AWARD

3. The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 16th April, 1984, duly signed by both parties, was received by the court on 13th March, 1985, together with the statutory certificates signed by the Labour Commissioner and the Minister for Labour.

The background of the case is that Jonathan Mwamburi was employed by the respondents on 7th June, 1978, as a welder/filter and at the time he was dismissed on 13th January, 1983, he was earning a salary of KSh. 1,113.75 per month, and he was also the chief shopsteward.

The claimants told the court that Mr. Mwamburi had been a good worker from the beginning until the time he was dismissed by the respondents. The claimants went further to tell the court that their member was victimized because of trade union activities as he was the chief shopsteward. The claimants informed the court that the conspiracy to dismiss Mr. Mwamburi was hatched by the administrative manager, Mr. Kanani, and the works manager, Mr. Inglis. The claimants told the court that the allegations that Mr. Mwamburi had wilfully removed an official company notice from the notice-board was not true, and, therefore, Mr. Mwamburi had nothing to return as ordered by Mr. Inglis. The claimants also complained to the court that their member was not accorded a chance to defend himself. Also the claimants denied on behalf of their member that Mr. Mwamburi had left the workshop without permission or that he showed disrespect and was insolent when he was informed that he had broken the company regulations. The claimants also denied on behalf of their member that he threatened a senior member of the management, Mr. Kanani, the works administration manager.

The claimants called three witnesses and all denied that Mr. Mwamburi had removed the notice from the notice-board and it was their belief that it was Mr. Kanani who had removed the notice simply to put Mr. Mwamburi into trouble. The claimants further informed the court that when Mr. Mwamburi was employed in 1978, he had a Government Trade Test Certificate. They accused the management of ignoring the fact that Mr. Mwamburi was a qualified worker and despite this they continued to underpay him and, therefore, in view of this, their member reserved to be paid arrears accrued for all the period Mr. Mwamburi had worked for the respondents. The claimants ended their submissions by asking the court to order the reinstatement of their member.

The respondents contested the case very strongly by telling the court that Mr. Mwamburi had committed a serious offence and, therefore, he deserved the instant dismissal meted to him by the respondents. The respondents admitted that Mr. Mwamburi was a good worker until the day he committed the offence. The respondents told the court that one of their regulations was that any employee going out or in had to clock and this rule had to be obeyed by all the employees as it was a control measure. The respondents went ahead to tell the court that on 12th January, 1983, Mr. Mwamburi was seen leaving the workshop without clocking out during the tea break and without prior permission from his immediate boss, and when he was confronted by Mr. Kanani to explain his action, Mr. Mwamburi ignored him completely and the matter was then reported to the works manager, Mr. Inglis. The respondents continued to tell the court that Mr. Inglis, the works manager approached Mr. Mwamburi to explain to him the company regulations, but before hearing what Mr. Inglis had to say, he started shouting and waving his arms in anger and completely ignored him. In view of this bad behaviour of Mr. Mwamburi, the works manager decided to write a notice explaining the company regulations so that the employees would be reminded of them regarding leaving of the company premises during working hours. The notice reads as follows:

Notice—All Employees:

Employees please note that the company allows a 10 minutes tea-break in the morning. This is company time and no-one is allowed to leave the premises during this period, unless by permission or clocking out in the usual manner."

The respondents told the court that the above notice was placed on the notice-board at 1. p.m. the same day, 12th January, 1983, and at 1.20 p.m. the works manager, Mr. Inglis was informed that the notice had been removed and when he carried out the investigations, Mr. Mwamburi admitted that he had removed the notice from the notice-board. The respondents informed the court further that Mr. Mwamburi was given an opportunity to replace the notice by 1.30 p.m. and no action would be taken against him, and this was communicated to him by Mr. Inglis in the presence of the assistant shopsteward; and despite this opportunity Mr. Mwamburi did not replace the notice and subsequently he was suspended and dismissed.

The respondents added that before Mr. Mwamburi left the workshop he went through the offices threatening Mr. Kanani and this incident was witnessed by Mr. Jackson Mutitu, the foreman, and Mr. Stephen Kariuki, the office clerk, and Mr. Mwamburi had to leave the office when told that the police would be called if he continued with his threats. The respondents ended their submissions by telling the court that the suggestion by the claimants that Mr. Mwamburi was underpaid should be rejected by the court as this claim was never reported as an issue in dispute and in view of the fact that Mr. Mwamburi was guilty of gross misconduct, the court should uphold the respondents decision to dismiss him.

The court has taken into account the submissions presented to the court by the two parties as supported by their respective witnesses. The court heard two witnesses from the respondents namely Mr. Kanani and Mr. Inglis, the works manager, and the court was of the opinion that they were reliable witnesses. On the other hand the claimants had called three witnesses to back up their claim, they were Mr. Mwamburi, the grievant, Mr. Paul Owuor and Mr. Maundu Muli and they all insisted that Mr. Mwamburi was victimized because of trade union activities as he was the chief shopsteward. They continued to tell the court that it was Mr. Kanani who had removed the notice from the notice-board simply to implicate Mr. Mwamburi. But the court feels that these three witnesses did not provide convincing evidence that Mr. Mwamburi suffered because of trade union activities. The court also finds that Mr. Mwamburi had threatened Mr. Kanani in his office and he had to abandon such threats when told that the police would be called. It was quite obvious that it was Mr. Mwamburi who had deliberately removed the notice from the notice-board, an act which led to his dismissal. This was supported by the fact that when Mr. Inglis, the works manager, carried out the investigation, and when he questioned Mr. Mwamburi he, Mr. Mwamburi, admitted to have ripped off the notice from the notice-board with reasons best known to himself. The court finds it inconceivable that if Mr. Kanani had removed the notice, the workers would have accepted that quietly. If what they allege was true then there would have been very serious trouble on the spot. This allegation is a mere afterthought concocted by these witnesses.

The findings and recommendations of the Ministry of Labour showed that Mr. Mwamburi had removed the notice in question. Again Mr. Ondong the branch secretary could not have pleaded with the management to pardon Mr. Mwamburi if he was not convinced that their member had committed such a serious offence.

The court has also taken into account the claimants request that Mr. Mwamburi be paid arrears accrued through underpayment. They court rejects this demand of arrears because of underpayment as the issue was not in dispute.

The court after taking into account the fact that Mr. Mwamburi had worked for the respondents for about 4½ years with a good record and that he was a hard-working employee, has decided to change his dismissal to normal termination. It is a great pity that the position of chief shopsteward went to the head of the grievant who proved to be very immature and laboured under the impression that he could behave in any manner he wished. All the other claims made by the claimants on his behalf are rejected.

Dated the 3rd March, 1986.

GAZETTE NOTICE NO. 1124

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT
CAUSE NO. 82 OF 1985

Parties:

Tailors and Textiles Workers Union
and
Dinoo's Tailors and Outfitters

Issues in dispute:

1. Leave Travelling Allowance.
2. House Allowance.
3. Wages.

THE Tailors and Textiles Workers' Union shall hereinafter be referred to as the claimants and Dinoo's Tailors and Outfitters shall hereinafter be referred to as the respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on 18th February, 1986, and relied on their written and verbal submissions.

AWARD

3. The Notification of Dispute Form "A", dated 6th May, 1985, duly signed by the parties was received by the court on 6th August, 1985, together with the statutory certificate signed by the Labour Commissioner.

The respondents comprise of a small family tailoring concern, currently employing a total of 9 workers out of which six (6) are unionizable. The parties have had a loose collective bargaining agreement with the respondents dating back to 1979 when a trade dispute was reported under Cause No. 70 of 1979, but nothing much happened thereafter. As a result, no wages revision took place since then. The only known revision in wages have occurred after the government had announced the revised minimum wage rates. So the respondents' employees have not benefited from any negotiated collective agreement since 1979.

The claimants have, all along, pressed the respondents to join the Garment Manufacturers Mass Production Group of F.K.E. in order to better their members terms and conditions of service, but, this move has been vigorously resisted by the respondents purely on economic reasons. However, the respondents have stressed that they have not refused to conclude a collective agreement with the claimants, it is simply that they cannot match those terms offered by the giant Garment Manufacturers Mass Production Group which the claimants want them to join regardless of their size and the market forces which are completely beyond their control.

The claimants have argued that the respondents have selected customers mainly of European origin hence they are enjoying a special market which safely places them in line with the mass production group. This assertion, the respondents have firmly refuted.

The court in consideration of the arguments advanced by the claimants demanding that the respondents be directed to join the Garment Manufacturers Mass Production Group cannot find any justification in putting a small concern such as the respondents in line with the groups' terms and conditions of service. Hence the claimants demand in this respect must fail.

The court has further noted that the respondents have pleaded inability to pay the Mass Group wages, however, it is the court's view, that while sympathizing with the respondents' business size, the workers are entitled to some compensation for the rising cost of living. The court further appreciates that due to prevailing economic hardship in the respondents concern, workers will not be fully compensated. However, the court has in this regard been guided by the workers' rights under the wages guidelines, at the same time taking into account the respondents' ability to pay under the prevailing economic hardship and cut throat competition they have to face.

Under these circumstances the court proceeds to make the following award on the issues in dispute:

1. Leave Travelling Allowance:

The claimants have demanded KSh. 240 to be paid to each employee when proceeding on leave. The respondents have in turn come up with an offer of KSh. 150. The court in consideration of these offers awards KSh. 175 with effect from 1st October, 1985.

2. House Allowance:

The claimants have demanded KSh. 210 to be paid to the employees not housed. The respondents have offered 15 per cent of the current wage as housing. The court having examined the parties' offers, awards a flat rate of KSh. 175 per month with effect from 1st October, 1984, for two years.

3. Wages:

The court awards a wage increase of 20 per cent on the workers' wages as at 30th September, 1984, with effect from 1st October, 1984.

The court awards a further 10 per cent wage increase with effect from 1st October, 1985, on the workers' wages as at 30th September, 1985.

Dated the 28th February, 1986.

THE INDUSTRIAL TRAINING ACT
(Cap. 237)

NOTICE TO EMPLOYERS

All registered training levy contributors, namely employers, are reminded that those who have not paid their training levy as at when it is due are liable to prosecution under the Act. Every effort should, therefore, be made to pay such training levy so as to avoid penalty and any possible court action that may be preferred against the defaulting employers.

Any employer who has not registered with the Directorate of Industrial Training in accordance with the above-named Act, is, therefore, requested to do so immediately by writing to the director for the necessary registration forms, as failure to register as such is an offence punishable under the Act.

GAZETTE NOTICE No. 1126

THE TRADE MARKS ACT

(Cap. 506)

NOTICE is given that any person who has grounds of opposition to the registration of any of the trade marks advertised herein according to the classes may, within sixty (60) days from the date of this gazette, lodge notice of opposition on Form TM. No. 6 (in duplicate) together with a fee of KSh. 50.

Notice is also given that official objection will be taken under rule 21 (3) to all applications in which the specification claims all the goods included in any class unless the registrar is satisfied that the claim is justified by the use of the mark which the applicant has made, or intends to make if and when it is registered. Where an applicant considers that a claim in respect of all the goods included in a class can be justified it will save unnecessary delay in examining applications if a claim is filed simultaneously with the application, accompanied in appropriate cases by supporting documents.

The period for lodging notice of opposition may be extended by the registrar as he thinks fit and upon such terms as he may direct. Any request for such extension should be made to the registrar so as to reach him before the expiry of the period allowed.

Formal opposition should not be lodged until after reasonable notice has been given by letter to the applicant for registration so as to afford him any opportunity of withdrawing his application before the expense of preparing the notice of opposition is incurred. Failure to give such notice will be taken into account in considering any application by an opponent for an order for costs if the opposition is uncontested by the applicant.

Where it is stated in the advertisement of the applicant that the mark, upon its registration is to be limited to certain colours, the colours are, as far as possible, indicated in the accompanying representations of the mark in the usual heraldic manner.

Representations of the marks advertised herein can be seen at the Trade Marks Registry, State Law Office, Nairobi.

Applications for registration in part A of the register are shown with the official number unaccompanied by any letter. Application for part B are distinguished by the letter B prefixed to the official number.

The nine applications appearing hereunder are proceeding in the name of ELIANTO KENYA LIMITED, a limited liability company organized and existing under the laws of Kenya manufacturers and merchants, of P.O. Box 7333, Nakuru, and c/o Messrs. Hamilton Harrison & Mathews, advocates, P.O. Box 30333, Nairobi.

THE NAIROBI CITY COMMISSION

RATES FOR 1986

PURSUANT to the provisions of sections 15 (1) and 16 (3) of the Rating Act, notice is given that:

The City Commission, with the approval of the Minister for Local Government, has levied the under-mentioned rates for 1986. These became due on 1st January, 1986, and are payable at City Hall, Nairobi, by 30th April, 1986. If any rates remain unpaid after 30th April, 1986, interest at the rate of one (1) per cent per month or part thereof will be payable to the City Commission on the amount unpaid.

The rates are a debt to the City Commission and whilst every effort shall be made to deliver a demand note to every rateable owner of the property, failure to receive the same will not be held to absolve the debtor from any liability or penalty for rates remaining unpaid after 30th April, 1986.

	Temporary shops .. 337 50
	(e) For old emergency villages per plot .. 187.00
	Kawangware areas—rates to be charged on plot values as opposed to former fixed rates.

That in compliance with section 16 (3) of the Rating Act, interest shall be charged and become payable at the rate of one (1) per cent per month on any rate levied as aforesaid and remaining unpaid after 30th April, 1986, and for the purpose of this resolution a part of a month shall be reckoned as one month.

Remission of rates, 1986:

Prior to 1965, the City Council of Nairobi gave remission on certain classes of property. Due to changes in legislation, the majority of these received automatic relief from 1965. This relief was continued in 1966, and will be continued for the life of the current valuation roll, provided the use of the property does not change during this time.

Application for remission may, however, still be made for properties which received remission prior to 1965, but did not obtain relief in 1965 or 1966, under the amended legislation. Forms of application may be obtained from City Treasurer's office, City Hall, during normal working hours and must be returned before 30th April, 1986. Applications received after this date will not be considered. Those who have already applied need not apply again.

Dated the 4th March, 1986.

S. J. GETONGIA,
Secretary/Town Clerk,

PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY THE GOVERNMENT PRINTER, NAIROBI

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS TO THE KENYA GAZETTE

THE following notes are for the guidance of persons submitting "copy" for inclusion in the Kenya Gazette, Supplements, etc.:

- (1) The Kenya Gazette contains notices of a general nature which do not affect legislation. They are therefore submitted to the Government Printer directly.
- (2) Legislative Supplement contains Rules and Regulations which are issued by the Central Government. Because of this they must be submitted to the Government Printer through the office of the Attorney-General.
- (3) Bill Supplement contains Bills which are for introduction in the National Assembly.
- (4) Act Supplement contains Acts passed by the National Assembly.

All "copy" submitted for publication should be prepared on one side of an A4 sheet no matter how small the notice or Act, each page being numbered, and should be typewritten with double spacing. Copy should be clear, legible and contain a minimum of alterations.

Particular attention should be paid to the following points:

- (i) Signatures must be clarified by means of rubber-stamping or typing the name of the signer in capital letters.
- (ii) Dates must be correct and filled in where necessary.
- (iii) Care should be taken to ensure that all headings to notices and references to legislation are up to date and conform with the Revised Edition of the Laws of Kenya.

EXTRACT FROM THE CODE OF REGULATIONS, SECTION D—Kenya Gazette

"D.14.(1) Communications for the Kenya Gazette should reach the Government Printer not later than 12 noon, on Tuesday of the week that publication is desired. The Government Printer will not publish communications received after that hour until the next subsequent issue of the Gazette.

(2) It will facilitate work at the Press if Permanent Secretaries will forward Gazette notices to the Government Printer when ready."

It is emphasized that these notes are for guidance only, but it is requested that persons submitting copy for publication first satisfy themselves that such copy is complete in every respect.
