Commissioner.

The claimants told the court that, they took up the matter of recognition with the respondents but no settlement was reached. The claimants then on 15th June, 1985, reported a trade dispute to the Minister for Labour. The dispute having gone through the usual machinery, the Ministry's finding was that the claimants were entitled to recognition. It was recommended that the respondents should accord the claimants recognition.

This decision was turned down by the respondents and the matter is now before the court for consideration. The claimants summed up the respondents' stand on this matter as irregular, inconsistent with the provisions of the labour laws in the country as well as natural justice and human rights. They prayed the court to order the respondents to recognize the claimants.

The respondents prayed the court to reject the claimants' demand of recognition agreement as it is misconceived.

The court has come to the conclusion that the claimants' demand in this dispute must fail primarily because they have failed to satisfy this court that the respondents' unionizable employees, if any, are their members.

The claimants have also failed to prove that the respondents' employees apart from a couple of very junior employees are unionizable.

The court therefore rejects the claimants' demand for recognition by the respondents.

Dated the 22nd August, 1990.

GAZETTE NOTICE No. 3946

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE NO. 39 OF 1989

Parties:

Kenya Union of Domestic, Hotels, Educational Institutions, Hospitals and Allied Workers

and

Gertrudes Garden Children's Hospital

Issue in dispute:

Termination of Peter Gucho Ng'ang'a.

THE Kenya Union of Domestic, Hotels, Educational Institutions, Hospitals and Allied Workers shall hereinafter be referred to as the claimants and the Gertrudes Garden Children's Hospital shall hereinafter be referred to as the respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on 12th July, 1990, and relied on their written and verbal submissions. The dispute was mentioned previously on four occasions but the parties asked the court to stand over the dispute on each occasion.

AWARD

3. The notification of dispute form "A" dated 15th February 1989, duly signed by the parties was received by the court on 2nd January, 1989, together with the statutory certificates signed by the Minister for Labour and the Labour Commissioner.

Mr. Peter G. Ng'ang'a was employed by the respondents on 22nd August, 1957, as a cleaner. The grievant held that position until 31st January, 1986, when his services were terminated. At the time of the termination he had served the respondents for nearly 29 years and he was earning Sh. 922 p.m. plus free accommodation.

The circumstances leading to the grievant's termination are that sometime in September 1984, he developed arthritis in both hips. As a result he was offered free treatment at the respondents' hospital from September 1984 up to May 1985—a period of 9 months. However, it was realized from his medical report that he would never again be in a position to carry out his duties. Subsequently he was given three (3) months notice of termination effective from 1st November, 1985, and expiring on 31st January, 1986.

The claimants told the court that, they took up the matter with the respondents and no settlement was reached. The claimants then reported a trade dispute, and having gone through the usual machinery, the Ministry's finding was that the termination of grievant's services was justified as his illness was occasioned by a natural cause. It was recommended that the respondents were only supposed to pay Mr. Ng'ang'a his terminal dues plus extra medical expenses up to 31st January, 1986—the time he was still in their employment.

This recommendation was turned down by the claimants and the matter is now before the court for consideration.

The court finds that the respondents have been more than generous to the grievant who served them for nearly twenty-nine years as is obvious from the medical treatment they arranged for him due to a degenerative disease.

The court is surprised that the claimants are asking the court to award medical compensation in accordance with the Factories Act as recommended by the department concerned. For this sort of claim, the claimants have come to the wrong court. The industrial court has no such jurisdiction.

As far as the claim of wrongful termination is concerned the court is satisfied that the grievant has not suffered any wrongful termination. The grievant should collect his terminal dues as offered by the respondents if he has not already done so.

The court accepts the respondents' offer to pay the grievant an additional sum of Sh. 2,000 on an ex-gratia basis and the court awards that the respondents should pay this amount to the grievant in addition to his terminal dues.

Dated the 20th August, 1990.

GAZETTE NOTICE No. 3947

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE NO. 40 OF 1990

Parties:

Kenya Union of Commercial, Food and Allied Workers
and
Africa Tea Brokers Limited

Issue in dispute:

Dismissal of Jackson Gachoki.

THE Kenya Union of Commercial, Food and Allied Workers shall hereinafter be referred to as the claimants and the Africa Tea Brokers Limited shall hereinafter be referred to as the respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on 26th June, 1990, and relied on their written and verbal submissions.

AWARD

3. The notification of dispute form "A", undated, duly signed by the parties was received by the court on 8th March, 1990, together with the statutory certificates signed by the Minister for Labour and the Labour Commissioner.

Jackson Gachoki was employed by the respondents on 28th March, 1979, as a tea sampler. He was dismissed on 8th January, 1987, on the grounds that he was unfit for duty on 7th January as a result of excess of alcohol intake which rendered him in a confused state of mind.

The Ministry of Labour's findings and recommendations are as below:

"There was no evidence by the management to prove that Mr. Gachoki had been severely warned about the various misdeeds that were alleged. It was evident that both Mr. Gachoki and Mr. Ali (driver) exchanged some bitter words but the management accused Mr. Gachoki of having assaulted Mr. Ali. There was no medical proof that Mr. Ali was actually subjected to any bodily harm. It was not fair for the managing director to expect the supervisor to agree or not to agree with Mr. Gachoki's reinstatement while even the supervisor was not present at the time and place of the alleged assault but acted on hearsay.

"I, therefore, find Mr. Gachoki's dismissal rather severe and unjustified.

"The Ministry recommended that Mr. Gachoki's dismissal be converted into normal termination with all benefits thereof. He should be paid in addition four (4) months salary as compensation for the loss of the job he suffered."

The claimants stated that they were dissatisfied with the dismissal of the grievant and felt it was wrong and unjustified.

They requested the court to reinstate him back to his job. The claimants stressed that Mr. Gachoki be reinstated on the following grounds:

(a) That Mr. Gachoki had served the respondents for about eight (8) years.

- (b) That he reported on duty at 7.30 a.m. unlike a person who was drunk.
- (c) That his admission to have taken two beers the previous night shows his uprightness and truthfulness.
- (d) That the chief accountant spoke to the doctor in a language Mr. Gachoki did not understand and therefore it was suspicious.
- (e) That no test was carried out by the doctor.

The respondents rejected the Ministry's recommendations on the grounds that they were biased and unbalanced. They stated that they seem to have been based on the erroneous notion that the decision to dismiss the grievant was based on the supervisor's word which is not the case at all.

They requested the court to uphold the dismissal of the grievant because it was justified and reject the claimants' demands.

The respondents resisted the claimants' demand for reinstatement and/or compensation by pointing out the following:

- (a) That section 17(b) of the Employment Act and clause 10 of their CBA empowers employers to dismiss an employee on grounds of misconduct or intoxication.
- (b) That there was no dispute that Mr. Gachoki had taken some beers and that was confirmed by the doctor.
- (c) That they did not manipulate doctor's findings.

The court finds it proved that the grievant had consumed some beer—the claimants say that it was on the previous night. If he took beer on the previous night then he must have consumed much more than two (2) bottles of beer to wake up and report for duty in a confused state of mind.

The claimants have failed to persuade the court to reject the medical evidence confirming that Mr. Gachoki was not able to perform his duties on 7th January, 1987. On the other hand the respondents did not produce evidence of previous warnings nor did they produce any evidence to prove that he had actually assaulted the driver.

After careful consideration of all the submissions the court awards that the grievant's summary dismissal should be reduced to normal termination and he should be paid all his terminal benefits.

The court is not inclined to award his reinstatement or give him any compensation.

Dated the 21st August, 1990.

SAEED R. COCKAR,
Judge.

M. MUNYAO,
Member.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS TO THE KENYA GAZETTE

THE following notes are for the guidance of persons submitting "copy" for inclusion in the Kenya Gazette, Supplement, etc.:

- (1) The Kenya Gazette contains notices of a general nature which do not affect legislation. They are, therefore, submitted to the Government Printer directly.
- (2) Legislative Supplement contains Rules and Regulations which are issued by the central Government. Because of this they must be submitted to the Government Printer through the office of the Attorney-General.
- (3) Bill Supplement contains Bills which are for introduction in the National Assembly.
- (4) Act Supplement contains Acts passed by the National Assembly.

All "copy" submitted for publication should be prepared on one side of an A4 sheet no matter how small the notice or Act, each page being numbered, and should be typewritten with double spacing. Copy should be clear, legible and contain a minimum of alterations.

Particular attention should be paid to the following points:

- (i) Signature must be clarified by means of rubber-stamping or typing the name of the signer in capital letters.
- (ii) Dates must be correct and filled in where necessary.
- (iii) Care should be taken to ensure that all headings to notices and references to legislation are up to date and conform with the Revised Edition of the Laws of Kenya.

EXTRACT FROM THE CODE OF REGULATIONS, SECTION D—
*Kenya Gazette

"D 41. (1) Communications for the Kenya Gazette should reach the Government Printer not later than 9 a.m., on Friday of the week before publication is desired. The Government Printer will not publish communications received after that hour until the next subsequent issue of the Gazette.

(2) It will facilitate work at the Press if Permanent Secretaries will forward Gazette notices to the Government Printer when ready."

It is emphasized that these notes are for guidance only, but it is requested that persons submitting copy for publication first satisfy themselves that such copy is complete in every respect.
