THE INDUSTRIAL COURT
CAUSE NO. 58 OF 1986*Parties:*

Tailors and Textiles Workers' Union
and
Mount Kenya Textiles Limited

Issue in dispute:

Termination of services of Cyrus Macharia Mathenge.

THE Kenya Tailors and Textiles Workers' Union shall hereinafter be referred to as the claimants and Mount Kenya Textiles Limited shall hereinafter be referred to as the respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on 24th February, 1987. In addition to relying on their written and verbal submissions, the claimants called the grievant, Cyrus Mathenge, to give evidence while the respondents called David Muli as a witness.

AWARD

3. The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 21st November, 1986, duly signed by the parties, was received by the court on 3rd June, 1986, together with the statutory certificates signed by the Minister for Labour and the Labour Commissioner.

The grievant, Cyrus Macharia Mathenge, was employed by the respondents, on 15th April, 1982, as a driver, and his services were terminated on 8th February, 1983. It is alleged that on 24th December, 1982, Mr. Mathenge was suspected of having pocketed part of KSh. 300 which he was given to go and fill a car of a visiting auditor with fuel.

The claimants told the court that on 24th December, 1982, Mr. Mathenge reported off-shift duty at 7 a.m. Before he left for home, he was requested by one of the directors to take a car belonging to an auditor from Nairobi and fill it with petrol at Nanyuki town and was given KSh. 300. Mr. Mathenge complied with the instructions and brought back a receipt for the same amount. Mr. Mathenge then went to his house where he was collected by another driver at about 1 p.m., and taken to a hotel where he found the director and the auditor. The director asked to state where he had taken part of the money he was given for petrol.

The director called Mr. Mathenge a thief and thereafter the three went to the petrol station where Mr. Mathenge had filled the car. The attendant at the station confirmed that they put fuel worth KSh. 300 in the car and he issued a receipt for the same. Mr. Mathenge felt bitter about being called a thief and reported the matter to the police and he later filed a civil suit against the director. The claimants stated that Mr. Mathenge was terminated as a result of the civil suit. The claimants took up the matter with the respondents who flatly refused to meet them. The claimants' contention is that the respondents were wrong in involving themselves in a private case between Mr. Mathenge and the director as a person in his individual capacity.

Giving evidence in court, Mr. Mathenge stated that on the day in question, he was called by a Mr. Gajjar, who gave him KSh. 300 and asked him to take a visitor's car to the nearest petrol station and fill it with petrol. Mr. Mathenge took the car to B.P. Mount Kenya Service Station at Nanyuki and filled the car. He obtained a receipt for KSh. 300 which he took back to Mr. Gajjar and then he went away. Mr. Mathenge stated that at about 1 p.m. he was picked by another driver with a car and taken to Sportman's Arms Hotel where he found Mr. Gajjar and the owner of the car. Mr. Gajjar asked Mr. Mathenge where he had taken part of the money he received for petrol. Mr. Mathenge replied that he put petrol worth KSh. 300 into the car. At that time Mr. Gajjar called him a thief, repeatedly. They all went to the petrol station and enquired from the pump attendant who confirmed that they put petrol worth KSh. 300 into the car. Because of bitterness for being called a thief, Mr. Mathenge went and reported the matter to the police. Later Mr. Mathenge filed a civil case against Mr. Gajjar. On 8th February, 1983, Mr. Mathenge received a termination letter.

The respondents told the court that on 24th December, 1982, Mr. Mathenge was given KSh. 300 and an auditor's car to go and fill it with fuel. He returned the car with a receipt for KSh. 300 and gave the receipt to Mr. Gajjar. Mr. Mathenge then went home. The auditor later saw the receipt and said it was unbelievable that petrol worth KSh. 300 was put into his car. For that reason, he requested the driver concerned to be called to explain to him what actually happened, otherwise, he was not prepared to accept the bill of KSh. 300. Mr. Gajjar then sent another driver with a car to look for Mr. Mathenge. At about 1 p.m., the two drivers were at Sportman's Arms Hotel where Mr. Gajjar and the auditor had gone for lunch. The respondents stated that Mr. Gajjar, the auditor and another director moved to some distance from other people and Mr. Gajjar asked Mr. Mathenge what he did with the money as the auditor does not believe his car could take fuel worth KSh. 300. Mr. Mathenge told them that he had put petrol worth KSh. 300 as per the receipt that he gave them. The respondents stated that although the auditor was not satisfied with the explanation given by Mr. Mathenge, he agreed with a request by Mr. Chandrasekaran that the matter be left with the management to deal with through the personnel office. After this, Mr. Mathenge went to the police and falsely accused his boss of having called him a thief. The respondents stated that they received an enquiry from the police. The respondents wrote to Mr. Mathenge to explain his accusation in writing.

The respondents stated that Mr. Mathenge's false accusation against his boss, was deliberately meant to intimidate him as a manager and embarrass the management of the respondents as a whole. The respondents, therefore, concluded that Mr. Mathenge was untrustworthy, disrespectful and malicious to his employers and were left with no alternative but to terminate his services.

The respondents' witness, David Muli, stated that he was the pump attendant at B.P. Mount Kenya Service Station on 24th December, 1982. He confirmed that he wrote the receipt which was produced in court for KSh. 300. Mr. Muli could not remember whether it was he or the other attendant who put the petrol into the car, but he was sure he wrote the receipt.

In considering this dispute, the court notes that the respondents did not call the auditor, owner of the car as a witness. This would have helped the court to know roughly how much petrol the car could have taken and whether or not Mr. Mathenge acted honestly. From the evidence before it, the court finds that the respondents accepted the receipt for KSh. 300 which their witness wrote at the time the petrol was put into the car. Because of the foregoing, the court finds the case against Mr. Mathenge not proved. At the same time the court finds that the relationship between the respondents and Mr. Mathenge to have deteriorated to such an extent that it cannot be mended.

The court, therefore, awards that Mr. Mathenge's dismissal be reduced to normal termination and in addition to terminal benefits, he be paid two months' salary as compensation.

Given in Nairobi on the 18th March, 1987.

GAZETTE NOTICE NO. 1313

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE NO. 83 OF 1986

Parties:

Kenya Plantation and Agricultural Workers Union
and

Green Farms Limited

Issue in Dispute:

Termination of services of Mumtaz Ahmed.

THE Kenya Plantation and Agricultural Workers Union shall hereinafter be referred to as the claimants and Green Farms Ltd. shall hereinafter be referred to as the respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on 20th February, 1987, and relied on their written and verbal submissions. The claimants called Mumtaz Ahmed to give evidence.

AWARD

3. This dispute was referred to the court by the Minister for Labour under section 8 of the Trade Disputes Act, on 18th August, 1986, and was received by the court on 29th August, 1986, together with his certificate and that of the Labour Commissioner.

Mumtaz Ahmed was employed by the respondents on 11th October, 1982, as a farm manager. It is alleged that in March 1983, the respondents found Mr. Ahmed's work to be below their expectations and started looking for an assistant or alternative. The respondents allege that Mr. Ahmed absented himself from the farm every now and then. As a result of his absenteeism, they terminated his services on 30th August, 1983.

The claimants told the court that their member was a professional with a university degree in farming. The claimants stated that the grievant worked for the respondents for about a year without a warning until the middle of September 1983, when he fell sick. He was treated at Makindu Hospital and Kiambu District Hospital, for about a week. When he reported for duty on 22nd September, 1983, the assistant manager told him that he had instructions from the directors not to allow him in the farm as his services were terminated.

The claimants stated that on 24th October, 1983, the grievant received a registered letter dated 31st August, 1983, with a post-stamp showing it was posted on 18th October, 1983. This was the termination letter. The claimants stated that the respondents terminated Mr. Ahmed's services on grounds that his performance was poor and that he was running the farm at a loss. The claimants accused the respondents of having mistreated Mr. Ahmed.

Giving evidence Mr. Ahmed told the court that he managed a vegetable farm at Makindu for the respondents. He stated that the farm was profitable. He produced production records and claimed that the respondents collected vegetables worth over KSh. 35,000 which they sold in Nairobi. Mr. Ahmed told the court that on 31st August, 1983, he held a meeting with the directors who told him that they had decided to close the farm as it was not profitable. After that he fell sick and did not go back to work until 22nd September, 1983, when his assistant told him that he was not allowed in.

Mr. Ahmed demanded commission from the sales of vegetables which were sold by the directors after collecting them from his farm. He told the court that in accordance with his letter of appointment he was entitled to 10 per cent of the proceeds from the vegetables by way of his commission.

The respondents told the court that when Mr. Ahmed started work at their farm at Makindu, it rained quite heavily and most of the farm was under water and nothing was grown. In February/March 1983, Mr. Ahmed started work on the farm. The directors paid regular visits to the farm and pointed out their requirements but Mr. Ahmed gave excuses as to why the work could not take off. They accused Mr. Ahmed of wasting his time driving the tractor all the time himself. At that stage the respondents started looking for an assistant manager. At the same time, the respondents discovered that Mr. Ahmed was looking for a piece of land to lease in his own name for the same kind of farming and he had also applied for a loan for development. The respondents told the court that at the meeting of 31st August, 1983, with Mr. Ahmed, they had told him about his termination.

The respondents disagreed with the grievant that they failed to give him his commission. The respondents referred the court to the letter of appointment which states that commission was payable at 10 per cent of profit made. The respondents stated that Mr. Ahmed's production netted KSh. 34,000 only which was not even enough for Mr. Ahmed's salary. The farm had run at a loss.

The court has carefully considered the parties' submissions and the evidence given by the grievant and the court finds that given the circumstances of this dispute and the unprofitable nature of the farm in question the respondents were justified in terminating the grievant's services. The meeting between the respondents' director and the grievant on 30th August, 1983, was crucial where it is alleged that the respondents told him that his services would be terminated the next day. The court believes the grievant when he says that the reason given to him for his termination was the respondents' intention to close down the farm. The fact, however, remains that his services were to be terminated. It is unfortunate for the respondents that although the letter of termination is dated 31st August, 1983, they did not take appropriate steps to have it served on him on the same day. Instead the letter was misdirected and eventually posted on 18th October, 1983, which the grievant received on 24th October. Under these circumstances the court finds that the respondents should pay the grievant full salary up to 24th October, 1983, and for twenty (20) days' leave which was due to him. He is also entitled to one month's salary in lieu of notice which the respondents have in any case offered to pay him. The court notes that his salary per month was KSh. 3,500.

The court finds no merit in the grievant's claim for payment of commission to him and his claims in that respect are rejected.

Given at Nairobi on the 16th March 1987.

GAZETTE NOTICE NO. 1314

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT CAUSE NO 87 OF 1986

Parties:
Kenya Timber and Furniture Workers' Union
and
Kirinyaga Timber Co-operative Society Limited

Issues in dispute:
Wages and wage increase; hours of work; leave travelling allowance; protective clothing; safari allowance; acting allowance; additional category of cashier and effective date and duration.

THE Kenya Timber and Furniture Workers' Union shall hereinafter be referred to as the claimants and Kirinyaga Timber Co-operative Society Limited shall hereinafter be referred to as the respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on 25th February, 1987, and relied on their written and verbal submissions.

AWARD

3. The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 20th March, 1986, was received by the court on 10th September, 1986, together with the statutory certificate signed by the Labour Commissioner.

The background of this dispute is that the claimants have recognition and collective agreements with the respondents and the last collective agreement expired on 30th September, 1984. The parties were due to renew it and during negotiations, the parties could not reach to an agreement on eleven items. The Ministry of Labour appointed a conciliator and during conciliation, the parties reached an agreement, on three more items and recorded a deadlock on eight issues which are now before the court.

This dispute involves 27 unionizable employees. The claimants are seeking wage increases and other benefits as per the current wages guidelines to compensate the workers for the increase in the cost of living for the period under review. The claimants told the court that during negotiations, the respondents made a nil offer on all the items and wanted the previous agreement to continue for another three (3) years uninterrupted.

The respondents on the other hand submitted that they were unable to reach any agreement due to the fact that the claimants demands were excessive considering the poor financial status of the respondents. The respondents told the court that during the period under review, they, the respondents, had an accumulated loss of over one million shillings and that the claimants' demands had a direct bearing on their financial status. They pleaded that their business had been affected by government's ban on felling of trees.

Wages and wage increase:

Under this item, the claimants are demanding a wage increase of 30 per cent and 20 per cent for the first and second years, respectively, stating that their members have been underpaid for the period under review.

The respondents who gave a nil offer during negotiations and conciliation told the court that at present their financial status was showing some improvement and offered a 3 per cent to 5 per cent wage increase to their employees but requested the court not to back date the award as that would cripple the business.

In consideration of this item, the court notes that there was no underpayment by the respondents for the period under review. Due to financial problems experienced by the respondents, the court awards a 5 per cent increase only to the respondents' workers. The increase will be with effect from 1st March, 1987.

All the other items in dispute will remain at the present level except that a new post of cashier should be included in the job categories but at the current salary and that the effective date and duration should be from 1st March, 1987, for a period of one year only.

The court directs the parties to renew negotiations after one year from the effective date when, hopefully, the financial capability of the respondents will have improved somewhat.

Given in Nairobi on the 19th March, 1987.

GAZETTE NOTICE No. 1317

THE TRADE MARKS ACT

(Cap. 506)

NOTICE is given that any person who has grounds of opposition to the registration of any of the trade marks advertised herein according to the classes may, within sixty (60) days from the date of this Gazette, lodge notice of opposition on form TM. No. 6 (in duplicate) together with a fee of KSh. 50.

Notice is also given that official objection will be taken under rule 21 (3) to all applications in which the specification claims all the goods included in any class unless the registrar is satisfied that the claim is justified by the use of the mark which the applicant has made, or intends to make if and when it is registered. Where an applicant considers that a claim in respect of all the goods included in a class can be justified it will save unnecessary delay in examining applications if a claim is filed simultaneously with the application, accompanied in appropriate cases by supporting documents.

The period for lodging notice of opposition may be extended by the registrar as he thinks fit and upon such terms as he may direct. Any request for such extension should be made to the registrar so as to reach him before the expiry of the period allowed.

Formal opposition should not be lodged until after reasonable notice has been given by letter to the applicant for registration so as to afford him any opportunity of withdrawing his application before the expense of preparing the notice of opposition is incurred. Failure to give such notice will be taken into account in considering any application by an opponent for an order for costs if the opposition is uncontested by the applicant.

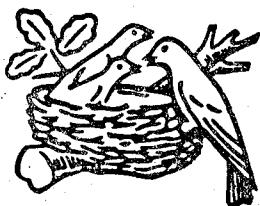

Where it is stated in the advertisement of the applicant that the mark, upon its registration is to be limited to certain colours, the colours are, as far as possible, indicated in the accompanying representation of the mark in the usual heraldic manner.

Representations of the marks advertised herein can be seen at the Trade Marks Registry, State Law Office, Nairobi.
