GAZETTE NOTICE No. 3953

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE NO. 114 OF 1990

Parties:

Kenya Union of Commercial, Food and Allied Workers and

Eveready Security Guards Company Limited

Issue in dispute:

"Termination of services of Mr. Raphael Njenga."

THE Kenya Union of Commercial, Food and Allied Workers shall hereinafter be referred to as the claimants and Eveready Security Guards Company Limited shall hereinafter be referred to as the respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on 19th February, 1991, and relied on their written and verbal submissions. In addition, the court caused the Ministry of Labour to carry out further investigation in this dispute. The court received the Ministry of Labour's report on 3rd July, 1991.

AWARD

3. The Minister for Labour signed the reference of this dispute to the Industrial Court on 28th September, 1990 in accordance with section 8 of the Trade Disputes Act (Cap. 234), which reference was received by the court on 2nd October, 1990, together with the statutory certificate signed by the Labour Commissioner.

The grievant Raphael Njenga was employed by the respondents on 26th February, 1984 as a security guard earning a consolidated monthly salary of KSh. 800. On 1st February, 1986 Njenga was promoted to the post of a corporal and held that position until 9th May, 1986, when his services were terminated by the respondents. At the time of his termination he was earning KSh. 840 and had served the respondents for 2 years and 2 months.

The respondents alleged that the grievant in the period between 27th January and 8th May, 1986 had numerous shortcomings. The respondents cited the grievant's shortcomings as absenteeism from duty, sleeping while on duty and refusal to perform assigned night duties. The respondents further alleged that the grievant was not dismissed from work but on 9th May, 1986, absconded from duty only to go and work for their clients privately.

The claimants told the court that, they took up the matter with the respondents but no settlement was reached. The claimants then reported a trade dispute to the Minister for Labour. Thereafter, an investigator was appointed and the dispute having gone through the usual machinery the ministry's findings and recommendation were released to the parties on 19th May, 1988.

The ministry's findings were that the grievant had deserted his employment and started working with a former client of the company which Njenga was previously assigned to guard. It was also found that Njenga did not in any way suffer wrongful dismissal.

The ministry recommended that the grievant be paid the following dues—

- (a) 9 days worked in May, 1986;
- (b) leave pro-rata;
- (c) uniform refund;
- (d) one way leave travelling allowance.

The recommendation was turned down by the claimants and the matter is now before the court for consideration.

The claimants concluded their submissions by stating that the Ministry of Labour findings were biased and one sided. They requested the court to set aside the Ministry of Labour's findings and recommendation and award the grievant full terminal benefits as follows:

- (i) One month's pay in lieu of notice—KSh. 840.
- (ii) Pay for 9 days worked in May, 1986—KSh. 290.75.
- (iii) Overtime entitlement worked over and above 52 hours a week. Mr. Njenga worked for 12 hours daily totalling 72 hours a week. 12 hours × 6 days = 72 hours—52 hours.

$$20 \text{ hours} \times 1\frac{1}{2} = 30 \text{ hours per week.}$$

$$\text{One (1) month (4 weeks)} \times 30 \text{ hours} = 120 \text{ hours.}$$

$$= \text{KSh. } 840 \times 120 = \text{KSh. } 448$$

$$\overline{225 \text{ hrs. } 1}$$

$$\text{Total overtime} = 26 \text{ months} \times 448 = \text{KSh. } 11,648.$$

- (iv) Off-duty entitlement as Mr. Njenga never had off-duties for rest.

$$\text{One (1) month} = 4 \text{ days} \times 26 \text{ months} = 104 \text{ days.}$$

$$\text{KSh. } 840 \text{ over } 30 \times 104 \text{ days} = \text{KSh. } 2,912. \text{ Total off duty} = \text{KSh. } 12,912.$$

- (v) Uniform refund at KSh. 20 each month for 26 months = KSh. 520.

$$\text{(vi) Leave travelling allowance for two years as Mr. Njenga never got it while proceeding on leave} = \text{KSh. } 150 \times 2$$

$$\text{Total KSh. } 300.$$

- (vii) Compensation for wrongful termination as the court may decide.

The respondents stressed that the grievant is the one to pay the company one (1) month's salary in lieu of notice because he left employment without serving the mandatory notice. The respondents went on to say that they were willing to pay Mr. Njenga his legal dues tabulated as follows:

- (i) Pay for 9 days worked in May, 1986, KSh. 290.
- (ii) Uniform refund KSh. 520.00.
- (iii) Pay for leave due KSh. 168.00.

$$\text{Total KSh. } 940.00.$$

However, his total dues of KSh. 940.00 should be subject to a deduction of one month's salary in lieu of notice. The respondents argued that the remaining payable amount to the grievant is only KSh. 100. They told the court that KSh. 100 was paid to the Provincial Labour Officer, Nairobi on 15th January, 1987, for onward transmission to the grievant. They prayed the court to dismiss the claimants' pleas and uphold their action.

Notwithstanding the fact that the respondents failed to appear in court and the court heard the dispute ex parte this court found it expedient in the interests of justice that further inquiries should be made and accordingly directed the Chief Industrial Relations Officer to make the necessary inquiries as directed by the court.

The Chief Industrial Relations Officer reported to the court on 2nd July, 1991 that the respondents had been quite evasive about this matter and that in the absence of the necessary records his officers could take the information available on its face value only.

The court has carefully considered the parties' written submissions and the claimants' further verbal submissions and the Chief Industrial Relations Officer's report and has decided to make the following award.

The court awards that the respondents should pay the grievant the following amounts:

- (i) One month's pay in lieu of notice—KSh. 840.
- (ii) Pay for 9 days worked in May, 1986—KSh. 290.75.
- (iii) Overtime worked for the period 8th May, 1985 up to 9th May, 1986 (one year)—KSh. 5,276.
- (iv) Uniform refund—KSh. 520.
- (v) Leave travelling allowance—KSh. 168.
- (vi) Two month's salary by way of compensation for wrongful termination—KSh. 1,680.

Dated the 13th July, 1991.

GAZETTE NOTICE NO. 4041

THE TRUST LAND ACT

(Cap. 288)

ALIENATION OF PLOTS—ISIOLO TOWNSHIP

THE Commissioner of Lands invites applications for the allocation of plots in the above township as described in the schedule hereto. A plan showing the plots may be obtained from the Public Map Office, P.O. Box 30089, Nairobi, on payment of KSh. 30, post free.

2. Completed applications should be submitted to the Commissioner of Lands, Nairobi, through the County Clerk, Isiolo County Council, P.O. Box 36, Isiolo, on the prescribed forms which are available from the District Lands Office, P.O. Box 40, Meru, and the office of the County Clerk, P.O. Box 36, Isiolo.

3. Applications must be sent so as to reach the county clerk not later than noon, on 13th September, 1991, and the applicants must enclose with their applications either a banker's cheque, money order or postal order for KSh. 1,000 made payable to the Commissioner of Lands, as deposit which will be dealt with as follows:

- (a) Credited to a successful applicant.
- (b) Refunded to an unsuccessful applicant.
- (c) Forfeited if a successful applicant fails to pay within thirty (30) days of the offer of a plot, and the applicant have no further claim thereto.
- (d) Non-refundable KSh. 100, payable to the Commissioner of Lands.

4. Each application should be accompanied by a statement indicating:

- (a) The amount of capital it is proposed to spend on the project.
- (b) The amount of actual capital available for development with banker's letter or other evidence of financial status in support.
- (c) The manner in which it is proposed to raise the balance required for development, if any.
- (d) Full details of both residential and/or commercial properties owned by the applicant in town.
- (e) Individual applicants to indicate numbers of their identity cards.
- (f) In case of companies, names of directors to be included.

5. The successful allottee of a plot shall pay to the Commissioner of Lands within thirty (30) days of notification that his/her application has been successful, the stand premium and proportion of the annual rent together with conveyancing, stamp duty, registration fees, contribution in lieu of rates, roads and drains charges and survey fees. In default of payment within the specified time, the Commissioner of Lands may cancel the allocation and the applicant shall have no claim to the plot.

General Conditions

The grant will be made under the provisions of the Trust Land Act, and title will be issued under the Registration of Titles Act (Cap. 281), or the Registered Land Act (Cap. 300), as the case may be.

2. The grant will be issued in the name of the allottee as given in the letters of application and will be subject to special conditions set out below.

3. The term of the grant will be for ninety-nine (99) years from the first day of the month following the issue of the letter of allotment.

Special Conditions

No buildings shall be erected on the land nor shall additions or external alterations be made to any buildings otherwise than in conformity with plans and specifications previously approved in writing by the local authority. The local authority shall not give its approval unless it is satisfied that the proposals are such as to develop the land adequately and satisfactorily.

2. The grantee shall, within six (6) calendar months of the actual registration of the grant, submit in triplicate to the local authority plans (including block plans showing the positions of the buildings and a system of drainage for the disposal of sewage, surface and sullage water), drawings, elevations and specifications of the buildings the grantee proposes to erect on the land and shall, within twenty-four (24) months of the actual registration of the grant, complete the erection of such buildings and the construction of the drainage system in conformity with such plans, drawing, elevations and specifications as amended (if such be the case) by the local authority:

Provided that notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in or implied by the Trust Land Act, if default shall be made in performance or observance of any of the requirements of this condition it shall be lawful for the county council or any person authorized by the county council to re-enter into and upon the land or any part thereof in the name of the whole and there upon the term created shall cease but without prejudice to any right of action or remedy of the county council in respect of any antecedent breach of any condition herein contained.

3. The grantee shall maintain in good and substantial repair and condition all buildings at any time erected on the land.

4. Should the grantee give notice in writing to the county council that he/she is unable to complete the buildings within the period aforesaid, the county council shall (at the grantee's expense) accept a surrender of land comprised herein:

Provided further that if such notice as aforesaid shall be given—

(a) within twelve (12) months of the commencement of the term of lease, the county council shall refund to the grantee 50 per cent of the stand premium paid in respect of the land;

(b) at any subsequent time prior to the expiration of the said building period, the county council shall refund the grantee 5 per cent of the said stand premium; or

(c) in the event of notice being given after the expiration of the said building period, no refund shall be made.

5. The land and buildings shall only be used for the purpose on the attached schedule only.

6. The buildings shall not cover 50 per cent of the area of land or such lesser area as may be laid down by the local authority in its by-laws.

7. The land shall not be used for the purpose of any trade business which the local authority considers to be dangerous or offensive.

8. The grantee shall not subdivide the land without prior consent in writing of the county council and the Commissioner of Lands.

9. The grantee shall not sell, transfer, sublet, charge or part with the possession of the land or any part thereof or any building thereon except with prior consent in writing of the county council. No application for such consent (except in respect of a loan required for building purposes) will be considered until special conditions No. 2 has been performed.

10. The grantee shall pay to the local authority, on demand such sum as the local authority may estimate to be the proportionate cost of constructing all roads and drains and sewers serving or adjoining the land and shall, on completion of such construction and the ascertainment of the actual proportionate cost, either pay (within seven (7) days of demand) or be refunded the amount by which the actual proportionate cost exceeds or falls short of the amount paid as aforesaid.

11. The grantee shall from time to time pay to the local authority, on demand such proportion of the cost of maintaining all roads and drains serving or adjoining the land as the local authority may assess.

12. Should the local authority at any time require the said roads to be constructed to a higher standard, the grantee shall pay to the local authority, on demand, such proportion of the cost of such construction as the local authority may assess.

13. The grantee shall pay such rates, taxes, charges, duties, assessments or outgoings of whatever descriptions as may be imposed, charged or assessed by any Government or local authority upon the land or the buildings erected thereon, including any contribution or other sum paid by the local authority or the county council in lieu thereof.

14. The county council or such person or authority as may be appointed for the purpose shall have the right to enter upon the land and lay and have access to water mains, of all descriptions whether overhead or underground and/or interfere with any existing alignment of mains or service pipes or telephone or telegraph wires and electric mains.

15. The local authority reserves the right to revise the annual ground rent payable hereunder at the expiration of thirty-third (33rd) and sixty-sixth (66th) year of the term. Such rental will be at the rate of 4 per cent of the unimproved freehold value of the land assessed by the Commissioner of Lands on behalf of the local authority.

THE ELECTRIC POWER ACT

(Cap. 314)

THE KENYA POWER AND LIGHTING COMPANY LIMITED

APPLICATION TO EXTEND AREA COVERED BY DISTRIBUTION LICENCE NO. 2

NOTICE is given that The Kenya Power and Lighting Company Limited, a limited liability company having its registered office at Electricity House, Harambee Avenue, P.O. Box 30099, Nairobi, Kenya, (hereinafter called "the Applicant") will, on Tuesday, 1st October, 1991, pursuant to section 129 (1) (e) of the Electric Power Act, make an application to the Minister for Energy, for the extension of the area covered by the said licence.

The object of and reason for the application are to enable the Applicant to distribute electrical energy to such public or local authorities, companies, persons or bodies of persons in the scheduled areas as may require the same. It is the opinion of the Applicant that the granting of the application will be equitable to the Applicant and to consumers in every area of supply concerned or affected and no licensee or consumer in any area of supply will be unduly prejudiced thereby.

No area will be effected by the grant of the application save and except the scheduled areas, and the public or local authorities, companies, person or bodies of persons who may be affected by such grant and the manner in which they may be affected is as follows:

Public and local authorities, companies, persons and bodies of persons resident or carrying on business in the scheduled areas in that they may become entitled to requisition the Applicant to supply electric energy as provided by the Electric Power Act. Copies of the draft of the application are available for inspection by any person affected by the grant of the application at the offices of the Kenya Power and Lighting Company Limited, Nairobi.

OBJECTIONS AND REPRESENTATIONS

Any public or local authority, company, person or body of persons desirous of making any representation and/or objection to this application must do so by a letters addressed to the Minister for Energy, marked on the outside of the cover enclosing it "Electric Power Act", on or before the expiration of thirty (30) days from the date of this application. A copy of such representation or objection must be forwarded to the Applicant, The Kenya Power and Lighting Company Limited, at its offices at Electricity House, Harambee Avenue, Nairobi.
