THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE NO. 37 OF 1987

Parties:

Kenya Engineering Workers Union
and
Emco Steel Works (K) Ltd.

Issue in dispute:

Demotion of Charles Natili

THE Kenya Engineering Workers Union shall hereinafter be referred to as the claimants and Emco Steel Works (K) Ltd. shall hereinafter be referred to as the respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on 25th January, 1988 and relied on their verbal and written submissions.

AWARD

3. The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 11th September, 1985, duly signed by the parties was received by the court on 11th June, 1987 together with the statutory certificate signed by the Labour Commissioner.

The court has carefully considered all arguments advanced by the parties in this dispute and find that the grievant had served the respondents for a period of nine years as a scrap-yard supervisor while he was still a trade union member. The court also notes the fact that the respondents came to realize the grievant's trade union status in March, 1984 when he was already the assistant general-secretary of the claimants having been elected to that post in 1981.

The court has to determine under these circumstances if Mr. Natili's demotion was justified.

The court cannot overlook the fact that the respondents were quite happy to let the grievant continue as a member of the claimants for a period of nine year during which time he was working as a scrap-yard supervisor. No explanation was given as to why they allowed this state of affairs to exist if it was contrary to their recognition and collective agreements.

The court has also to take cognisance of the developments at tripartite level between COTU (K), F.K.E. and the Government consequent upon the deregistration of the Kenya Management Staff Association. Whereas the recognition agreements have to be amended to cater for the new developments regarding raising the level of trade union representation the facts of present dispute are different.

After a close scrutiny of the wording of the parties recognition and collective agreements and the fact that the respondents allowed the grievant to continue remaining a member of the claimants for nine good years the court has come to the conclusion that the grievant's (who is now the claimants' deputy general-secretary) demotion was totally unjustified and the court awards that his demotion should be quashed and he should be reinstated to his original post of scrap-yard supervisor from the date of his demotion and the respondents should make good all the financial loss he has suffered due to his unjustified demotion including the payment of his personal allowance.

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE NO. 49 OF 1987

Parties:

Kenya Plantation & Agricultural Workers Union
and

Kenya Tea Development Authority

Issue in dispute:

Unlawful dismissal of Mary Wacheke and Patrick Mwangi

THE Kenya Plantation and Agricultural Workers Union shall hereinafter be referred to as the claimants and the Kenya

Tea Development Authority shall hereinafter be referred to as the respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on 19th January, 1988 and relied on their verbal and written submissions.

AWARD

3. The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 18th June, 1986, duly signed by the parties was received by the court on 14th July, 1987, together with the statutory certificates signed by the Minister for Labour and the Labour Commissioner.

The court has carefully considered all aspects of this dispute and notes that the parties did not call any witness to come and confirm their version of evidence. The respondents told the court that Helen Wachira who was an eye witness in Wacheke's case could not be traced because she got married soon after the said incident and was no longer in their employment, and similarly the supervisor who was on duty during Mwangi's incident had retired since then and could not be traced.

The court would like to apply its mind first to the case of the first grievant. In this case there is the fact that Wacheke was found innocent and acquitted by the criminal court.

The court has to determine under these circumstances if Wacheke's termination was wrongful. The court concurs with the Ministry of Labour's finding that Wacheke's services were dispensed with because of a mere suspicion. There is no concrete evidence before the court to find that Wacheke had committed any offence. After careful consideration of all the submissions the court finds that Mary Wacheke has suffered a wrongful dismissal and the court awards that she should be reinstated to her former job with effect from the 1st March, 1988. The court further awards that she should be paid six months salary by way of compensation for the wrongful dismissal she suffered. Her service will be deemed to have continued without a break.

In the case of Patrick Mwangi the court finds that he was negligent and deserved dismissal. The claim for his reinstatement and/or compensation is rejected.

After careful consideration of the parties' submissions and after taking into account the Division of Manpower Planning and Development report, the court awards as follows on each item:

Basic Minimum Wage

The court has carefully considered submissions by the parties on this item and finds the respondents' offer reasonable and so the court rejects the claimants' demand and endorses the respondents' offer.

General Wage Increase

The court awards a general wage increase of 10 per cent for the first year and a further 10 per cent for the second year, based on individual existing salaries. The increase for the second year shall be calculated after the first year wage increase has been added to the employees' salaries.

Leave Travelling Allowance

The court has carefully considered this issue and awards that the employees be entitled to Sh. 250 as leave travelling allowance.

Housing Allowance

The court has carefully considered this issue and, after examining the two proposals put forward by the parties, has found merit in the claimants' demand and has decided to award housing allowance of Sh. 170 per month.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS TO THE KENYA GAZETTE

THE following notes are for the guidance of persons submitting "copy" for inclusion in the Kenya Gazette, Supplement, etc.:

- (1) The Kenya Gazette contains notices of a general nature which do not affect legislation. They are, therefore, submitted to the Government Printer directly.
- (2) Legislative Supplement contains Rules and Regulations which are issued by the Central Government. Because of this they must be submitted to the Government Printer through the office of the Attorney-General.
- (3) Bill Supplement contains Bills which are for introduction in the National Assembly.
- (4) Act Supplement contains Acts passed by the National Assembly.

All "copy" submitted for publication should be prepared on one side of an A4 sheet no matter how small the notice or Act, each page being numbered, and should be typewritten with double spacing. Copy should be clear, legible and contain a minimum of alterations.

Particular attention should be paid to the following points:

- (i) Signature must be clarified by means of rubber-stamping or typing the name of the signer in capital letters.
- (ii) Dates must be correct and filled in where necessary.
- (iii) Care should be taken to ensure that all headings to notices and references to legislation are up to date and conform with the Revised Edition of the Laws of Kenya.

EXTRACT FROM THE CODE OF REGULATIONS, SECTION D—
*Kenya Gazette

"D 41. (1) Communications for the Kenya Gazette should reach the Government Printer not later than 9 a.m., on Friday of the week before publication is desired. The Government Printer will not publish communications received after that hour until the next subsequent issue of the Gazette.

(2) It will facilitate work at the Press if Permanent Secretaries will forward Gazette notices to the Government Printer when ready."

It is emphasized that these notes are for guidance only, but it is requested that persons submitting copy for publication first satisfy themselves that such copy is complete in every respect.
