GAZETTE NOTICE No. 3225*THE INDUSTRIAL COURT*CAUSE No. 36 OF 1966*Parties:—

Kenya Local Government Workers' Union and Kisumu County Council

Issue in dispute:—

Reinstatement of four District Revenue Officers.

1. The Kenya Local Government Workers' Union shall hereinafter be referred to as the Claimants and Kisumu County Council shall hereinafter be referred to as the Respondents.

2. The Parties were heard in Nairobi on the 25th day of July 1966, and relied on their written and verbal submissions. The Claimants called one witness in support of their case.

GENERAL BACKGROUND

3. The four District Revenue Officers who are the subject matter of this dispute had been in the service of the Respondents until 31st December 1965. Identical notices of termination of service addressed to these four employees were issued on 8th November 1965, by the Respondents' Clerk. These notices stated as below:—

"I regret to inform you that the Kisumu County Council decided to terminate your service as a Divisional Revenue Officer, with effect from 31st December 1965. The reason for termination of your service is that the Council wants to reorganize new system for collection of revenue and it was decided that your post as Divisional Revenue Officer would not be necessary after 31st December 1965."

Arrangement will be made to pay you cash in lieu of leave earned by you and also necessary service benefits which may have accrued to you after 31st December 1965."

These notices of termination were preceded by:—

(a) A meeting of the Respondents' Establishment and Terms of Service Committee on 1st September 1965, at which nine members were present and only one was absent, where it was unanimously agreed that these four officers be dismissed.

(b) A meeting of the Respondents' Finance Committee held on 14th and 15th September 1965, when it was agreed to recommend to a full Council meeting the implementation and recommendation of the Establishment Committee that four Divisional Revenue Officers be dismissed and that they be given three months' notice.

(c) A full meeting of the Respondents held on 26th, 27th and 28th October 1965, when after a lengthy discussion it was resolved by 13 votes to 8 that the four Divisional Revenue Officers be dismissed with effect from 31st December 1965.

(d) A special meeting of the Respondents convened at the request of a number of Councillors held on 29th November 1965, when this matter was once again discussed, and after full debate it was resolved by 16 votes to 14 that, the decision of the Council meeting of October should stand.

At one stage during the above proceedings, the Clerk of the Respondents was not satisfied with the decision and thought it wise to get an expert who could look into the whole question of revenue collection in relation to what the collection cost the Respondents. In this connexion he requested the Ministry of Local Government to send an expert to Kisumu. The Ministry sent G. H. J. Aston who made a thorough investigation and made certain recommendations which were forwarded to the Respondents for consideration. Mr. Aston submitted, at one place, in his recommendations:—

"That the Council is receiving good value from the services of the D.R.O.s. Their services could not be dispensed with without a drastic reorganization of the revenue collection system; and it is doubtful whether any alternative system would serve the Council either more cheaply or more efficiently."

This was followed by Mr. Aston's suggestions which he considered would increase the efficiency and reduce the expenses and he concluded his report by the following paragraph:—

"If this memorandum appears to defend the D.R.O.s, it should be made clear that, on the evidence available, I am defending the system—not the persons holding the posts. It may well be—that I have no evidence on this point—that some of the D.R.O.s are not performing their duties efficiently; but this would be no condemnation of the system, simply of the individual. If there are any cases of gross inefficiency or neglect of duty, then the officer should be subject to normal disciplinary action."

The Respondents, however, rejected Mr. Aston's findings and recommendations. On the other hand, the Claimants had intervened in the matter because they were not satisfied at the way the reorganization was carried out. A Joint Staff Committee meeting was convened on 18th November 1965, and after a long discussion the Parties reached a deadlock and the Claimants declared a dispute with the Respondents. The relevant Minute No. 15/65 of the Joint Staff Committee meeting is reproduced hereinbelow:—

"Min. 15/65—Dismissal of Four Divisional Revenue Officers by the Council"

The Union wanted to know the reasons why the Council had decided to dismiss the four Divisional Revenue Officers and asked the Council representatives to give the reasons for the dismissal of these officers.

The Union further demanded the reports, if any, which may have been submitted to the Council on the work of the Divisional Revenue Officers and whether the Council considered the reports before taking action on the matter.

The Chairman of the Union asked whether the Council had considered the report of G. W. J. Aston on Council's finances as regards the work of the Divisional Revenue Officers and whether the Council considered the advice of the Council officers before taking action on the matter.

The Council side said that the Council decided to dismiss the Divisional Revenue Officers because it was considered that the officers were expensive for the Council compared with the revenue that they were collecting for the Council and that the Council would reorganize the posts and replace the officers with Revenue Collectors with low salary.

The Union said they did not understand the reorganization which the Council aimed at by discharging senior and experienced staff and again replacing them with collectors.

The Union further said the Council did not investigate the matter fully and did not find out whether or not the employment of Divisional Revenue Officers was for the benefit of the Council. They said the Council did not consider all the relevant facts before taking action on the matter as the Council did not consider a report from either Treasurer or Clerk to the Council and also refused to consider report from G. W. J. Aston.

The Union side declared that a dispute exists between the Council and the Union on the dismissal of four Divisional Revenue Officers and had asked the Council to withdraw the notices and reinstate the Divisional Revenue Officers."

The Claimants notified the Ministry of Labour on 30th November 1965, of the existence of this dispute under the Trade Disputes Act 1965. This dispute was accepted and processed by the Ministry under section 7 of the Trade Disputes Act. Ruben Wanjofu, the Industrial Relations Assistant, was appointed an Investigator and he carried out detailed investigation and made his report to the Permanent Secretary, Ministry of Labour. The Permanent Secretary stated in a letter to the Parties that, the four persons concerned should be reinstated either as Divisional Revenue Officers or as Divisional Revenue Collectors, but without loss of previous service with the Respondents nor cut in pay. He further recommended that these employees be paid half of their basic salary from the time they were dismissed to date. These recommendations were made on the following grounds:—

"(a) The Council could administratively control excessive mileage claims by the officers; indeed it is understood the Council had already proposed to do so with collectors whom they intended to employ in replacement of the above people.

(b) The complaint by the Council that some plot rents were not being collected by the officers appears invalid as it is within the Council's powers to take corrective measures. And the same would apply to the collection and or misappropriation of fees.

(c) There is little saving between the scales Sh. 638 to Sh. 900 p.m. for collectors and Sh. 818 to Sh. 960 p.m. for Revenue Officers."

These recommendations were discussed at a meeting of the Establishment and Terms of Service Committee held on 23rd February 1966, and were rejected. This was followed by a meeting between the Parties under the Chairmanship of Chief Industrial Relations Officer, Ministry of Labour, which ended in disagreement and the Parties agreed to refer the matter to the Industrial Court.

MAIN SUBMISSIONS ON BEHALF OF THE CLAIMANTS

4. The Claimants submitted that, the only reason that had been given to them by the Respondents for the dismissal of these four employees was that, the officers were expensive compared with the revenue they were collecting. The Claimants drew the Court's attention to Mr. Aston's report which stated "the Revenue Officers cost the Council under 1.7 per cent of the revenue they bring in, and the services of the four Divisional Revenue Officers could not be dispensed with without drastic reorganization of the revenue collection system". The Claimants were, therefore, convinced that the dismissal of the four Divisional Revenue Officers was motivated by reasons other than that they were expensive. The Claimants stated that the Respondents had ignored the advice of their Clerk which, if accepted, would not have resulted in the dismissal of these officers.

The Claimants argued that the dismissal of the four Divisional Revenue Officers was not in the interest of the Respondents and that they had produced no reasons justifying their statement that these officers were expensive for the amount of work they did. The Claimants further drew the Court's attention to the fact that, one of the dismissed Divisional Revenue Officers had been re-employed by the Respondents, which they would not have done if there had been any reason based on inefficiency against any of these officers. The Claimants called Mr. Okalo, one of the dismissed Divisional Revenue Officers to substantiate their allegation that Councillor B. Ochuodho who had been sued by Mr. Okalo on behalf of the Respondents for arrears of rent, was responsible for causing these dismissals as he had been very annoyed with the action that Mr. Okalo had taken against him.

The Claimants gave details to the Court showing how the finances of the Respondents had fallen after the dismissal of these four Divisional Revenue Officers and stated that the Treasurer's calculation of the costs on collections were as follows:—

January to March 1965—1.3 per cent.

January to March 1966—3 per cent.

The Claimants also submitted that, the mileage claims had also gone up considerably since the dismissal of the four Divisional Revenue Officers and stated that, if this was allowed to continue, the Respondents' finances would collapse.

The Claimants further submitted that this dispute had been processed in a most satisfactory way and that the Investigator appointed under section 7 of the Trade Disputes Act, after making a thorough investigation, had found that, the four Divisional Revenue Officers were wrongly dismissed. Following the Investigator's report, the Ministry of Labour through the Permanent Secretary, had made recommendations to the effect that, the four Divisional Revenue Officers should be reinstated, but this had been rejected by the Respondents. The Claimants argued that this dispute had had two independent Investigators (Mr. Aston) from the Ministry of Local Government and (Mr. Wanjofu) from the Ministry of Labour. Both these Investigators had made identical recommendations that these four Divisional Revenue Officers should be reinstated.

The Claimants finally argued that, it was their primary function to protect the interests of their members and when they considered that some of their members had been dismissed without justification, they had no other alternative, but to step in. The main reason given for the dismissal of the four officers had proved to be completely fallacious as instead of effecting a saving the Respondents were, in fact, losing heavily. The Claimants further contended that no disciplinary action had been taken against any of these four officers. In view of these arguments the Claimants requested the Court to order their reinstatement. The Claimants supported their submissions by extensive quotations from the relevant minutes of the various Committee and Council meetings.

MAIN SUBMISSIONS ON BEHALF OF THE RESPONDENTS

5. The Respondents submitted that, the dismissal of these four officers had been carried out in accordance with the African District Council's (Staff) Rules laid down by the Ministry of Local Government. Moreover, the Claimants had been fully consulted and placed in the picture before the dismissals were approved by a resolution in the Council.

The Respondents stated that, the Investigator appointed by the Ministry of Labour had ignored their rights to either employ or dismiss employees and had only referred to certain malpractices carried out by the Divisional Revenue Officers in spite of the fact that these malpractices were not the only reason for their dismissal. The Respondents had, therefore, rejected the Investigator's recommendations on the grounds that the matter of the dismissals had been fully considered by the two of the Council's Committees and, thereafter, by a full meeting of the Council which had passed a resolution to dismiss the four men. In addition, a special meeting of the Respondents called for this specific purpose, had confirmed the dismissals. The Respondents stated that, the only matter before the Court was "were the Respondents acting properly in dismissing the four men and was the procedure carried out in accordance with the standing orders?" The Respondents argued that, if this was established there could be no question of awarding reinstatement as re-employment of the officers concerned must be entirely at the Respondents' discretion and one of the men concerned had been engaged on this basis. The Respondents maintained that if these officers had been dealt with unjustly, they had a remedy in the Civil Court.

The Respondents directed the Court's attention to rule 12 (i) of the Staff Rules, the appropriate extract from which states:—

"The Council may at any time, by resolution, terminate the appointment of an officer serving on the Senior Salary Scales of the Council by giving three months' notice in writing."

The Respondents stated that, in accordance with this rule issued by the Government, they had in their full Council meeting by resolution on 26th/28th October terminated the appointment of these four Divisional Revenue Officers and this was conveyed to them in writing by letter on 8th November 1965. Following the convening of the said special meeting the period of notice was extended and when their dismissals were confirmed, these officers were dismissed and were thereafter paid cash in lieu of leave and received their full entitlement under the Provident Fund. In these circumstances the Respondents submitted that, any re-engagement of the officers concerned was entirely at their discretion. The Respondents also supported their case with relevant minutes of the various Committee and Council meetings.

AWARD

6. The Court has very carefully considered the submissions made by both Parties and the evidence tendered in support of their arguments.

The word "dismissal" was constantly used during the proceedings, but the Court finds that the choice of this word was unfortunate as the facts prove that these employees were not dismissed, but lost their jobs due to reorganization.

The Court finds that the termination of the services of these four employees was not wrongful as the Respondents had complied strictly with the necessary procedure prescribed under the appropriate Rules laid down by the Minister for Local Government. The question of termination of these officers' services went through the following stages:—

- (a) Establishment and Terms of Service Committee meeting on 1st September 1965.
- (b) Finance Committee meeting on 14th and 15th September 1965.
- (c) Full Council meeting on 26th, 27th and 28th October 1965.
- (d) Special meeting of the Council on 29th November 1965.

In addition to this, the matter was discussed at the Joint Staff Committee on 18th November 1965. In view of the fact that this matter was discussed repeatedly at great length, the Court sees no reason to vary the Respondents' decision. The services of these employees were terminated through a process of reorganization and it is immaterial if this results in a complete breakdown of the Respondents' Finance Department. This is entirely the Councillors' responsibility and the Court can only infer that they fully considered the implications and consequences of their decision, although this decision was taken against the advice of Mr. Aston and the Respondents' Clerk.

The Court accepts that the Claimants have a right to question the dismissal of any of their members, but cannot grant the Claimants' plea in this case for the reinstatement of these employees. This is a matter which is now at the discretion of the Respondents and, if at any future time there are vacancies for Divisional Revenue Officers, then there is no reason why these officers should not apply, if they are still unemployed.

Given in Nairobi this 18th day of August 1966.

President.
