GAZETTE NOTICE NO 952

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE NO 41 OF 1982

Parties

Kenya Management Staff Association

and

Kenya National Chamber of Commerce & Industry

Issue in dispute

Dismissal of J K Kirika

THE Kenya Management Staff Association shall hereinafter be referred to as the Claimants and the Kenya National Chamber of Commerce & Industry shall hereinafter be referred to as the Respondents

2 The parties were heard in Nairobi on 25th November, 1982, and 27th and 28th January, 1983, and in addition to relying on their written and verbal submissions called the following witnesses

Claimants —J K Kirika

Respondents —F N Macharia

AWARD

3 The Minister for Labour signed the reference of this dispute to the Industrial Court on 20th May, 1982, in accordance with section 8 of the Trade Disputes Act which reference was received by the court on 24th May together with the relevant statutory certificates

Mr Kirika had worked for the Respondents from June, 1971 until 3rd April, 1978, when his services were terminated with effect from 4th April, 1978, and he was paid a sum of K Sh 19,889 25 being full salary for the months of January, February and March, 1978, and one month's salary in lieu of notice along with the salary for the month of April i.e from 1st to 3rd inclusive less lawful deductions His salary at the time was K Sh 4,324 60

The Claimants took up the matter on his behalf and reported a trade dispute to the Minister for Labour and the ministry's finding was that the benefit of doubt must be given to Mr Kirika and it found that the termination was wrongful and recommended that he be paid ten months' salary in compensation in addition to all his other entitlements The Claimants accordingly demanded a sum of K Sh 45,246 from the Respondents being ten months' salary and K Sh 2,000 "imprest to be accounted for"

During the hearing it became apparent that the Middle East trip by the Respondents' delegates towards the end of 1977 when it is alleged that Mr Kirika refused to sign a cheque he being one of the signatories after the national chairman, Mr Macharia, had already signed the said cheque was the main incident that led to his termination after the governing council had decided to give him yet another opportunity after disciplining him and on the condition that he would tender an unreserved apology to the national chairman which letter of apology will have to be acceptable to the latter

The court is rather concerned that a person of Mr Kirika's seniority should have squandered a golden opportunity of retaining his job after the governing council had decided at its meeting on 6th February, 1978, to give him another opportunity to continue in employment provided he tendered an unreserved apology to the national chairman acceptable to him, the national chairman. Prior to this governing council meeting the management committee had met on 29th December, 1977, and had thoroughly investigated the various allegations against Mr Kirika when it was decided that his suspension would continue for another month with full pay until the matter was determined by the governing council.

At this stage the court would like to refer to a point made by the Claimants that since the allegations against Mr Kirika were not listed under paragraph 4 of the letter of 21st February, 1978, therefore, Mr Kirika did not know for what to apologize. The court finds that even if there was a mix up in the paragraphs in this letter a person of Mr Kirika's intelligence would easily know that the matters on which apology was sought from him are clearly listed in paragraphs (a) to (e) in that letter.

The court would now like to examine the apology which Mr Kirika tendered which reads:

"I am in receipt of your registered letter dated 21st February, 1978, and received by me on 25th February. With respect to the letter I wish to express an apology for I did obeyed your authority and further state that I promise to preserve an atmosphere conducive to harmonious relations with my colleagues in the Chamber. I offer this apology sincerely as genuine and without reservation."

When the above letter of apology was taken to the national chairman, Mr Macharia, he told Mr Kirika that it was not acceptable and he advised and guided Mr Kirika to write his apology in the following words:

"I wish to express my apology for disobeying your authority and for all other matters contained in your letter mentioned above. I further state that I promise without reservation."

Mr Kirika stated that he did not accept Mr Macharia's draft because he felt that if he had left some blanks as suggested by Mr Macharia then those blanks could be filled by someone against him. Mr Macharia while giving evidence stated that the reason he left those dots in his draft was that he wanted Mr Kirika to fill therein between the words after "I promise" and the last word "reservation" from Mr Kirika's first letter of apology. The court has no hesitation in finding Mr Macharia's explanation to be plausible as against Mr Kirika's version that he was to be trapped. It was a simple matter for Mr Kirika to have satisfied the national chairman but instead he was arrogant and refused to tender the apology which was acceptable to the national chairman and insisted that his original letter of apology should be accepted.

The court has carefully considered Mr Kirika's behaviour at this crucial stage when his employment was in jeopardy and finds that it fits in with the impression the court got that he was a difficult person to get on with. The Respondents went as far as to say that he was a hooligan and he wanted to boss everyone where he worked, that he was a conceited person and did not accept even the advice of the national chairman.

There are some other serious allegations against Mr Kirika but in view of the fact that the governing council decided to give him another chance provided he tendered an unreserved apology the court feels that it would not be fair to hold any of those other allegations against him. This dispute had to be resolved within the context of the governing council's decision which Mr Kirika accepted. The court now has to decide if in fact Mr Kirika's apology and his subsequent conduct fits in with the governing council's decision.

The court would now like to deal with the question of the national chairman of the Respondents having the necessary authority in matters of this nature. In this regard clauses 37, 38 and 39 of the Respondents' memo of association are relevant. A close study of these clauses makes it abundantly clear that the national chairman when he considers it necessary can make an urgent decision but shall at the first opportunity report to and seek the approval of the management committee and if necessary of the governing council.

Mr Kirika was suspended by the national chairman on 7th December, 1977. The matter was then placed before a meeting of the management committee which met on 29th December, 1977. The governing council endorsed Mr Kirika's suspension on the recommendation of the management committee and kept it pending until further notice. On 21st February, 1978, Mr Kirika was informed of certain decisions of the governing council with regard to his continued employment. It was the decision of the governing council as contained in paragraphs (b) and (f) on page 2 of this letter that he shall send a letter of unreserved apology to the national chairman on matters listed under paragraph 4 above regarding his behaviour and conduct and that such letter of apology will have to be acceptable to the national chairman. After the receipt of acceptable letter of apology from him, the national chairman, was to allow him to resume his work.

The court finds that the governing council had full powers to take these decisions and to delegate certain responsibilities to the national chairman. In view of this the court finds that the Ministry of Labour's investigator completely misled himself when he made following finding:

"The management committee and the governing council on various occasions decided that Mr Kirika be reinstated on condition that he apologizes. Since it was the governing committee which decided on his reinstatement on conditions that he apologizes I find it improper to expect the letter of apology to be acceptable to one person—the chairman—who incidentally was a party to the dismissal. The apology was however not accepted by the chairman. Mr Kirika refused to accept the format given to him, while the contents have not been disclosed there must have been some things that were not acceptable to him. I however, find it difficult to understand the need for the format if Mr Kirika had tendered an apology in circumstances where the management had sided with the chief executive. There is considerable doubt as to the justification of the termination of Mr Kirika. The benefit of doubt must therefore be given to Mr Kirika. I therefore find the termination wrongful."

The court finds it extremely difficult in view of the foregoing circumstances particularly when Mr Kirika had only to tender an apology acceptable to the national chairman which the latter even went to the trouble of drafting for him but which Mr Kirika rebuffed with some contempt, that it can help Mr Kirika any more than what he has been offered by the Respondents when they handed him out a normal termination and paid him K Sh 19,889.25. The court finds it indeed strange that an employee who is anxious to work with an organization should try to adopt such an unreasonable attitude and dictate his own terms. After careful consideration of all the submissions and the evidence given by the parties' witnesses the court finds that Mr Kirika did not suffer a wrongful termination. The court accordingly rejects the Claimants' demand made on his behalf for K Sh 45,246.

Parties

Issue in dispute

Termination of services of Mrs Hellen Muli

THE Domestic & Hotel Workers' Union shall hereinafter be referred to as the claimants and Maryhill High School shall hereinafter be referred to as the respondents

2 The parties were heard in Nairobi on 16th November and 23rd December, 1982 and 1st February, 1983 and in addition to relying on their written and verbal submissions called the following witnesses

Claimants

G Kabari

Respondents

F J Ngaru
R J Wangui

AWARD

3 The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 9th September, 1981, duly signed by the parties was received by the court on 22nd July, 1982, together with the statutory certificates signed by the Minister for Labour and the Labour Commissioner

Mrs Muli used to work for the respondents as a matron in charge, from 1st September, 1971, until 26th March, 1980, when her services were terminated for the reasons that the respondents' board had found that she was not efficient in her work, she did not comply with laid down rules as she was expected to do, that she did not respect and execute the directives given to her by the school administration, she had been found to collect money from students without any authority and finally because the board had also found that her academic qualification and training did not qualify her to be matron in charge of the school which now had form V and VI students. She was offered full benefits.

At some stage the claimants having stepped in, the matter was looked into by the Provincial Higher Education Officer, Central Province, the matter also had reached the head office of the Ministry of Higher Education. A meeting was held on 5th November, 1980, in the PEO's office under the chairmanship of Mr Ger, the provincial education officer's representative. The headmistress, (the board secretary), Miss Wangui, Mr Wahome and Mr Ndolo representing the claimants, and Mrs Muli were also present. On 10th November, 1980, Mr Ger set out what transpired at this meeting and the unanimous decision that was taken in the following terms:

"It is however, learnt from the minutes of the board of governors for the joint meeting held on 19th September, the board had seen that the two ladies, Mrs Muli and the headmistress would not possibly work together. This perhaps was one of the reasons why board members insisted Mrs Muli must go. Taking this point into consideration the provincial higher education officer's office meeting decided as follows and it was unanimous:

(1) That the board of governors takes Mrs Muli back immediately and pays her all the salaries she had missed while the case lasted

(2) That her services will then be terminated in accordance with the current agreement signed between the Ministry of Higher Education and the Union. This means she will be paid three (3) months salary in lieu of notice and will also be paid for all the leave which she will have earned in 1980 up to date of termination."

Then Miss Wangui on behalf of the board informed the provincial education officer that the board had terminated Mrs Muli's services and the decision was final and she further wrote that according to the law the board had the right to hire and fire its employees. She was emphatic that Mrs Muli can't come back to Maryhill.

The claimants then reported a trade dispute to the Minister for Labour and the ministry carried out an investigation through Mr A H Mwaura of Thika labour office. The ministry's findings were that Mrs Muli had a clean record prior to Miss Wangui's appointment as headmistress. After that a lot of correspondence was exchanged between Miss Wangui and Mrs Muli and it appeared that they had suddenly developed a strong dislike towards one another and that the headmistress was too strong towards Mrs Muli to an extent that she was ready to terminate her services irrespective of the magnitude of the offence. Mrs Muli may have committed. The investigator also stated that the respondents had not supported their allegations leading to Mrs Muli's termination and he came to the conclusion that the termination was based on a personal grudge rather than Mrs Muli's inefficiency and found that the termination had been wrongful. The ministry's recommendation was that Mrs Muli be paid half salary for the period between 26th March and 10th November, 1980, (the date the PEO gave a ruling on the matter) plus all other terminal dues in accordance with the parties' collective agreement. The respondents rejected the recommendations and in fact had earlier also rejected the directive from the Permanent Secretary for Higher Education which was conveyed to the headmistress on 5th June, 1981, in which it was stated:

"The Permanent Secretary Higher Education has instructed me to let you know that the Ministry's final stand now is that Mrs Muli ought to return on duty. Failure to this the Ministry will pay no cost of defence in case the Domestic Union takes the matter to the Industrial Court."

So the matter is now before the Industrial Court

The court heard the evidence of Mrs Muli and the headmistress, Miss Wangui and other witnesses called by the claimants and the respondents and it has also carefully considered the submissions made by the parties representatives. The court finds it proved that Mrs Muli indeed had a clean record up to the appointment of the new headmistress, Miss Wangui. The previous headmistress, Sister Claire Hamel in a certificate issued to Mrs Muli stated that she had a natural gift for contact with students whom she understands and helps in every way. She is most devoted to her work and very responsible, a very good nurse always ready to attend to the different complaints of the girls and is very cooperative with the headmistress who can rely entirely on her for the order and discipline in the boarding block. Finally she said that Mrs Muli had a sense of organization and efficiency in her work.

The court cannot accept the respondents' submission that this certificate from Sister Hamel should be disregarded because it was just one of those things which people issue when departing.

The disagreement between the two ladies started with the amount of K Sh 450 which the school had refunded to Mrs Muli for her uniform. Miss Wangui thought that this was not in order because K Sh 450 was too much and that at the most Mrs Muli will be provided with an overcoat which she will wear during working hours and then leave it in the school after finishing work as it was a school property like the lab coats which are given to the teachers who teach science. The court finds that this request was very unreasonable on the part of the headmistress. The relationship between the two then started deteriorating rapidly with the headmistress making all sorts of allegations against Mrs Muli negligence of duty, failure to answer letters and account for things like buckets, curtains, bed covers, pillows, and it also led to the withdrawal of the facility of running the school tuckshop which Mrs Muli used to run. In the letter withdrawing this facility from Mrs Muli, the headmistress requested her to sell all the stock by the end of the term as she had not been kind to Maryhill so the headmistress did not see why the school should give her such a privilege! On the other matters Mrs Muli did attempt to give the lists of the few pillows bedspreads etc that were required but obviously they were not acceptable to Miss Wangui and she proceeded to hand out to Mrs Muli warning letters. A third and final warning was given to Mrs Muli on 4th February, 1980, because it was alleged that she had sold some things from her house to two girls despite having been warned by the headmistress not to do so. The interesting thing about this withdrawal of facility from Mrs Muli to run the tuckshop is that she was required to hand over all the drugs etc to a cleaner! This is rather strange. The court has carefully examined all these warning letters and gets the impression that they were really as result of clash of personality between the two ladies rather than any shortcomings on the part of Mrs Muli in her work performance.

The court would like to comment on two matters which figured rather prominently during the hearing. One is in connection with the school goat which died of pneumonia but was certified by the vet that its meat could be eaten. The headmistress is alleged to have ordered it to be deepfrozen so that it could be served to the girls after their vacation but some other members of the staff ate it with the result that the headmistress had to ask them to refund the money for the meat eaten. This incident is really not relevant to the dispute except to attack the headmistress. The other incident is the allegation against the headmistress that she had encouraged girls to get pregnant and that she had announced it at the assembly. The court finds there is no truth in this allegation and the court accepts the headmistress's explanation that what she told the girls was that they should avoid pregnancies and if by any chance they did get pregnant they should not abort as that could be dangerous for them.

The court has very carefully considered the parties submissions and the evidence of the witnesses and has come to the conclusion that it should uphold the findings of the Ministry of Labour that Mrs Muli's termination was wrongful and the court finds she has suffered a wrongful dismissal.

The court has decided to make an award in terms of the unanimous agreement which the claimants' representatives and the headmistress in her capacity as the secretary of the respondents' board under the chairmanship of Mr Ger made on 5th November, 1980. The court accordingly awards that the respondents should pay Mis Muli all her salary for the period between 26th March, 1980, to the end of November, 1980, and in addition to this should be paid a further salary for three months in lieu of notice. The respondents should also pay her for all the leave she had earned in 1980.

2 The parties were heard in Nairobi on the 1st February, 1983, and relied on their written and verbal submissions

AWARD

3 The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 7th June, 1982, duly signed by the parties was received by the court on 26th October together with the statutory certificate signed by the Labour Commissioner

The parties' collective agreement which is the subject matter of revision was effective from 1st October, 1979, for a period of two years expiring at the end of September, 1981

By far the most important items in this dispute are the basic minimum wages, general wage increase and housing and house allowance

The respondents have pleaded a serious inability to pay anything over and above 6 per cent wage increase for the first year and a further 6 per cent wage increase for the second year. On house allowance the respondents have offered to continue paying house allowance from K Sh 70 pm to 15 per cent on individual monthly salary which they are paying from 20th August, 1982

They pleaded that since they took over the assets of African Ropes & Twines Ltd on 15th October, 1976, they are in an economic dilemma and that their six years in twine industry had proved to be an economic miscalculation as the division had yet to make a profit the main reason being that their products are incompetent in the traditional markets of sisal fibre because of the unfavourable competition from subsidized hard fibres from Brazil, Tanzania and Mexico to name a few and the competition posed by synthetic fibres from developed countries

The claimants have rejected the respondents' offer and are pressing for an increase in the basic minimum of 30 per cent first year and another 30 per cent for the second year, in addition they are demanding a wage increase of 30 per cent for the first year and another 30 per cent for the second year

The court caused intensive investigations to be carried out by the Division of Manpower Planning & Development who produced two reports for the benefit of the court dated 24th January and 12th February, 1983. After the economist's second visit to the respondents factory sometime in early February, 1983, the court received a complaint from the workers dated 4th February, 1983, which reads

"I write this letter to inform you that the labour officer came to our factory as it was said by the court I informed you that the manager knew that he was to come through a telephone conversation, he stopped all the machines and left only one machine running. The manager told the employees to keep on cleaning the machines, walls window glasses of the factory. When the labour officer was inspecting the factory no body was allowed to talk to the labour officer or to come near him by the manager. The labour officer came here at 3 pm when the factory closed at 5 pm we left him in the factory with our manager and the accountant until 6 pm"

Leaving this aspect aside for the time being the court notes from the DMPD report that there has been a decline in the number of permanent employees from 44 in 1977 to 27 in 1982, but at the same time the engagement of casual workers has risen from 13 to 26 between the same period

The DMPD also reveals that the respondents' firm has operated below capacity since 1978, and that 1982 had the lowest utilization of 12.1 per cent and forecast for 1983 was gloomy indeed unless there is an upsurge in demand from overseas markets

As far as the financial position is concerned the respondents enjoyed profit earnings ranging between K Sh 715,475 to K Sh 7,863,555 in 1978 and 1979, respectively. The respondents have incurred losses in 1980 and 1981

The workers' entitlement under the guidelines is on an average 20.4 per cent for the two year period. It is obvious that the claimants' demand of 30 per cent each year is way above the workers' entitlement under the guidelines and the respondents' offer of 6 per cent each year is 8.4 per cent less

The court has very carefully considered all aspects of this dispute and has decided that all the items which are before the court except for that of general wage increase and house allowance, should stay at the level of the previous collective agreement and the new demands are rejected for the time being. On the issue of general wage increase the court awards that the workers should get a 10 per cent increase for the first year and another 10 per cent increase for the second year

On the issue of house allowance the court awards that the workers should get an increase of 5 per cent on their current house allowance entitlement and another 5 per cent increase for the second year

The court further rules that this award should be effective from 1st October, 1981, for a period of two years

Given in Nairobi on the 7th March, 1983

GAZETTE NOTICE No 1031

THE TRADE MARKS ACT
(Cap 506)

NOTICE is given that any person who has grounds of opposition to the registration of any of the trade marks advertised herein according to the classes may, within 60 days from the date of this Gazette, lodge notice of opposition on Form TM No 6 (in duplicate) together with a fee of K Sh 50.

Notice is also given that official objection will be taken under rule 21 (3) to all applications in which the specification claims all the goods included in any class unless the Registrar is satisfied that the claim is justified by the use of the mark which the applicant has made, or intends to make if and when it is registered. Where an applicant considers that a claim in respect of all the goods included in a class can be justified it will save unnecessary delay in examining applications if a claim is filed simultaneously with the application, accompanied in appropriate cases by supporting documents.

The period for lodging notice of opposition may be extended by the Registrar as he thinks fit and upon such terms as he may direct. Any request for such extension should be made to the Registrar so as to reach him before the expiry of the period allowed.

Formal opposition should not be lodged until after reasonable notice has been given by letter to the applicant for registration so as to afford him an opportunity of withdrawing his application before the expense of preparing the notice of opposition is incurred. Failure to give such notice will be taken into account in considering any application by an opponent for an order for costs if the opposition is uncontested by the applicant.

Where it is stated in the advertisement of the applicant that the mark upon its registration, is to be limited to certain colours, the colours are, as far as possible, indicated in the accompanying representations of the mark in the usual heraldic manner.
