3. The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 25th November, 1981, duly signed by the parties as received by the court on 22nd July, 1982, together with the statutory certificates signed by the Minister for Labour and the Labour Commissioner.

The four persons involved in this dispute used to work for the respondents as watchmen—two from 1975 and two from 1977—and were dismissed on 3rd January, 1979, on grounds of insubordination.

The claimants took up the matter on their behalf and the matter was first discussed at the provincial education officer's level under the chairmanship of L. Kago at which meeting the decision was that the action taken by the headmaster was justifiable as these four watchmen had refused to use the watchman's clock.

The Ministry of Labour's finding was that the watchmen's attitude had been tantamount to disobeying a lawful order but in view of the fact that they had previous clean records it was recommended that the dismissal be reduced to normal termination and they be paid all their terminal dues.

The respondents accepted the ministry's recommendation and prepared the following cheques:

| | KSh. |
|--------------------|---------|
| "S. K. Gakuru ... | 591.50 |
| J. M. Githongo ... | 567.50 |
| L. W. Mwai ... | 420.35 |
| T. Wahiuko ... | 420.35" |

The claimants however decided to bring the dispute to the Industrial Court.

After having heard the parties' submissions and the evidence called by them, the court finds that the claimants have really no case as it is quite clear that these watchmen were determined not to use the clock that had been provided in order to monitor their movements when on duty. The court has got to take very seriously the fact that at one stage deliberate attempt seems to have been made to wreck the clock which the experts found was due to someone having urinated in it which had rendered many of its parts unworkable. All these parts had to be replaced and it had cost the respondents KSh. 513.15. The court finds this to be a wilful act of damage to a very valuable and expensive instrument which was Isgus 49 watchman's clock.

After the clock was repaired the watchmen were asked to start using it towards the end of 1978 and were warned by the headmaster not to repeat any such action as disciplinary action would be taken against them.

On 2nd January, 1979, the bursar reported to the headmaster stating that the watchmen did not like the use of the clock because of the following reasons:

1. When the clock was absent they did as much as they ought to have done.
2. They have been sleeping most of time during their hours of work and we did not have the means of checking them.
3. As the habit has grown to the extent that to use the clock it means to wake up. This alone can make them declare war against anyone who suggests that they use the clock."

The court finds that the warning letters were issued to these four watchmen and their final act of insubordination in refusing to use the watchmen's clock left the respondents with no alternative but to sack them.

The court was impressed by the evidence given during the hearing by the headmaster F. Mwangi and accepts his evidence to be true as against the evidence of one of the watchmen, J. T. Hiuhu.

The court accordingly rejects the claimant's demand of either reinstating them or paying them heavy compensation.

GAZETTE NOTICE NO. 1456

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT
CAUSE NO. 81 OF 1982

Parties:

Kenya Union of Commercial Food and Allied Workers and
Kenya Cashewnuts Limited

Issue in dispute:

Underpayment of minimum wages.

THE Kenya Union of Commercial Food and Allied Workers shall hereinafter be referred to as the claimants and Kenya Cashewnuts Ltd. shall hereinafter be referred to as the respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on 9th and 28th February, 1983, and relied on their written and verbal submissions.

AWARD

3. Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 16th February, 1982, duly signed by the parties was received by the court on 17th August together with the statutory certificate signed by the Labour Commissioner.

In this dispute the claimants maintain that quite a number of their members have been underpaid by the respondents since 1978. In this year the parties entered into a two-year collective agreement effective from 1st August, 1978. Clause 21 headed wages schedule reads:

"21. Wages schedule: Increases agreed upon are as follows: KSh. 1,000 and below, 1st year 18 per cent and 2nd year 14 per cent. Above KSh. 1,000 p.m. 1st year 12 per cent and 2nd year 8 per cent. The percentage increase to be on individual salary."

| Minimum Scale | Current Year KSh. | 1st Year KSh. | 2nd Year KSh. |
|---------------|-------------------|---------------|---------------|
| 1 | 215 | 254 | 290 |
| 2 | 315 | 372 | 424 |
| 3 | 415 | 490 | 559 |
| 4 | 590 | 696 | 794 |
| 5 | 860 | 1,015 | 1,157 |
| 6 | 1,115 | 1,249 | 1,349 |

The court finds that there is no doubt that the minimum scale for each grade was revised as stated above and the new entrants were entitled to be paid the aforesaid new minimums depending on when they joined the respondents.

The parties then entered into another two-year agreement which read as follows with effect from 1st August, 1980, for one year:

"23. Wages schedule: increase agreed upon as follows: Workers earning up to KSh. 1,000 p.m. be awarded 15 per cent increase and those earning above KSh. 1,000 be awarded 9 per cent increase.

This increase to remain in force for one year or until urban council status for Kilifi is gazetted and the minimum salary scale applicable determined whichever is earlier."

Then with effect from 1st July, 1981, the parties entered into an agreement which read as follows:

"23. Wages schedule: The annual increase to become effective from 1st July, 1981, was agreed upon as follows: That workers earning up to KSh. 1,000 p.m. be awarded 20 per cent increase and those earning above KSh. 1,000 be awarded 15 per cent."

The claimants' contention is that the agreement effective from 1st August, 1980, also increased the basic minimum scales by the percentage increase agreed and that further with effect from 1st July, 1981, the basic minimum scales were again increased by the percentage increases that were agreed between the parties although the minimum scales are not specifically mentioned in these collective agreements. This would result in the minimum scale from 1st August, 1980, and 1981, to be as follows:

| Scale | w.e.f. 1st August, 1980 KSh. | w.e.f. 1st August, 1981 KSh. cts. |
|-------|---------------------------------|--------------------------------------|
| 1 | 290 | 333.50 |
| 2 | 424 | 487.60 |
| 3 | 559 | 642.85 |
| 4 | 794 | 913.10 |
| 5 | 1,157 | 1,261.15 |
| 6 | 1,349 | 1,470.40 |

The respondents submitted that they had interpreted the 1978 collective agreement to mean that the new entrants who joined after 31st July, 1978, would get the rates specified under the heading "current year" and they had granted the wage increases agreed to those employees who were already in employment as at 31st July, 1978.

As far as the 1980 agreement is concerned the respondents maintained that the new employees who joined them after 31st July, 1980, were to get and did get the basic minimum wages as indicated under the current year of the 1978 agreement. Other employees got the wage increases as agreed.

The respondents pleaded with the court that if the claimants' submission was accepted this would eliminate wage differential between the employees who were in employment prior to 1st August, 1978, and those who were employed after 31st July, 1980. This would affect about 1,900 employees and would create a very serious financial problem for them which they will never be able to manage particularly at this time when they do not have enough cashewnuts to process. They asked the court to reject the claimants' demand and requested that the court should direct the parties that for future they should divide their wage clause into two sections—minimum wages for new employees and wage increases for existing employees and to fix minimum wages for the entire period of the agreement for each year of the agreement.

The court notes that if the claimants' demand was upheld in its entirety then the respondents would have to provide KSh. 2,003,460.

This dispute involves about 717 workers.

The court notes that the annual financial position of the respondents indicating profit/loss retained from 1978 to 1982 before taxation was:

| Year | Profit/loss | Retained profit/loss |
|------|------------------------|------------------------|
| 1978 | 14,560,366 | 16,044,532 |
| 1979 | 1,365,517 | 14,737,610 |
| 1980 | 702,967 | 15,530,082 |
| 1981 | 27,718,489 | 25,261,365 |
| 1982 | 7,891,016 | 28,335,602 |
| 1983 | 10,122,000 (estimated) | 18,213,602 (estimated) |

The court has already made its finding on the 1978 collective agreement to the effect that the basic minimum wages were revised as clearly stated in that agreement. After carefully considering the matter further the court finds in view of the fact that in the collective agreement effective from 1st August, 1980, the parties had clearly provided as follows:

"This increase to remain in force for one year or until urban council status for Kilifi is gazetted and the minimum salary scale applicable determined whichever is earlier."

The minimum scales were amended by the percentage increases agreed by the parties with effect from 1st August, 1980, for one year.

The court, however, cannot accept the claimants' submission for the collective agreement effective from 1st August, 1981, that the percentage increase again revised the minimum salary scales because this time the words are very clear as follows:

"Workers earning up to KSh. 1,000 p.m. be awarded 20 per cent increase and those earning above KSh. 1,000 be awarded 15 per cent increase."

The court finds that this time the percentage increase did not revise the minimum scales and they continued as revised with effect from August, 1980.

In view of the court's ruling that the minimum scales were revised in 1978 for two years and then again for one year with effect from 1st August, 1980, but not thereafter the court directs the parties to get together and work out the underpayments due to those employees who had joined the respondents during the material time. The court appreciates that in view of the arrears dating back to 1978 and the large number of workers involved who have suffered underpayments the financial strain on the respondents will be quite heavy. The court accordingly directs that the respondents should pay these arrears to the workers affected in four six-monthly equal instalments. The court further directs that in case the parties are not able to agree on the underpayments of the workers concerned then they should meet under the chairmanship of the Provincial Labour Officer, Coast Province, to do so in accordance with the terms of the court award.

GAZETTE NOTICE NO. 1457

THE TRADE MARKS ACT

(Cap. 506)

NOTICE is given that any person who has grounds of opposition to the registration of any of the trade marks advertised herein according to the classes may, within 60 days from the date of this Gazette, lodge notice of opposition on Form TM. No. 6 (in duplicate) together with a fee of KSh. 50.

Notice is also given that official objection will be taken under rule 21 (3) to all applications in which the specification claims all the goods included in any class unless the registrar is satisfied that the claim is justified by the use of the mark which the applicant has made, or intends to make if and when it is registered. Where an applicant considers that a claim in respect of all the goods included in a class can be justified it will save unnecessary delay in examining applications if a claim is filed simultaneously with the application, accompanied in appropriate cases by supporting documents.

The period for lodging notice of opposition may be extended by the registrar as he thinks fit and upon such terms as he may direct. Any request for such extension should be made to the registrar so as to reach him before the expiry of the period allowed.

Formal opposition should not be lodged until after reasonable notice has been given by letter to the applicant for registration so as to afford him an opportunity of withdrawing his application before the expense of preparing the notice of opposition is incurred. Failure to give such notice will be taken into account in considering any application by an opponent for an order for costs if the opposition is uncontested by the applicant.

Where it is stated in the advertisement of the applicant that the mark, upon its registration, is to be limited to certain colours, the colours are, as far as possible, indicated in the accompanying representations of the mark in the usual heraldic manner.

THE VALUATION FOR RATING ACT
(Cap. 266)

THE MUNICIPAL COUNCIL OF MOMBASA

DRAFT SUPPLEMENTARY VALUATION ROLL, 1982

NOTICE is given that the Draft Supplementary Valuation Roll and Draft Supplementary Public Land Valuation Roll for 1982 were laid before a meeting of the Mombasa council on 7th December, 1982, under section 9 (2) of the Valuation for Rating Act.

The said rolls are available at the Town Hall, Mombasa, for public inspection during normal office hours. Individual notices of assessment have been sent to all affected rateable owners, under section 9 (4) of the Act. A formal notice, under section 9 (3) of the Act, was published in the Daily Nation on 25th January, 1983, calling for any objections to be lodged within twenty-eight (28) days of that date. Due to a technicality, it has been found necessary to re-publish this notice.

It is now declared that any person who is aggrieved—

(a) by the inclusion of any rateable property in, or by the omission of any rateable property from, the draft supplementary valuation roll; or

(b) by any value ascribed in the draft supplementary valuation roll to any property, or by any other statement made or omitted to be made in the same with respect to any rateable property, may lodge an objection with the Town Clerk. Objection should be made in writing on the forms provided (copies of which may be obtained on application) and must be received at the Town Hall, Mombasa, at any time before the expiration of twenty-eight (28) clear days from the date of publication of this notice. Any person who has already lodged an objection to the draft supplementary valuation roll need not lodge further objection.

No person shall be entitled to urge an objection before a valuation court unless he shall first have lodged such notice of objection as aforesaid.

Dated the 30th March, 1983.
