AWARD

The Notification of Dispute, Form "A", dated 24th September, 2003, together with the statutory certificate from the Labour Commissioner under section 14 (9) (e) of the Trade Disputes Act, Cap. 234, laws of Kenya (which is hereinafter referred to as the Act), were received by the Court on 23rd October, 2003. The Union submitted its memorandum on 14th November, 2003, and the Association filed its reply statement on 9th December, 2003. The case was heard on 16th and 19th January, 18 and 24th March, 13th, 19th and 21st April, 17th May and final written memoranda or statements were tendered on 26th May and 8th June, 2004 respectively.

At the commencement of the hearing, the Union dropped issue No. 12, re: Acting Allowance, and the same is dismissed as dropped or withdrawn. Out of the 13 remaining issues, the Union submitted on issues Nos. 1, 3, 4, 5, 8, 9, 11, 13 and 14, while the Association made representation or proposals on issues Nos. 2, 6, 7 and 10 hereinabove.

The Association engages in banking services throughout the country, and employs the following main categories of unionisable employees, who are affected by this dispute—

- Section Heads.
- Check Clerks.
- Clerical Staff.
- Copy Typists.
- Technical Staff.
- Subordinate Staff.

The parties have a valid recognition agreement which was signed on 4th October, 2000 and have also entered into two collective agreements which govern and regulate the terms and conditions of employment of all the unionisable employees, the latest of which was signed on 10th July, 2001, with a re-opener on wages that was concluded and signed by the parties on 26th July, 2002 (Association Anns. 1, 2 and 3). The present dispute arose when the parties embarked on a review or revision of their latest collective agreement. They met at their own level and agreed on all other issues, but recorded a deadlock on the fourteen (14) issues now before the Court for consideration and determination.

In its analysis for the relevant period under consideration in this dispute, the Economic Planning Division (which is hereinafter referred to as the E.P.D.) dealt with or analyzed 7 issues, i.e. Nos. 1, 4, 5, 9, 11, 13 and 14, on 18 banks only which responded to the questionnaire out of the 42 banks, leaving out 6 issues, i.e. Nos. 2, 3, 6, 7 8 and 10, as neither of them is within its ability to interpret, nor are they affected by the Wage Guidelines. These banks are—

- Akiba Bank Limited.
- Bank of Baroda Limited.
- Barclays Bank of Kenya Limited.
- Commercial Bank of Africa Limited.
- Co-operative Bank of Kenya Limited.
- Credit Agricole Indosuez Limited.
- Credit Bank Limited.
- Development Bank Limited.
- Fidelity Commercial Bank Limited.
- First American Bank of Kenya Limited.
- Giro Commercial Bank Limited.
- Habib Bank A.G. Zurich.
- Habib Bank Limited.
- Investments & Mortgages Bank Limited.
- Kenya Commercial Bank Limited.
- National Industrial Credit Bank Limited.
- Paramount Universal Bank Limited.
- Victoria Commercial Bank Limited.

On employment, the E.P.D. report shows that majority of the 18 banks have fewer management staff at the top but many unionisable employees at the bottom; and 7 out of the 18 banks have unionisable employees who make up less than 50% of the total labour force, while 3 of them have over 80% management staff out of the total labour force, whereas 1 of the banks has 92.7% of its employees being in the management. It would, therefore, appear that majority of the banks are reducing unionisable employees and increasing management staff. The E.P.D. report goes on to state that between 2001 and 2002, 9 banks reduced their unionisable employees while 6 of them increased this category of employees. In contrast, 14 banks increased their management staff and only 1 bank reduced them. This means that, on the one hand, the labour cost and the numerical strength of the unionisable employees are reduced while the remaining employees of this category are saddled with increased workload; and on the other hand, the labour cost of the management staff has gone up, but with a poor command structure for the banks. As regards the labour cost and income per head, the E.P.D. report shows a very high differential in incomes and benefits between the management staff and the unionisable employees. In 3 out of the 18 banks, income per head for management staff is less than double, but in the rest of the banks, management staff earn up to 5 times (500%) more than the unionisable employees. In 1 bank, labour cost per head for management staff amount to Kshs.3.3 million per year, compared to Kshs.0.55 million labour cost for unionisable employees per head per year. This translates to Kshs. 275/- and Kshs.46/- per month per head respectively, which is a very high differential on average, and it also means an unequal distribution of the "common cake". In most banks, management staff spend more than double of what they contribute in terms of productivity, while the unionisable employees consume less than 50% of what they add in terms of productivity. The unionisable employees have, however, a high income per head than management staff in the Bank of Baroda Limited, and they also consume more than what they add in terms of productivity.

Turning to the financial position of the 18 banks, the E.P.D. report shows that their business performance was poor in 2001/2002. Out of 40 banks, 7 posted losses in 2001 and 4 also incurred losses in 2002. During the same period, most of the banks experienced declining profits after tax. 27 out of the 40 banks showed that their profits declined by between 1.3% to 518%, while the rest of them, i.e. 13 remaining banks reflected growth in profits of between 9.2% to 152%. In general, however, the E.P.D. report states that the member banks of the Association are able to meet the demands by the Union. But since the dispute covers past period and payment will obviously be made in arrears, there may, therefore, be no ready funds for payment of the additional cost because a large portion of the profits has been paid to the shareholders in dividends.

Furthermore, a new collective agreement, which may require additional funds, is due for negotiation by the parties. Thus, while some banks may comfortably meet the demands, others will have difficulties paying the same as they are already making losses. In the circumstances, caution should be exercised, especially bearing in mind that the E.P.D. report or analysis covers only 42% of all the member banks under consideration.

With the foregoing observations in the E.P.D. report, I now proceed to consider seriatim the thirteen (13) issues before me and award accordingly.

Benefits to Union Members only:

Mr. Kubai for the Union demanded that the following "agency shop" clause be inserted in the parties' collective agreement—

"1A(1) The Agreement concluded shall be for the benefits of members only.

1A(11) The extension of the same benefits shall be on the basis of a charge of KSh. 250 per month for the said member for the duration he/she enjoys that benefit".

In support of the demand, Mr. Kubai submitted that the said "agency shop" clause is in keeping with the freedom of association as enshrined in the country's Constitution and ILO Conventions Nos. 87 and 98; that it promotes good industrial relations, minimizes divide and rule tactics and also not prejudicial to the non-members rights; that the practice is in keeping with the objects of the Union's Constitution and the rules of a club; that the practice obtains in other jurisdictions and it eliminates discrimination at the place of work, and that the same practice is being applied by the Association (Union Apps. I, II and III). On privity of contract, Mr. Kubai submitted that the agreement shall benefit all members of the union who were and still are in employment of the Association's member banks as from 1st March, 2003. He pointed out that this is an in-build right to members and only those who are privy to the contract can lay claim and benefit from that contract; and it is in conformity with the Retirement Benefits Authority Rules. However, he said, if a member or members happens or happen to break the contract before the dispute is concluded, then he or they should be compensated upto the time of departure. After all, the costs such an employee or employees have already been provided for or factored in the accounts of the Association's member banks.

Mr. Namasake for the Association strongly opposed the demand on the ground that it is in conflict with the provisions of the parties Recognition Agreement which was signed on 4th October, 2000, especially Article 7(d) thereof, which states thus—

"7 (a) .....

(b) .....

(c) .....

(d) The Union also undertakes not to victimize any employee of a Bank on account of his/her non-membership of the Union.

(e) .....

He said that the proposition discriminates and infringes on the rights of an individual employees to freely associate, and it does not also promote good industrial relations. Mr. Namasake stated further that the introduction of agency fees amounts to forced recruitment and that the judgment in H.C.C.C. NO. 1398 of 2002 has since been varied and cannot, therefore, form a proper precedent to be relied upon by the Court. As regards privity of contract, Mr. Namasake averred that, as a matter of practice in all past agreement, a concluded agreement will only benefit unionisable employees who are still in employment at the time of registration of the same. In the circumstances, the Union does not have any justification for a change. In any case, the matter did not arise during the parties' negotiations and it should not be canvassed in Court.

For the foregoing reasons, Mr. Namasake urged the Court to reject the demands as untenable.

The E.P.D. report shows that out of the 18 banks analyzed, 8 have 100% union membership, 2 have no single member, while the rest have between 2.8% and 78% membership. Therefore, among the member banks, a large number of unionisable employees are not members of the Union yet they enjoy or benefit from negotiated collective agreements – They are "joy riders".

The "agency shop", like the "closed shop" system, is a delicate subject as it touches upon an individual's right of freedom of association as enshrined under Article 80 of the Kenya Constitution, and any award in favour of agency shop would be tantamount to an interference with the employees' constitutional right. The recognition agreement, especially Article 7 (d) hereinabove, between the parties acknowledges that the Union represent all employees and that it (Union) had undertaken not to victimize any employee employed by any member bank of the Association on account of his/her non-membership of the Union. Clause 2 (a) of Part B. III of the Industrial Relations Charter states that management will discourage the practice of interfering with the rights of employees to enroll or continue as union members. Under article 80 of the Kenya Constitution, it is emphasized that, "except with his own consent no person shall be hindered in the enjoyment of freedom of assembly and association, that is to say his right to assemble freely and associate with other persons and in particular to form or to belong to trade unions or other associations for the protection of his interests." Therefore, if the Court award is withheld, from non-union members, it would be tantamount to victimization of certain employees for not joining the Union and that would be contrary to the recognition agreement between the parties and an interference with an individual's constitutional right to freedom of association (see Cause No. 19 of 1967: Tailors and Textiles Workers' Union and E.A Bag and Cordage Company Limited and Cause No. 10 of 1972: Kenya Union of National Parks Employees and Kenya National Parks).

With the foregoing discussion in view, the demands are rejected.

Terms and Conditions of Service:

The member banks of the Association intend to introduce and operate "Performance Development Programmes" which will peg annual increments in salary to performance. Mr. Namasake averred that presently there is on average of 3% salary increase affected automatically in January and July each year, which the Union ignores completely whenever negotiations are undertaken. Consequently, increases in salaries have become unbearably high and staff costs have also gone up by an average 40% of the operating costs. In the circumstances, and taking into account business needs as a whole, member banks should be allowed to determine the amounts and the due dates of such increments.

Accordingly, Mr. Namasake prayed that the automatic annual salary increments be abolished; and in the alternative, the increments be an element in any negotiated settlement.

Mr. Kubai vigorously opposed the demand on the ground that the 3% automatic annual increment is non-negotiable because it is based on the employees' years of service and experience, and if the demand by the Association is allowed, it would amount to an inequitable treatment of the employees and would also expose them to the mercy of the employers; that the automatic annual increments are an integral part of the sliding scales, otherwise there would be the danger of stagnation of salaries in real terms; that it is not within the jurisdiction of the Court to take away or deprive the employees of this benefit, which has been agreed and implemented for over 4 years and substitute it with a negotiated programme, and that the said performance programme is already catered for under Clauses AB5 and AB10 of Appendix "B" of the parties' collective agreement.

Mr. Kubai, therefore, urged the Court to reject the demand by the Association.

On careful consideration of the parties' submissions on this item, I am firmly convinced that if this demand is allowed the employees will be demotivated and suffer immeasurably in terms of their pay packages. Accordingly I reject the demand.

Sliding Scales:

In the current collective agreement, the ceilings are as follows—

(i) Section Heads	17 years
(ii) Clerical Staff	20 years
(iii) Technical and Subordinate Staff	27 years

Mr. Kubai submitted that, in the absence of openings for automatic promotions to the next grade, the employees stagnate and mark-time at very early ages and this creates frustration and curtails professionalism. In the circumstances, he prayed that the progression scales be made uniform for all grade until retirement.

Mr. Namasake urged the Court to reject the demand on the ground that the Union has side-stepped its original proposal.

The demand by the Union amounts to a plea of elongation of the ceilings and en masse promotion of the unionisable employees through a Court award. The ceilings or bars are meant to boost the employees' morale and encourage self-development, initiative, efficiency and ambition, which attributes are meant to earn the employees promotion within the time scale. Therefore, promotion of employees is a function of the management, and this Court cannot lay down any hard and fast rule in the matter of employees unless unfair labour practice or victimization is established. It is, therefore, not desirable to interfere with the discretion of the management.

The demand is accordingly rejected.

Salary:

The original demand by the Union was 20% across the board, based on the following factors—

Cost of Living	4%
Wage Differentials	10%
Productivity	3%
Profit Sharing	3%

This amounts to 20% for the period 1st March, 2002 to 28th February, 2003. But the Union has since revised its demand downwards to stand at 16.7% across the board.

In response, the Association has offered 4% salary increment across the board, with effect from 1st March, 2003, on the following considerations:

Cost of Living	2.78%
Productivity	0.30%
Total	3.08%

In support of the demand, Mr. Kubai submitted that Wage Guideline 2 allows firm productivity levels achieved during the period under consideration to be a factor for additional wage compensation consideration for employees, and part I therefore empowers the Court to take into consideration wage differential with a view to reducing wide income differentials. He pointed out that in practice some member banks share a portion of the profit earned during the financial year ending 31st December with the employees, and since the practice is not entrenched in the collective bargaining agreement, it is prudent to make it mandatory and also be taken into consideration in order to remove the elements of discrimination in the industry. Mr. Kubai asserted that, although the last offer by the Association is 4% across the board, one of its member banks awarded the unionisable employees 5% wage increase with the promise to pay the difference when the matter is determined.

Mr. Namasake argued that the offer of 4% has been rounded up for the benefit of the employees. He said that the cost of living for the period, which was based on statistical data from Central Bureau of Statistics, is 3.7%, and since the industry is in the higher income bracket, the Association allowed compensation at 75%. Furthermore, the productivity figure for the industry is 0.90%, which is rounded upwards to 1%, and when compensation at 30% is allowed, a productivity of 70% is attributed to management and highly computerized technology. In the circumstances, Mr. Namasake stated that the demand by the Union is exaggerated because compensation should not be at 100% as cost of living, while productivity should not be 3%. In any case, there is wage differential to the magnitude demanded and the employees should be satisfied with the salaries paid to them for work done.

According to the E.P.D. report, the factors which have been used by the parties for their demands and offers for enhanced salaries include cost of living, wage differential, productivity and profit sharing. In its analysis the E.P.D. ignored using the formula of profit sharing because income generated from any undertaking is shared among three major beneficiaries, namely: wages or salaries, e.t.c, Government in terms of taxes and owners or shareholders in terms of dividends. The E.P.D. report goes on to state that "It is therefore not appropriate for workers to request a share of profit when they have already been paid to produce it. Allowing this would amount to double compensation. However, where profit growth exceeds expectation and is attributable to workers effort individual banks have an option of giving a bonus to its workers as a token of appreciation." On cost of living, the E.P.D. established that for the period under consideration it arose by 3.7% for the upper income group under which all bank employees fall. As regards productivity, the E.P.D. report reveals that changes were negative for 15 out of 18 member banks. It showed that only 3 out of 18 member banks had positive productivity growth, ranging from 1.5% to 57.4%, which in essence negates the justification for productivity increase. Adverting to wage differential, E.P.D. was unable to determine the permissible level of compensation. Therefore, if the demand by the Union is allowed, an additional cost equivalent to between 3% and 28% of the banks' profits would be required for salary increment, whereas the offer by the Association would take between 0.7% and 6.7% of the banks' profits; and adoption of the Wage Guidelines entitlement would cost between 0.6% and 65.7% of the banks' profits. This being the case, 17 out of the 18 banks analyzed could comfortably afford to pay without constraint, but I could not because it is making losses.

My discussion and observations on this issue in consolidated Causes Nos. 26, 32 and 38 of 1995 and Cause No. 50 of 1997, between the same parties herein are still relevant today and apply to this dispute too, and I wish to reiterate my observation at page 45 in the consolidated disputes—

"In a matter of this nature, it is almost impossible to attain any degree of exactitude, and certain amount of guess has to be hazarded in adjusting the inter-play of a variety of diverse factors".

In Cause No. 50 of 1997, I also referred to Cause No. 28 of 1997: Kenya Union of Commercial Food and Allied Workers V. Kenya Wine Agencies Limited and International Distillers Kenya Limited: In which I observed at page 17 as follows:

"The fixation of wage structure is, therefore, among most difficult tasks that industrial adjudication has to tackle. On the one hand, not only the demands of social justice but also the claims of national economy require that attempts should be made to secure to the employees a fair share of the income which they help to produce; on the other hand, care has to be taken that the attempt that fair distribution does not tend to dry up the source of the income itself because unreasonable inroads on the profits of the company might drive capital away from fruitful employment and even affect prejudicially capital formation itself".

I proceeded to observe in Cause No. 50 of 1997, at page 13 as hereunder—

"Therefore, the inter-relationship between the employees' efforts and the company's achievement of its corporate goals must not be overlooked. No company can hope to progress without the effective efforts of its employees and good remuneration contributes greatly towards that achievement. On the other hand, employees cannot obtain financial rewards and job satisfaction unless the company achieves its objectives. The reconciliation of these opposing interests in the workplace constitutes a challenge to modern management"

I went on to observe that the dilemma is summed up thus by Milton L. Rock in his Book: "Handbook of Wage and Salary Administration", Chapter 17, page 44, as follows—

"If pay takes a disproportionate share of profits, employees may be content with their gains temporarily, but the imbalance can lead to the failure of the company. Similarly, low pay rates allow higher company profits temporarily, but do not attract or retain competent personnel. The result is performance mediocrity and its possible consequences, company instability and deterioration".

Keeping in view the aforementioned observations and taking into consideration the parties' respective submissions, re: demand and offer, E.P.D. unsatisfactory report and the settled industrial principles on this matter, I am of the opinion that 15% wage increase across the board will meet the ends of justice, and I so award and order.

House Allowance:

According to the Union, the current rates of house allowance under Clauses AB1(ii), AB2 (ii), AB3 (ii), AB8 (ii) and AB9 (ii) are as follows:

Section Heads	KSh. 2,893
Check Clerks	KSh. 2,355

Clerical Staff and Copy Typists	KSh. 2,321
Technical Staff	KSh. 1,632
Subordinate Staff	KSh. 1,531

Mr. Kubai submitted that the employees should live in middle and upper class estates whose monthly market rents range between KSh. 10,000 and KSh. 25,000 and KSh. 14,000 and KSh. 35,000 for 2-bedroomed and 3-bedroomed houses respectively. He, therefore, prayed that all unionisable employees be accorded a house allowance at the rate of half of their basic salary for each and every employee across the board, and the only reasonable house allowance would be at 45% of the basic salary of each employee per month.

Mr. Namasake submitted that the concept of paying a percentage of basic pay as a house allowance is not acceptable as it is not affordable. He pointed out that there is no law, which requires an employer to pay 15% of an employee's salary as house allowance. But, he said, in line with the past negotiated settlements, the member banks of the Association prepared to pay 4% increase on the current house allowance for all categories of employees. Mr. Namasake, therefore prayed that the Court award 4% increase on the current house allowance in terms of the collective agreement rates.

The E.P.D. report shows that the cost of living rose by 3.7% over the period under consideration, and housing element could be compensated by a factor of 1.87%.

In my view, house allowance is a very important element of an employee's working life, particularly now when the rates of house rents have appreciably gone up. In Cause No. 96 of 2000: Kenya Union of Commercial Food and Allied Workers V. Queensway Properties Limited, I observed at page 11 thereof that : "It is a fact that decent and reasonable living accommodation is scarce and unaffordable, particularly in urban areas and landlords have also not been slow in exploiting the situation to the disadvantage of the public, especially employees of low income wage or earning" (see also Cause No. 38 of 1997: Tailors and Textiles Workers' Union V. Garment Manufacturers Mass Production Group and Cause No. 96 of 1998: Kenya Shoe and Leather Workers' Union V. Leather Industries of Kenya Limited). Section 9 of the Employment Act, Cap. 226, Laws of Kenya, provides, inter alia, that—

"Every employer shall at all times, at his own expense, provide reasonable housing accommodation to each of his employees either at or near to the place of employment or shall pay to the employee such sufficient sum, as rent, in addition to his wages or salary, as will enable the employee obtain reasonable accommodation..."

On careful consideration of the submissions by the parties on this issue and keeping in view Wage Guideline 2(ii) and (iv) and the above legal obligations imposed upon every employer, I am of the opinion that the Union's demand of 45% increase on the basic salary is unreasonably high and the Association's offer of 4% is unacceptable. In my considered judgement, 10% increase on this item is fairly adequate for now, and I award accordingly.

Incremental Dates:

Mr. Namasake submitted that employees in the banking industry receive on average a 3% automatic salary increase in January for those who were employed before 30th June and in July for those who were employed after 30th June. Therefore, the increases are in-built in the scales and yet when negotiations are conducted the increases are not taken into account although they constitute a significant cost element.

Mr. Namasake, therefore, prayed that the Court should recognize annual salary increases as an integral part of any negotiated salary increments and a component in percentage increases.

Mr. Kubai submitted that the demand would introduce a general statement of facts, which cannot be operationalized. He, therefore, prayed that the demand be rejected.

The demand is vague, and it is hereby rejected.

Efficiency Bars:

On this issue, Mr. Namasake urged the Court to award that the crossing of efficiency bar should be by management assessment, based on performance of the individual employees.

Mr. Kubai prayed that the demand be rejected because it is meant to introduce an element of arbitration and interfere with the custom and practice of over 40 years of the parties' relationship.

I do not see the relevance of this demand, and as such it is rejected.

Local Leave Days:

The Union demand that all the unionisable employees be accorded uniform local leave of 30 days per annum.

The Association urged the Court to maintain status quo.

The demand is untenable and it is rejected.

Local Leave Allowance:

The current rates are as follows:—

	KSh.
(i) Section Heads	3,437 per annum
(ii) Check Clerks	3,313 per annum
(iii) Clerical Staff/Copy Typist: up to 10 years service	2,908 per annum
10 years service and over	3,285 per annum
(iv) Technical and Subordinate Staff: up to 5 years service	1,537 per annum
5 years service and over	1,610 per annum

The Union demand that all union members be paid one (1) month's basic salary as leave allowance annually.

In support of the demand, Mr. Kubai submitted that the local leave allowance is meant to provide for costs of rest, comfort, travel and other incidentals to an employee and his immediate family members for the full duration of the earned leave days. He stated that the current provisions cannot meet all the expenses envisaged for that purpose and cannot compare favourably with the allowances accorded senior management staff in the banking sector and also other industries. Mr. Kubai, therefore, urged the Court to bear in mind that adequate leave allowance and leave days are a panacea against stress, fatigue and will help to promote productivity.

The Association has offered to increase the existing allowances by 4% in line with past practice for negotiations where increments are based on current collective agreement figures. Mr. Namasake submitted that every employee has time enough to plan when to avail his/her leave and costs associated with it. He asserted that the allowance is over and above the high salaries already enjoyed by the employees, and as such the proposition to pay a month's basic salary is not affordable.

The E.P.D. has established that the demand by the Union of one (1) month's pay per year would mean an additional cost, equal to between 1.3% and 9% of the banks' profits, while, on the other hand, the offer by the Association would mean an additional cost equal to between 0.004% and 0.05%.

Unfortunately, the E.P.D. report does not show any fares of various destinations; but as I have stated in my numerous awards before, local leave allowance is personal to the employee himself/herself and the demand for inclusion of his/her family members is un-called for. However, on careful consideration of the demand by the Union vis-à-vis the offer by the Association, I am of the view that an improvement of the offer of 4% by the Association on the current rates by a further 3%, to make it 7% across the board, will meet the ends of justice, and I so award.

Staggering of Hours of Work:

The Association has urged the Court to award the following new clause in the parties' collective agreement—

"Where possible and in agreement with the employer, an employee may adopt flexible working hours. Where flexible working hours is adopted the requirement to pay overtime for work after 6.00 p.m. during the week or for hours worked on Saturday after 2.30 p.m. shall not apply. Flexible hours shall not be spread into Sundays and public holidays".

In support of the demand, Mr. Namasake submitted that the current provision in the parties' collective agreement allows for staggering of hours at the initiative of the employer; but the provision being sought is to enable an employee to take the initiative and arrange with the employer hours of work which may suit him/her. He said that the proviso is that the total number of hours worked per day or week remains as provided for in the parties' collective agreement; and flexibility in providing for such an arrangement in the collective agreement is beneficial both to the employee and the employer and will assist greatly in responding to business dictates, customer taste, as well as employee's welfare.

Mr. Kubai strongly opposed the demand on the following grounds—

- (a) that there is already a shift work arrangement in the current collective agreement under Clause AB22 which takes care of flexible working hours;
- (b) that the staggering hours of work was introduced not to extend beyond 6.00 p.m. on weekends, and the introduction of this proposal would compel employees to extend work into unsocial hours of the night which are already catered for and properly compensated under the shift arrangement;
- (c) that staggering of hours of work was not meant to be for many hours but for an hour and less;
- (d) that it would be chaotic for "each employee to make his/her own arrangement to come to work" because at some stage, employees may be coerced to make request for flexible hours which may effectively take away some overtime entitlements;
- (e) that the proposal of the introduction of the proviso is made in bad faith as it would deny the employees their statutory overtime, and
- (f) that under Clause AB18 of the parties' collective agreement "overtime must be paid and no offs to offset overtime."

Accordingly, Mr. Kubai prayed that the demand be rejected as it will crosscut the shift arrangements already in place and assist employers to deny the employees their rightful overtime.

The proposal by the Association is in accordance with the necessity and common practice of the member banks. However, I would allow the demand provided that the total number of normal working hours per day or per week are not varied or exceeded, and it should not also interfere with the overtime hours of work during the weekends and public holidays.

Allowance for Mobile Staff and Supper Allowance:

The current rates for lunch and supper are KSh. 151 and KSh. 163, and the Union demand a hike to KSh. 300 and KSh. 400 respectively per person per day in view of the fact that a balanced meal at the airport would cost between KSh. 450 and KSh. 500, against the offer by the Association of 4% increase on the current rates in line with past practice where a percentage point is granted on the amounts in the parties' collective agreement.

In its analysis, the E.P.D. established that out of the 18 banks, only one has mobile staff involved in airport services and IT personnel. Thus, the issue of mobile staff affects very few banks. The E.P.D. also found the demand by the Union would amount to about 122% increase in the current rates, which will result in an additional cost for the one bank of about 1% of its profit, while the offer by the Association will cost the bank an additional amount equal to about 0.5% of its profit.

In my considered opinion, the offer of 4% increase made by the Association on this item is adequate and I award accordingly.

Acting Allowance:

As stated at page 3 hereinabove, this item is dismissed as dropped or withdrawn by the Union.

Medical Scheme:

Under Clause AB33, the current rates for the employee, spouse and four (4) children below the age of eighteen (18) years are as follows—

- (a) Section Heads, Clerical Staff and Copy Typists—up to KSh. 36,214 per annum.
- (b) Technical and Subordinate Staff—up to KSh. 27,209 per annum.

The Union demand that these rates be improved as hereunder—

Out-patient	KSh. 50,000
In-patient	KSh. 300,000

In support of the demand, Mr. Kubai submitted that the management staff enjoy limitless medical cover for self, spouse and children, and the demand by the Union is, therefore, in line with section 12 of the Employment Act, Cap. 226, Laws of Kenya. He tabled some documents which purport to show that other comparable concerns pay very generous medical packages, and went on to sample medical treatment thus:—

- (i) Consultations alone range between KSh. 1,000 and KSh. 2,500 per person per visit.
- (ii) (a) Bed charges range between KSh. 1,950 and KSh. 3,950 in the general ward.
(b) In-patient deposit ranges between KSh. 15,000 and KSh. 80,000.
- (iii) (a) Intensive Care Unit (ICU) bed charges range between KSh. 8,000 and KSh. 16,830 per patient per day.
(b) Deposit for I.C.U. ranges between KSh. 25,000 and KSh. 300,000.
- (iv) Prescription charges of medicines range between KSh. 2,000 and KSh. 10,000.
- (v) Government rates for retroviral medical care are KSh. 3,000 per dose per month.
- (vi) Packages of insurance medical schemes outside the collective agreement range as follows:
  - (a) Out-patient—KSh. 50,000 and KSh. 350,000 per annum.
  - (b) In-patient—KSh. 200,000 and KSh. 800,000 per annum.

In reply, Mr. Namasake submitted that the demand by the Union is unrealistic, unacceptable not affordable and should be rejected. He, however, maintained that the Association would like to increase the limits applicable to each category by 4% and thereafter use the new limits to purchase insurances covers where possible in order to cater for the needs of the employees.

The E.P.D. report on this issue shows that different banks run different types of medical schemes for their unionisable employees and management staff under the following arrangements—

- (a) Reimbursements under managed fund.
- (b) Insurance scheme.
- (c) In-house credits.
- (d) Self-fund.
- (e) Cost-sharing (after limits are burst).

The amounts covered range as below—

	Out-patient (KSh.)	In-patient (KSh.)
Unionisable employees	30,000–100,000	50,000–200,000
Management staff	20,000–2,000,000	50,000–unlimited cover

The E.P.D. report reveals further that in the majority of banks, non-unionisable staff consume over 70% of the total expenditure on medical and that a large proportion of employees do not exhaust their medical ceiling. It goes on to reveal that of the 18 banks, 10 had no body that exhausted their medical ceiling, and as for those with incidences of busted medical ceiling, the percentage ranged from 1.8% and 100% of all unionisable employees. On medical expenditure, the E.P.D. report also shows that banks spend between 1.4% and 17.9% of their profits on medical. In the circumstances, the parties' proposal and counter-proposal may not alter the costs very much, especially where insurance premiums are involved, but they may alter arrangements and terms of such covers.

In Cause No. 90 of 1991: Kenya Union of Commercial, Food and Allied workers V. Kenya Bankers (Employers) Association, the Court observed on this issue at page 11 thereof that—

"today medical facilities for the general public are so hopelessly inadequate that any employer who expects good returns for his investment has no option but to ensure that these employees are well and fit for work at all the time"....and that "It will also be to his advantage if an employer becomes a little more liberal with regard to medical benefits, for an ailing employee and his family are a liability rather than an asset."

This observation still holds good today.

Section 12(1) of the Employment Act, Cap. 226, Laws of Kenya, provides that—

"...every employer shall ensure that provision for his employees of proper medicines during illness and (if procurable) medical attendance during serious illness, and shall take all reasonable steps to ensure that the illness is brought to his notice as soon as reasonably practicable after the first occurrence thereof".

On a serious consideration, therefore, I find that the offer by the Association on the current rates is too low and the demand by the Union is a bit too high. The E.P.D. report is also not helpful on this score.

In the circumstances, I feel that an increase of 10% on the current rates of medical relief across the board will be adequate compensation to each of the unionisable employees, including a spouse and four (4) children below the age of eighteen (18) years, for the time being, and I so award.

Owner Occupier House Allowance:

Under Clause AB34 of the parties' collective agreement, all deserving and eligible unionisable employees are entitled to KSh. 7,500 per month of this benefit.

The Union now demand that all deserving and eligible unionisable employees be entitled to this benefit at the rate of 20% of the capital cost, which includes value of the land and the house, spread over twelve (12) months.

In support of the demand, Mr. Kubai submitted that the basis of this entitlement is to cater for the opportunity cost of foregoing the market rent returns on the capital expenditure on houses and land on which the house stands. He said that capital expenditure on housing units ranges between KSh. 800,000 and KSh. 3 million; and given that the prudent rate of return to capital expenditure would be at the rate of 20% per annum, the Union, therefore, demands that this capital expenditure should be recouped in not more than five years. Hence, the ideal situation would mean that the rate of return would require between KSh. 160,000 and KSh. 600,000 per annum; and if the owners of the houses are not restricted by the rules of the Association member banks to live in such houses, they would easily fetch monthly rents ranging between KSh. 20,000 and KSh. 50,000 per month.

On the prevailing situation in the industry, Mr. Kubai pointed out that the cheap loans afforded by the Association member banks to their staff are no longer available, and even for the few banks which do so charge high interest rates and fringe benefits tax ranging between 5% and 8% per month. Since most of the member banks do not give such loans, their employees are, therefore, forced to borrow in the market at the interest rates of between 20% and 30% per annum.

Mr. Namasake vehemently resisted the demand on the ground that the allowance is discriminative, unaffordable and it ought to be phased out. He stated that the Government was the first to introduce this scheme; but after a thorough investigation and research, the same has been phased out for civil servants and other public institutions. Mr. Namasake maintained that it is inequitable to grant employees subsidized loans to acquire housing only for them to demand additional benefits; and in the circumstances, he urged the Court to find that the proposal by the Union is unacceptable and ought to be rejected.

Accordingly, Mr. Namasake prayed that the allowance be frozen at the current level for those employees who are already receiving it and be phased out in due course.

The E.P.D. report shows that banks spend between 0.15% and 12% of their profits on owner-occupier house allowance; and of the 18 banks analyzed, 13 were paying owner-occupier house allowance to a total of 1383 employees, but this number constitutes a very small proportion of the total labour force. However, 5 banks had no single person earning owner-occupier house allowance.

In Cause No. 50 of 1997: Kenya Union of Commercial, Food and Allied Workers V. Kenya Bankers (Employers) Association, I stated at page 19 thereof as follows—

"In my considered opinion, it is the responsibility of a good employer to cater for the housing needs of his employees by enabling them to acquire decent shelter, especially in urban centres where housing accommodation is extremely scarce and expensive. This state of affairs leaves most employees with no alternative but to seek shelter in the ever-mushrooming slums, which are not fit for human habitation. In order to curb or minimize this pathetic situation, the provision of owner-occupier house allowance is necessary; and in fact this is widely recognized and I see no reason why the banking industry should be an exception."

Hence the award of KSh. 7,500 per month owner-occupier house allowance to all the deserving and eligible unionisable employees.

In industrial law an amenity or a benefit, which has been granted to or enjoyed by employees, cannot either be unilaterally frozen or taken away or withdrawn, but it may be enhanced.

On careful consideration of the parties' submissions on this item, it is my humble view that this benefit or amenity be retained, and the current amount of KSh. 7,500 be enhanced by KSh. 2,500, to make it KSh. 10,000 per month. I so award and order accordingly.

While disposing of this award, I would like to say that I disapprove of any one; irrespective of the regard and respect I may have for him or her, to speak about any pending matter in Court. A talk, though it may not be directly to favour a particular party, is against the best traditions of judiciary. To hear is to feel embarrassed. Employees and employers are both entitled to patient hearing and impartial decision, more so the employees. The Industrial Court, with its ideal of industrial peace, is nevertheless bound to apply the law, though it may sometimes go against the employees.

With the foregoing observations, I would award on each issue as above, but the award will not apply retrospectively, except on salary, because I am cognizant of how disruptive to the Association member banks this could be financially.

In coming to the above decisions, I have consulted with and taken into consideration the advice or opinion of both Members of the Court.

Dated, delivered and signed at Nairobi this 25th day of August, 2004.

Judge.
