THE INDUSTRIAL COURT
CAUSE NO. 31 OF 1983

Parties:

Tailors and Textiles Workers' Union
and
Sunflag Textile and Knitwear Mills Limited

Issue in dispute:

Wrongful dismissal of William Juma.

THE Tailors and Textiles Workers' Union shall hereinafter be referred to as the claimants and Sunflag Textile and Knitwear Mills Limited shall hereinafter be referred to as the respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi, on 21st September, 1983, and in addition to relying on their written and verbal submissions called the following witnesses:

Claimants.—William Juma.

Respondents.—R. M. Khan.

AWARD

3. The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 22nd June, 1982, duly signed by the parties was received by the court on 19th May 1983, together with the statutory certificates signed by the Minister for Labour and the Labour Commissioner.

William Juma worked for the respondents from July, 1978 to 21st July, 1981, when he was dismissed. At the time of dismissal his normal working place was in the dye house which the court was told is at a distance from the printing section.

On 21st July, 1981, he was on night shift duty but was found at about 4.15 a.m. in the printing section and it is alleged that he was trying to steal suiting materials which he was pushing out from the factory to some people on the other side.

The claimants have argued this case mainly on the ground that if the respondents caught him red-handed in the act of stealing then the matter should have been handed over to the police to deal with but since the respondents did not do so it proved that they had no case.

The dispute was investigated by the Ministry of Labour who found that there was no night shift work in the printing section and therefore this section was in semi-darkness and it was therefore not clear what Mr. Juma was doing all alone in that section with a roll of material lying there in a drum. The ministry also noted that he had two previous warnings in February, 1981, and they appear to have been valid in accordance with the relevant clause in the collective agreement. The ministry, however, thought that the theft case had not been proved beyond any reasonable doubt and recommended that the dismissal be reduced to normal termination giving him all terminal dues.

The claimants have demanded in addition to the terminal dues six months' wages by way of compensation for the wrongful dismissal that he had suffered.

The court heard the evidence of Mr. Juma and the respondents' witness T. M. Khan and after an evaluation of the evidence given by these witnesses the court is satisfied that Mr. Juma had no business to be in the printing section where he was found by Mr. Khan who was the general supervisor and security in charge. Mr. Khan found him handling material which had been stuffed in a bucket and he was trying to pass the material through the cracks. On seeing Mr. Khan, Mr. Juma started running and was chased and caught. He was then handed over to the headman.

The court rejects the unsatisfactory explanation given by Mr. Juma that he knew nothing about the material which was found in the bucket or why he was in the printing section which was not in operation at that time. He had no business to be in that section for washing himself as his own section had better facilities for this purpose than the printing section.

The court is satisfied that Mr. Juma by his conduct had indeed shown that he was a dishonest employee and was guilty of gross misconduct. The court cannot quarrel with the respondents' decision to take action against him at their own level rather than to refer the matter to the police. It is a matter entirely at their discretion.

After careful consideration of all the submission the court finds that there is absolutely no merit in the claimants' demand and the court accordingly rejects both their demands for the payment of terminal benefits and six months' compensation as Mr. Juma deserved summary dismissal.

Give in Nairobi on the 27th October, 1983.

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT
CAUSE NO. 44 OF 1983

Parties:

Kenya Union of Commercial Food and Allied Workers
and
Kenya Breweries Limited

Issue in dispute:

Dismissal of Daniel Wafula.

THE Kenya Union of Commercial Food and Allied Workers shall hereinafter be referred to as the claimants and Kenya Breweries Limited shall hereinafter be referred to as the respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi, on 3rd and 4th October, 1983, and in addition to relying on their written and verbal submissions called the following witnesses:

Claimants.—D. Wafula.

Respondents:

R. Wambua.

J. K. Kangoria.

N. N. Kamau.

R. T. Omukoselo.

AWARD

3. The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 5th January, 1983, duly signed by the parties was received by the court on 3rd June, together with the statutory certificates signed by the Minister for Labour and the Labour Commissioner.

This is a straightforward case concerning D. Wafula, who worked for the respondents from 23rd April, 1979, until 4th March, 1982, when he was dismissed.

The facts leading to his dismissal are that on 1st March, he was on duty from 2 to 10 p.m. It is not disputed that when he left at 10 p.m. another security guard took over from him. In the morning on 2nd March, R. Wambua who is the security officer at the respondents' head office received a report that four cups and saucers and a tumbler from the chairman's office were missing. Mr. Wambua organized search parties and houses of the two security guards—the grievant and the other one who took over from him—and the messengers working in the section were searched.

The court heard evidence on oath from four witnesses called by the respondents who explained what happened at Mr. Wafula's house. The search party reached his house which was pointed out to them by one of their colleagues, Mr. Tiema, and on knocking the door it was opened by a woman who was later identified to be Mr. Wafula's wife. She told them he was not at home and had gone to Kariobangi. They were all inside the room and she was instructed to send Mr. Wafula to his work place as soon as he came. As the search party was about to leave, Mr. Wambua noticed a paper bag underneath a cupboard with one cup protruding out. With Mr. Wafula's wife's permission Mr. Wambua picked up the paper bag and on opening it found four cups and the tumbler. The room was partitioned with a curtain. Mr. Wambua asked one of his colleagues to make a list of the things found so that they could take them to the head office. When the list was being prepared Mr. Wafula came out from behind the curtain wielding a panga or a Masai sword and went straight to the door and blocked it. He warned the party that any one of them who attempted to leave the house with the cups would be killed. Naturally there was a commotion and one of them suggested that the wife should be sent out of the room before the matter could be discussed between Mr. Wafula and the search party. Mr. Wafula agreed and she was sent out. Thereafter Mr. Wafula tried to slash Mr. Wambua with the panga who while avoiding it fell down holding the exhibits. Mr. Wafula tried to grab the exhibits and in the struggle two cups and the tumbler broke. Mr. Wambua managed to pick up one cup and a saucer and his colleague Mr. Kangoria picked up the other cup. One of them managed to open the bedroom door and they all ran out for their lives. Two of them managed to get in the van and drove straight to the police station and the other two found their way to the station on foot. The matter was reported and the police decided to go to Mr. Wafula's place. On the way they met him and picked him up and went to his house which had all been washed up and there was no sign of any broken crockery.

This story was confirmed and corroborated by all the respondents' witnesses and the court has no reason to doubt as to its truthfulness. The court accepts this version of the incident and rejects Mr. Wafula's claim that nothing was found in his house and it was all a conspiracy to sack him. The court also rejects his story that one of the search party had slapped his wife and he was on his way to the police station to report the incident. If he was going to report that incident why did he send her to the market and go to the police station alone?

The court must observe that the Ministry of Labour investigator appears to have got confused and the court cannot accept the finding that the dismissal was wrongful and that Mr. Wafula should be paid all his terminal benefits plus four months' salary by way of compensation.

The court is satisfied that there is no merit whatsoever in this case and that Mr. Wafula deserved a dismissal as he committed a gross misconduct. The court accordingly rejects all the claims made on his behalf and upholds his summary dismissal.

Given in Nairobi on the 28th October, 1983.

GAZETTE NOTICE NO. 4204

THE TRADE MARKS ACT
(Cap. 506)

NOTICE is given that any person who has grounds of opposition to the registration of any of the trade marks advertised herein according to the classes may, within sixty (60) days from the date of this Gazette, lodge notice of opposition on form TM. No. 6 (in duplicate) together with a fee of KSh. 50.

Notice is also given that official objection will be taken under rule 21 (3) to all applications in which the specification claims all the goods included in any class unless the registrar is satisfied that the claim is justified by the use of the mark which the applicant has made, or intends to make if and when it is registered. Where an applicant considers that a claim in respect of all the goods included in a class can be justified it will save unnecessary delay in examining applications if a claim is filed simultaneously with the application, accompanied in appropriate cases by supporting documents.

The period for lodging notice of opposition may be extended by the registrar as he thinks fit and upon such terms as he may direct. Any request for such extension should be made to the registrar so as to reach him before the expiry of the period allowed.

Formal opposition should not be lodged until after reasonable notice has been given by letter to the applicant for registration so as to afford him an opportunity of withdrawing his application before the expense of preparing the notice of opposition is incurred. Failure to give such notice will be taken into account in considering any application by an opponent for an order for costs if the opposition is uncontested by the applicant.

Where it is stated in the advertisement of the applicant that the mark, upon its registration, is to be limited to certain colours, the colours are, as far as possible, indicated in the accompanying representations of the mark in the usual heraldic manner.

Representations of the marks advertised herein can be seen at the Trade Marks Registry, State Law Offices, Nairobi.

Applications for registration in part A of the register are shown with the official number unaccompanied by any letter. Applications for part B are distinguished by the letter B prefixed to the official number.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS TO THE KENYA GAZETTE

THE following notes are for the guidance of persons submitting "copy" for inclusion in the Kenya Gazette, Supplements, etc.:

- (1) The Kenya Gazette contains notices of a general nature which do not affect legislation. They are therefore submitted to the Government Printer directly.
- (2) Legislative Supplement contains Rules and Regulations which are issued by the Central Government. Because of this they must be submitted to the Government Printer through the office of the Attorney-General.
- (3) Bill Supplement contains Bills which are for introduction in the National Assembly.
- (4) Act Supplement contains Acts passed by the National Assembly.

All "copy" submitted for publication should be prepared on one side of an A4 sheet no matter how small the notice or Act, each page being numbered, and should be typewritten with double spacing. Copy should be clear, legible and contain a minimum of alterations.

Particular attention should be paid to the following points:

- (i) Signatures must be clarified by means of rubber-stamping or typing the name of the signer in capital letters.
- (ii) Dates must be correct and filled in where necessary.
- (iii) Care should be taken to ensure that all headings to notices and references to legislation are up to date and conform with the Revised Edition of the Laws of Kenya,

EXTRACT FROM THE CODE OF REGULATIONS, SECTION D—
*Kenya Gazette

"D.14.(1) Communications for the Kenya Gazette should reach the Government Printer not later than 12 noon, on Tuesday of the week that publication is desired. The Government Printer will not publish communications received after that hour until the next subsequent issue of the Gazette.

(2) It will facilitate work at the Press if Permanent Secretaries will forward Gazette notices to the Government Printer when ready."

It is emphasized that these notes are for guidance only, but it is requested that persons submitting copy for publication first satisfy themselves that such copy is complete in every respect.
