GAZETTE NOTICE NO. 4781

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE NO. 144 OF 1985

Parties:

Kenya Union of Commercial Food and Allied Workers and Othaya Farmers Co-operative Society Limited

Issue in dispute:

Wage Increase.

THE Kenya Union of Commercial Food and Allied Workers shall hereinafter be referred to as the claimants and the Othaya Farmers Co-operative Society Limited shall hereinafter be referred to as the respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on 8th October, 1986 and relied on their written and verbal submissions. Previously the dispute had been fixed for hearing on 20th May, 1986, but the claimants failed to submit their memo in time and asked for another hearing date.

AWARD

3. The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 19th August, 1985 duly signed by the parties was received by the court on 30th December, 1985 together with the statutory certificate signed by the Labour Commissioner.

The respondents are a small-scale farmers co-operative society operating in Othaya Division in Nyeri. They also run seventeen simple pulping factories within the division, and they own coffee estates, commercial and residential buildings in Nyeri and Nairobi.

The claimants informed the court that they have a recognition agreement with the respondents which empowers them to represent all the unionizable employees in the respondents' undertaking in as far as the terms and conditions of employment are concerned.

The claimants submitted that they had forwarded their first ever proposals on terms and conditions of service to the respondents on 6th October, 1982, and that even though the respondents received these proposals, they never made any counter proposals but instead they became very difficult and most unwilling to meet them. They further stated that it was after they had reported a trade dispute to the Minister for Labour that the respondents became willing to meet them.

The claimants further submitted that after holding several joint negotiating meetings under the chairmanship of the conciliator, the parties agreed on all items except the one in dispute.

The claimants are demanding a wage increase of 25 per cent each year. They stated that the respondents are able to meet their demand and that most of their members fall within the lower income group and that they are entitled to full compensation. The claimants castigated the respondents for using delaying tactics thereby denying their members a wage increase for almost three years.

The respondents submitted that this dispute stems from a clause of an expired agreement. They further strongly submitted that the claimants were well informed of their inability to make any offer on wage increase as the Ministry of Co-operatives had given a directive that 80 per cent of the gross sales should be paid to members which percentage was later on increased to 90 per cent.

The respondents strongly submitted that as a result of this directive, the percentage of gross sales income retained by them was reduced from 12 per cent to 4.5 per cent. They further stated that they spend KSh. 2,253,648 per year on wages and that if the court awards the proposed increase by the claimants (which will amount to an additional KSh. 2,817,060), then they cannot avoid liquidation.

The respondents further submitted that they pay their employees' salaries ranging between 17 per cent to 131 per cent over and above the statutory wages paid by employers in the same region and that their employees get annual increments ranging between KSh. 20 and KSh. 50 and house allowance of KSh. 84 up to KSh. 255 per month.

The respondents also stated that in October 1985 they had introduced a house allowance equivalent to 15 per cent of the employees' wages which resulted into a heavy financial burden on them and that they should not be made to pay arrears of wages as the claimants had intentionally ignored this issue for three years.

Finally, they prayed the court to dismiss the claimants' demand.

The court finds that much thought was not given by the claimants when they formulated their 50 per cent wage demand (25 per cent each year) against the respondents. Their demand, if accepted, would require the respondents to find an additional KSh. 2,817,060 on top of the current wage bill of KSh. 2,253,648 per year. To accept the claimants' demand would be to send the respondent into liquidation. This, the court is not prepared to do.

The court carefully scrutinized the existing wage and salary structure with annual increments and a monthly house allowance which is being enjoyed by the respondents' employees who are also the respondents' members and finds that they are reasonable under the circumstances for the period of the collective agreement under consideration.

The court has noted that this is the first collective agreement between the parties and has come to the conclusion that no wage increase award is justified under the circumstances. The court cannot overlook the fact that the claimants have significantly contributed to the delay in the processing of this dispute and during the hearing they failed to produce any convincing evidence in support of their demand.

After careful consideration of all the submissions the court rejects the claimants' demand in this dispute.

Given on the 22nd October, 1986.

Judge.

J. AWORI,

IN CLASS 32—SCHEDULE III

THE TRADE MARKS ACT

(Cap. 506)

NOTICE is given that any person who has grounds of opposition to the registration of any of the trade marks advertised herein according to the classes may, within sixty (60) days from the date of this Gazette, lodge notice of opposition on form TM. No. 6 (in duplicate) together with a fee of KSh. 50.

Notice is also given that official objection will be taken under rule 21 (3) to all applications in which the specification claims all the goods included in any class unless the registrar is satisfied that the claim is justified by the use of the mark which the applicant has made, or intends to make if and when it is registered. Where an applicant considers that a claim in respect of all the goods included in a class can be justified it will save unnecessary delay in examining applications if a claim is filed simultaneously with the application, accompanied in appropriate cases by supporting documents.

The period for lodging notice of opposition may be extended by the registrar as he thinks fit and upon such terms as he may direct. Any request for such extension should be made to the registrar so as to reach him before the expiry of the period allowed.

Formal opposition should not be lodged until after reasonable notice has been given by letter to the applicant for registration so as to afford him any opportunity of withdrawing his application before the expense of preparing the notice of opposition is incurred. Failure to give such notice will be taken into account in considering any application by an opponent for an order for costs if the opposition is uncontested by the applicant.

Where it is stated in the advertisement of the applicant that the mark, upon registration is to be limited to certain colours, the colours are, as far as possible, indicated in the accompanying representation of the mark in the usual heraldic manner.

Particular attention should be paid to the following points:

- (i) Signature must be clarified by means of rubber-stamping or typing the name of the signer in capital letters.
