THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE NO. 48 OF 1989

Parties:

Kenya Engineering Workers Union

and

Friendship Container Manufacturers Limited

Issue in dispute:

The resumption of work of all the workers, except the five employees who are working, and the issue of the payment of their wages up to and including the date of the award.

THE Kenya Engineering Workers Union shall hereinafter be referred to as the claimants and the Friendship Container Manufacturers Limited shall hereinafter be referred to as the respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on 31st July, 1st, 2nd August and 13th, 15th and 16th November, 1989 as well as on 19th, 20th and 21st February and 4th and 5th April, 1990, respectively. Finally the dispute was heard on 24th May, 1990.

The parties also called the following witnesses to testify on oath:

The claimants

James Kanyuku
Makau Ng'ang'a
Elijah Alitsi
Johnstone Okanga
Patrick Aluoch
Geoffrey Mugosi
John Mutua
Ignatius Okoth
Patrick Kamau
Peter Wandera Chege
Gerald Maina
Elias Maina
Simon Maina
Josphat Ng'ang'a
Fredrick Odusi
Francis Mutava

The respondents

Arun Shah
S. Binge
James Ngaruuya
Jyoti Gagan
John Lugale

AWARD

3. The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 20th June, 1989, duly signed by the parties was received by the court on 5th July, 1989, together with the statutory certificate signed by the Minister for Labour and the Labour Commissioner.

The respondents business started operating in 1978 and they are engaged in the manufacture of all types of decorative tin and screw caps.

The dispute originally involved the entire unionizable employees of the respondents numbering about 103. However, this figure was reduced on 2nd August, 1989, when the court ordered that 87 employees allegedly on an illegal strike to return back to their place of work. This they did. Therefore this dispute concerns the grievants whose employment had been terminated on allegations of beating up one of the respondents director, Mr. Arun Shah.

The list of the grievants and their years of service is as follows:

Name	Years of service
James Kanyuku	2
Makau Ng'ang'a	5 years and 2 months
Elijah Alitsi	12
Johnstone Okanga	1½
Patrick Aluoch	2
Geoffrey Mugosi	2
John Mutua	2
Ignatius Okoth	4
Patrick Kamau	5
Peter W. Chege	10 months
Gerald Maina	2
Elias Maina	1½
Simon Maina	10 months
Josphat Ng'ang'a	1½
Frederick Odusi	1 and 10 months
Francis Mutava	1 and 10 months

The incident that led to the grievants' dismissal happened on 27th May, 1989. It is alleged that at the material time the 16 grievants participated in mob violence by beating up the respondents director, Arun Shah. The grievants were issued with a collective dismissal letter on 5th June, 1989 and the dismissal was effective from 27th May, 1989.

The claimants took up the matter and a series of tripartite meetings were held with the respondents and the Ministry of Labour officials, but unfortunately, the parties could not resolve the dispute. The parties therefore signed Form "A" and now the matter is before the court for consideration.

As a result of an incident at the respondents' factory on 27th May, 1989, a Saturday, the respondents dismissed all their employees totalling 103 and refused them entry to work on 29th May, 1989, a Monday, as the workers found armed guards at the factory gate on Monday when they reported for duty.

It should be noted that police had been summoned to the factory on 27th May, 1989 and that from Monday 29th May, 1989 onwards the claimants and the Ministry of Labour officials were actively involved in resolving this dispute.

On 5th June, 1989, the respondents indicated their willingness at a meeting in a labour officer's office that all workers except the sixteen employees who are the principal grievants in this dispute should resume work. The respondents issued the appropriate notices and letters in the next two days in conformity with their offer. All the aforesaid sixteen employees received individual letters of dismissal. No worker, however, resumed duty and the Ministry of Labour's efforts to resolve the dispute having failed the matter was referred to the Industrial Court on 5th July, 1989.

The court gave this dispute a priority hearing and the parties appeared before it for hearing on 31st July, 1989. At the commencement of the hearing at the court's advice and order, 82 employees resumed work on 2nd August, 1989 subject to normal discipline and were to achieve production targets they achieved in 1987.

As a result of the aforesaid court directive which the parties accepted the remaining issues in dispute now are:

- (a) Payment of wages of 103 (87 plus 16) employees for the period between 27th May, 1989 to 5th June, 1989 inclusive.
- (b) Payment of wages of 82 employees between 6th June, 1989 and 1st August, 1989 inclusive.
- (c) Dismissal of the 16 employees.

The court will deal with the issue of the dismissal of the 16 employees first. The court has carefully considered the evidence given by all the witnesses both for the claimants and the respondents and finds that on 27th May, 1989 the respondents' director, Arun Shah, was subjected to mob violence by the respondents' employees as a result of Mr. Kanyuku's dismissal as Mr. Kanyuku had failed to achieve the desired target of production on his machine for which he had previously been warned.

All the workers in the country known that if any worker is wrongfully dismissed he has a recourse to the Industrial Court through his trade union and the Ministry of Labour. There is no reason at all for any worker or a mob of workers to resort to violence on matters of employer-employee relationship.

In this case the court is satisfied that the workers used Mr. Kanyuku's dismissal as an excuse to get at the director and for that purpose they all acted in concert in beating up the director who suffered a serious assault at the hands of his employees.

The court finds that each of the 16 employees took active part in one way or another in beating up the director and they were all properly identified by witnesses who saw them attacking the director.

It is a great shame indeed that these workers did not value their employment when thousands of young men are looking for jobs. The brutal assault on the director is inexcusable and the court cannot allow the workers to resort to mob justice in the factories. This is a trend which has to be curbed and the court would like to warn that such workers will get no sympathy from the court when they commit such acts of gross misconduct either singly or as a mob.

The court finds that these 16 employees deserved summary dismissal and the court upholds the respondent's action in that and all the claims made on behalf of these sixteen employees are dismissed.

On the issue of the payment of wages 103 employees for the period between 27th May, 1989 to 5th June 1989, the court finds that they are not entitled to be paid any wages for this period.

As far as payment of wages of 82 employees between 6th June, 1989 and 1st August, 1989 is concerned, the court awards keeping in view the background of this dispute that these workers should get only a quarter of their wages for this period when they stayed out of work until the court ordered them to resume duty and the court so awards.

Dated the 10th July, 1990.

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE NO. 5 OF 1990

Parties:

Kenya Union of Employees of Voluntary Associations,
Trade Unions and Allied Organizations
and

Union of Posts and Telecommunications Employees (Kenya)
Issue in dispute:

Dismissal of Petro Owinyo Ombambo.

THE Kenya Union of Employees of Voluntary Associations, Trade Unions and Allied Organizations shall hereinafter be referred to as the claimants and the Union of Posts and Telecommunications Employees (Kenya) shall hereinafter be referred to as the respondents.

2. The dispute was listed for mention on 9th April, 1990, but on this date the respondents informed the court that they did not wish to file a memorandum to the dispute as they were negotiating a settlement with the claimants. The court therefore ordered that if the parties failed to reach a settlement, the respondents should submit their memorandum on or before 25th June, 1990, and fixed the dispute for hearing on 2nd July, 1990.

However, the respondents neither filed their memorandum to the dispute nor attended the court on 2nd July, 1990. The dispute was therefore listed for further mention on 9th July, 1990.

On 9th July, 1990, the parties were able to reach a settlement on the matter and requested the court to make an award by consent in respect of the estate of the late grievant.

AWARD

3. The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 21st July, 1987, and duly signed by the parties was received by the court on 23rd January, 1990, together with the statutory certificates signed by the Minister for Labour and the Labour Commissioner.

By consent of the parties the court awards that the respondents should pay to the estate of the late grievant KSh. 4,288.45, in full and final settlement of this matter.

Dated the 9th July, 1990.

CHARLES P. CHEMMUTTUT,
Judge.

GAZETTE NOTICE No. 3563

THE TRADE MARKS ACT

(Cap. 506)

NOTICE is given that any person who has grounds of opposition to the registration of any of the trade marks advertised herein according to the classes may, within sixty (60) days from the date of this Gazette, lodge notice of opposition on form TM. No. 6 (in duplicate) together with a fee of KSh. 120.

Notice is also given that official objection will be taken under rule 21 (3) to all applications in which the specification claims all the goods included in any class unless the registrar is satisfied that the claim is justified by the use of the mark which the applicant has made, or intends to make if and when it is registered. Where an applicant considers that a claim in respect of all the goods included in a class can be justified it will save unnecessary delay in examining applications if a claim is filed simultaneously with the application, accompanied in appropriate cases by supporting documents.

The period for lodging notice of opposition may be extended by the registrar as he thinks fit and upon such terms as he may direct. Any request for such extension should be made to the registrar so as to reach him before the expiry of the period allowed.

Formal opposition should not be lodged until after reasonable notice has been given by letter to the applicant for registration so as to afford him an opportunity of withdrawing his application before the expense of preparing the notice of opposition is incurred. Failure to give such notice will be taken into account in considering any application by an opponent for an order for costs if the opposition is uncontested by the applicant.

Where it is stated in the advertisement of the applicant that the mark, upon its registration, is to be limited to certain colours, the colours are, as far as possible, indicated in the accompanying representations of the mark in the usual heraldic manner.

Representations of the marks advertised herein can be seen at the Trade Marks Registry, State Law Office, Nairobi.

Applications for registration in part A of the register are shown with the official number unaccompanied by any letter. Applications for part B are distinguished by the letter B prefixed to the official number.
