THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE NO 13 OF 1974

Parties

Kenya Management Staff Association

and

The Old East African Trading Co. Limited

Issue in dispute

Wrongful dismissal and underpayment of Mr. Said Mwinyi.

1. The Kenya Management Staff Association shall hereinafter be referred to as the Claimants and the Old East African Trading Co. Ltd. shall hereinafter be referred to as Respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on 30th April, 3rd June and 5th June, 1974, and relied on their written and verbal submissions. The following witnesses were called by the parties to give evidence in Court:—

Claimants—Mr. Said A. Mwinyi.

Respondents—Mr. Henry Ndungu.

AWARD

3. The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 7th February, 1974, was received by the Court on 19th February along with the statutory certificates signed by the Minister for Labour and the Labour Commissioner in accordance with sections 9 (9) (e) and (f) of the Trade Disputes Act.

Mr. Mwinyi who is an undergraduate electrical engineer from Budapest, Hungary, joined the Respondents' firm on 18th May, 1971 as an Installation and Maintenance Engineer Trainee in their Telecommunications Department. He got this appointment through the Kenyanization of Personnel Bureau which department continued to take an active interest in his employment as will become evident hereinafter in the award.

His services were terminated on 20th July, 1973 and the letter of termination stated that since he had accepted a transfer to the sales section on 23rd May, 1973 and on 9th June, 1973 he had informed the Respondents that he would not accept the said transfer his services were terminated with effect from the date of the letter. He was told he would be paid his salary up to 20th July, 1973 plus one month's pay in lieu of notice and pay against any leave not yet taken.

On 6th August, 1973, Mr. Mwinyi signed a receipt for a sum of Sh. 2,177/50. The said receipt also had the following words typed just above Mr. Mwinyi's signature—

"The above amount is in full and final settlement from the Old East African Trading Co. Ltd., Nairobi and I have no further claims to the company."

In between his appointment and subsequent termination, certain incidents took place which are relevant and have a bearing on this dispute. On 31st October, 1972 he was served with a letter of termination of employment in which certain allegations were made against him regarding great lack of responsibility and also that he had damaged the pendulum of a master clock at Kenya Science Teachers' College during installation and that he had put the damaged part back into the clock without informing his superior officer. There was also an allegation that he claimed an excess overtime.

Mr. Mwinyi reported this termination to the Kenyanization of Personnel Bureau and as a result an agreement was reached under which he was taken back in employment. The letter which Mr. Mwinyi received as a result of this agreement reads as follows—

"Reference is made to our meeting this morning with the Kenyanization Bureau in connection with us terminating your services with this company.

In agreement with the Kenyanization Bureau, we agreed to cancel our letter terminating your services and take you back in our employ on three months probation after which your future position in the company will be reviewed."

On 21st February, 1973, Mr. Mwinyi was confirmed in his employment and prior to that on 30th January, 1973 he was thanked in writing for his efforts during the past year and a hope was expressed that he would continue to work hard and make himself more familiar with the equipment that would be installed and maintained by the Respondents. He was also given an increment.

The Court accepts the Respondents' statement that he was given increment because of a negotiated collective agreement between them and the Kenya Union of Commercial Food and Allied Workers of which union Mr. Mwinyi at that time was a member. On 18th May, 1973, as a result of discussions between Messrs. K. Anderson, O. S. Olsen and B. Skjolaas, Mr. Mwinyi was transferred from that date from the installation section to the sales section in the Respondents' Telecommunications Department and his salary was increased from Sh. 1,100 p.m. to Sh. 1,500 p.m. In between 18th May and 23rd May, Mr. Mwinyi asked the Respondents to confirm in writing the following arrangements—

1. Three months probation and thereafter suitable means of transport to be provided.
2. An acceptable basic salary after three months.
3. A training programme for the same period.
4. Acceptable terms and conditions of service, commission in line with my counterparts".

The Respondents in reply to Mr. Mwinyi's above letter assured that provided he fulfilled the Respondents' expectations and showed good results he would be rewarded accordingly. On 9th June, 1973, Mr. Mwinyi wrote the following letter to the Respondents' Managing Director and his letter resulted in his termination—

"I wish to inform you that I am not accepting the so called challenging Salesman job, under the following—

- (a) I am not a Salesman;
- (b) I have been understudying Mr. T. Aberlsson's job, which was Installation and Maintenance and not Salesmanship for two years.

I feel I have been ill-treated in all aspects, and have been used as a stepping stone for the favoured ones to get work permits. If you sincerely want to promote me you can do so without changing my line of work, and employing another Salesman.

Taking under consideration that I have been under probation twice three months each time. This period I believe is long enough to have made up your mind about me, and not another three months probation period in a different line.

Could you kindly inform me whether I am a replacement of Mr. Abelsson or am I filling a new post or what am I?"

The matter was reported as a dispute to the Ministry of Labour after it had been raised with the Kenyanization of Personnel Bureau and after they had made unsuccessful efforts to resolve it. An investigator was appointed and as a result the Permanent Secretary forwarded his findings to the parties and strongly recommended Mr. Mwinyi's reinstatement without loss of any privileges. The Respondents rejected the finding and recommendations and the matter is now before the Court.

The Claimants have rested their case on the submission that Mr. Mwinyi had lost his services because the Respondents found in him a threat to the continued employment of an expatriate in respect of whom they had secured a work permit. The Claimants stated that Mr. Mwinyi right from the very beginning had been told that he was to understudy and take over from a certain expatriate and as time passed and Mr. Mwinyi's capability as a technician was proved and established the Respondents started finding various excuses in order to get rid of him. This resulted in the Respondents serving three letters of warning to Mr. Mwinyi in one day on 31st October, 1972.

The Claimants alleged that after Mr. Mwinyi was reinstated through the intervention of the Kenyanization of Personnel Bureau the Respondents offered him an increased salary and the necessary training and transferred him to the sales section. Mr. Mwinyi, however, on finding that there were no training facilities made available to him and also realizing that he was being used as a stepping stone in order to get work permits for expatriates decided to reject the transfer and asked to be retransferred to the Telecommunications Department.

The Claimants very strongly submitted that there were absolutely no reasons why Mr. Mwinyi should have been found to have failed as a technician. They also challenged his transfer to sales section when the intention all along had been that he should undergo an expatriate and take over from him in due course.

The Claimants asked the Court to find that the receipt which Mr. Mwinyi had signed and in which it is stated that he had no further claims against the Respondents was in respect of his monetary dues only and that he had at no time surrendered his other rights against them like suing them for wrongful termination and asking for his reinstatement.

The Respondents stressed that Mr. Mwinyi was at no time either in writing or verbally given to understand that he was to undergo an expatriate and that in due course he would take over from him. In any case they pointed out that it would take a person like Mr. Mwinyi many years before he could qualify to take over from the expatriate in question who was a qualified engineer. The Respondents stated that the only reason that had prompted them to terminate the services of Mr. Mwinyi was on his work performance which they found to be most unsatisfactory particularly when he was in the Telecommunications Department.

The Respondents emphasized that Mr. Mwinyi had accepted the transfer to the sales section and then subsequently after a very short time had written an extremely provocative letter to the Managing Director which had resulted in the Respondents having no option but to terminate his services. Mr. Mwinyi had not given them any time to arrange for his training as a sales officer although they had arranged for him to accompany a senior salesman on his rounds which they emphasized was a very important part of the training.

Finally the Respondents stated that Mr. Mwinyi having signed a receipt of having received a sum of Sh. 2,177/50 in full and final settlement from the Respondents and by stating that he had no further claims to the company had no basis to come and ask for any remedy in the Industrial Court.

The Court arranged for the relevant files of the Kenyanization of Personnel Bureau to be made available to it. This was done with the full agreement and consent of the parties the reason being the Claimants' very serious allegations against the Respondents that in this particular case an employer was deliberately trying to flout the Kenyanization policies of the Kenya Government. Accordingly the Court has gone through the relevant files but since the contents of these files are confidential the Court does not intend to divulge the nature of the information which it got from these files.

The Court would like to clarify its position in respect of complaints against employers who are alleged to flout the Kenyanization policies of the Kenya Government by stating that the Court is not as such a supervisory body over the two departments as far as the issue of work permits is concerned. It is entirely up to these two departments to either grant or renew work permits and the Court has no doubt that these two departments are capable of functioning efficiently without any assistance from the Court. If, however, any of these departments find that there are cases where they feel that an employer is trying to use devious means to delay the Kenyanization of a certain post and the department is fully satisfied that there is a person capable of taking over from the expatriate then necessary approaches should be made to the National Assembly to equip the said departments with necessary legislative powers in order to ensure that the Government's policies are not thwarted.

In the instant case the Court finds that probably one of these two departments found itself in an embarrassing position where it could not force an employer to follow its directive but the fact remains that a work permit has been issued in respect of an expatriate whose post Mr. Mwinyi is alleged to have been undergoing, as follows—

- (a) The first permit was issued on 8th July 1971 (8.7.71-8.7.73) valid for two years.
- (b) Extended for another two years and now expires on 8th July, 1975.

The dispute before the Court is to determine whether or not Mr. Mwinyi has suffered a wrongful dismissal, as the Claimants during the hearing dropped the claim of underpayment in respect of him. The Court has carefully considered all the submissions made by the parties and the evidence given by two witnesses on oath before coming to its conclusions.

The Court finds that although it has reservations on the allegations which were levelled against Mr. Mwinyi by the Respondents prior to 31st October, 1972, the fact that they took him back in employment even though on three months' probation absolves him up to that date. It should be noted that his re-employment was brought about through the intervention of the Kenyanization of Personnel Bureau. After that date there seems to be no evidence at all, certainly not from the available evidence, to show that there was any reason or justification for Mr. Mwinyi to be transferred to the sales section. The Court finds that Mr. Mwinyi's request for a training programme to equip him properly in the sales field plus other points put forward by him were reasonable and in any case they were not denied by the Respondents' Managing Director.

In the circumstances and in the light of the background to this whole dispute Mr. Mwinyi's letter of 9th June, 1973 which resulted in his services being terminated was not all that serious. The Court finds that at the most what this letter warranted was a serious warning to Mr. Mwinyi but it certainly is not a justifiable reason to terminate his services. After careful consideration of all the submissions the Court has come to the conclusion that Mr. Mwinyi has suffered a wrongful dismissal.

The Court believes Mr. Mwinyi's evidence when he says that he was offered three months' pay if he would tender his resignation. The Respondents must have felt that he was getting a bit troublesome for them hence the offer. In this situation it would indeed be incredible that a person like Mr. Mwinyi would sign a "full and final" settlement unless of course it was for the reason as stated by him.

The Court normally hesitates to go behind such a document but when it is satisfied that either the person signing it did not understand the contents or thought it to mean differently when he signed it, then the evidence and circumstances permitting, the Court is bound in the interest of justice and fair play to disregard it.

The Court finds, on the balance of probabilities, Mr. Mwinyi's explanation of why he had signed the aforesaid receipt as worded, to be acceptable under the circumstances. The Court has also been influenced in coming to this conclusion by the conduct of Mr. Mwinyi at the time in that he had already referred the matter of his termination to the Kenyanization of Personnel Bureau or the Ministry of Labour in regard to his wrongful termination. In these circumstances the Court is of the view that when he signed that he had no further claims to the company he was in fact referring to his dues in respect of pay and money in lieu of leave without prejudice to his other rights like reinstatement and/or compensation.

The Court has before it a very strong prayer to order Mr. Mwinyi's reinstatement but having considered the whole matter and having drawn the attention of the authorities to look into any weaknesses due to lack of appropriate powers being vested in the Kenyanization of Personnel Bureau and the Immigration Department whereby they find that they lack administrative powers in certain respects in enforcing their decisions the Court is of the view, after taking all the submissions into consideration, that reinstatement in this case would not be proper. The Court, however, feels that since Mr. Mwinyi's services have been terminated without any lawful reason and because he has in terms of industrial relations suffered wrongful dismissal he should be awarded compensation and the Court awards that he be paid six months' salary by way of compensation for his wrongful dismissal. The other aspects of this dispute will no doubt be looked into by the Kenyanization of Personnel Bureau and the Immigration Department.

GAZETTE NOTICE No. 2347

THE TRADE MARKS ACT

(Cap. 506)

NOTICE is hereby given that any person who has grounds of opposition to the registration of any of the trade marks advertised herein according to the classes may, within 60 days from the date of this Gazette, lodge notice of opposition on Form T.M. No. 6 (in duplicate) together with a fee of Sh. 50.

Notice is also hereby given that official objection will be taken under rule 21 (3) to all applications in which the specification claims all the goods included in any class unless the Registrar is satisfied that the claim is justified by the use of the mark which the applicant has made, or intends to make if and when it is registered. Where an applicant considers that a claim in respect of all the goods included in a class can be justified it will save unnecessary delay in examining applications if a claim is filed simultaneously with the application, accompanied in appropriate cases by supporting documents.

The period for lodging notice of opposition may be extended by the Registrar as he thinks fit and upon such terms as he may direct. Any request for such extension should be made to the Registrar so as to reach him before the expiry of the period allowed.

Formal opposition should not be lodged until after reasonable notice has been given by letter to the applicant for registration so as to afford him any opportunity of withdrawing his application before the expense of preparing the notice of opposition is incurred. Failure to give such notice will be taken into account in considering any application by an opponent for an order for costs if the opposition is uncontested by the applicant.

Where it is stated in the advertisement of the applicant that the mark, upon its registration, is to be limited to certain colours, the colours are, as far as possible, indicated in the accompanying representations of the mark in the usual heraldic manner.

Representations of the marks advertised herein can be seen at the Trade Marks Registry, State Law Office, Nairobi.

Applications for registration in Part A of the Register are shown with the official number unaccompanied by any letter. Applications for Part B are distinguished by the letter B pre-fixed to the official number.
