Gratuity

Job classification.

The court has carefully examined the above three items and finds that they are all new issues that the claimants want incorporated into the parties collective agreement. The court notes that bonuses and the gratuity items are to cost the respondents an additional labour costs of Sh. 5,654,754 for the two years period of the agreement. The court in consideration of the respondents' financial position and the fact that their factory is labour intensive is reluctant to accept the claimants' demands and endanger the workers' future.

The claimants' demands on the two issues of bonus and gratuity are accordingly rejected.

The third issue of including supervisors in the collective agreement needs a thorough examination and investigation. The parties did not go into sufficient details on this issue and this item is deferred till the next round of negotiations.

Housing Allowance

The court has carefully considered the two proposals put forward by the parties and has decided to award a housing allowance of Sh. 200 per month.

Minimum and General Wage Increase

The court has carefully considered submissions by the parties on these two items and awards that the workers should be given wage increase of 8 per cent per year on their individual salaries. The second year increase is to be calculated after adding the first year increase to the salaries.

Effective Date and Duration of Agreement

The court has given careful consideration to the arguments advanced by the parties on this issue and notes that the collective agreement which is subject of this dispute is due to expire in December 1988. It is for the parties to make sure that negotiations leading to collective agreements are not delayed unnecessarily so that payment of heavy arrears as a result of back dating are avoided. If the parties fail to do so then it is at their own risk.

Having made the above observations the court is not inclined to change the pattern of the effective date of 1st January established by the parties since 1965. The court accordingly awards 1st January, 1987, as the effective date and for a duration of two years.

Given in Nairobi on 29th June, 1988.

GAZETTE NOTICE NO. 3085

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE NO. 6 OF 1988

Parties:
Kenya Chemical & Allied Workers Union
and Haco Industries (K) Limited

Issue in dispute:

Termination of L. Gacheroh's Services.

THE Kenya Chemical and Allied Workers' Union shall hereinafter be referred to as the claimants and Haco Industries Limited shall hereinafter be referred to as the respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on 17th May, 1988 and relied on their written and verbal submissions.

AWARD

3. The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 14th August, 1987, duly signed by the parties was received by the court on 12th February, 1988, together with the statutory certificates signed by the Minister for Labour and the Labour Commissoner.

The court notes that the Ministry of Labour's findings and recommendations were that the respondents had lost confidence in the grievant and that the dismissal action taken against him was justified.

This decision was turned down by the claimants and the matter is now before the court for consideration.

After a careful evaluation of the parties submissions the court finds that Mr. Gacheroh had put in seven years of good service from January 1978 up to December 1984 with the respondents. However, after January 1985, the grievant's attitude to his work changed and he became so unreliable and irresponsible to the point that he could lie to the respondents that the customers had failed to pay for their accounts while he had collected the money from them and used the company money for his personal needs. For these irregularities the court is left with very little sympathy for him.

The court accordingly rejects the claimants' demand for his reinstatement but awards that the respondents should pay Mr. Gacheroh three months salary in lieu of notice and full provident fund contributions as they did not dismiss him but terminated his services in accordance with his letter of appointment.

Given in Nairobi on 30th June, 1988.
