Provided that such consent shall not be required for the letting of individual shops, offices and flats.

10. The grantee shall pay to the Commissioner of Lands on demand such sum as the Commissioner may estimate to be the proportionate cost of constructing all roads and drains and sewers serving or adjoining the land and shall on completion of such construction and the ascertainment of the actual proportionate cost either pay (within seven days of demand) or be refunded the amount by which the actual proportionate cost exceeds or falls short of the amount paid as aforesaid.

11. The grantee shall from time to time pay to the Commissioner of Lands on demand such proportion of the cost of maintaining all roads and drains serving or adjoining the land as the Commissioner may assess.

12. Should the Commissioner of Lands at any time require the said roads to be constructed to a higher standard the grantee shall pay to the Commissioner on demand such proportion of the cost of such construction as the Commissioner may assess.

13. The grantee shall pay such rates, taxes, charges, duties, assessments or outgoings of whatever description as may be imposed, charged or assessed by any Government or local authority upon the land or the buildings erected thereon including any contribution or other sum paid by the President in lieu thereof.

GAZETTE NOTICE NO. 1920

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE NO. 11 OF 1970

Parties:—

Tailors and Textiles Workers' Union and

Knitwear Manufacturers' Group of the Federation of Kenya Employers

Issues in dispute:—

1. Wages increase.
2. Duration of the agreement.

1. The Tailors and Textiles Workers' Union shall hereinafter be referred to as the Claimants and the Knitwear Manufacturers' Group of the Federation of Kenya Employers shall hereinafter be referred to as the Respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on the 2nd day of June 1970 and relied on their written and verbal submissions.

AWARD

3. The parties had appeared before the Industrial Court in Cause No. 19/65 when five firms constituted the Respondents. In the present dispute there are four companies only, the Kenya Knitting and Weaving Workers no longer being involved. Subsequently the parties negotiated another agreement which was signed on 30th October 1968 laying down wages and terms and conditions of employment. This agreement expired on 28th February 1970.

The wage structure agreed between the parties with the current rates is as follows:—

| Class | Occupation | Wage rates | Sh. |
|-------|--|-------------------|-----|
| 1 | Turner (by hand or machine), folder, packer, trimmer, ironer, cutter (by hand or machine) | 160 | |
| 2 | Sanitary attendant, messenger, office cleaner, stamper, doorman, layer, general labourer .. | 182 | |
| 3 | Turnboy, watchman, runner/floorman | 190 | |
| 4 | Assistant maintenance artisan | 198 | |
| 5 | Calendar machine operator, winder, knitting machine feeder, boiler attendant, dyre attendant, trainee— for the first six months for the ensuing 12 months thereafter | 180 190 200 | |
| 6 | Sewing machine operator, trainee (up to a maximum of 6 months) Assistant sewing machine operator (for the first 6 months only as an assistant) Thereafter | 170 185 200 | |
| 7 | Cutter to pattern (by hand or machine) | 210 | |
| 8 | Knitting machine attendant trainee— for the first 6 months first year thereafter | 220 255 285 | |
| 9 | Charge hand, telephone/receptionist | 305 | |
| 10 | Store clerk, clerk, salesman | 315 | |
| 11 | Carpenter, painter, mason: with Trade Test Certificate | 315 | |
| 12 | Maintenance artisan, storekeeper, foreman .. | 355 | |
| 13 | Driver | 260 | |
| 14 | Salesman driver | 355 | |

In addition to the above, the workers are paid house allowance based on the statutory rates prevalent at Thika and Nairobi.

The Claimants forwarded their proposals for revising the existing agreement on 19th January 1970 and during the discussions that ensued, it was agreed that 14 items should remain as they were, with slight changes on the other three, leaving only the two items unresolved—the subject matter of the present dispute.

The parties signed the notification of dispute Form A to the Industrial Court on 2nd April 1970.

It is common ground between the parties that the effective date of the new agreement is 1st March 1970. The Claimants had started wage negotiations with the demand of Sh. 100 per month wage increase for all classes of workers and stated that as they are extremely reasonable, they immediately reduced this original demand to Sh. 85 per month and Sh. 95 per month in respect of charge hands, telephonists and receptionists. The argument they gave in respect of their demands were mainly that the Respondents' members had built new factories and had doubled their labour force. There were encouraging signs in the general business activity in the country and produced a newspaper cutting in which a representative of one of the Respondents' members had admitted that the sales showed an upward trend. They asked the Court to note that some of the workers had served the Respondents for nearly 20 years and they were earning the minimum rates only.

The Claimants resisted the Respondents' argument that they had done nothing in respect of those workers who were employed by the Respondents' competitors in Mombasa on the ground that their function was not to assist either the Respondents or the Federation of Kenya Employers in recruiting members for them. In any case they had negotiated an agreement with one Mombasa employer with the result that the wages being paid to these workers were much higher than those of the Respondents.

The Respondents severely criticized the Claimants for having failed to extend the agreement they had with them to all the other firms involved in the knitwear industry in Kenya. This had resulted in a situation where in their industry, which was subject to severe competition, their competitors, mainly in Mombasa, were getting away by paying lower wage rates than their members had to pay.

The Respondents claimed that they had all along underlined their willingness to deal equitably with their members so long as the Claimants maintained their part of the bargain. Despite this unsatisfactory state of affairs the Respondents had stated their willingness to negotiate a general wage increase for their employees as they had taken into account the feelings of their employees. The presence of a trade union does not alter the necessity for the employer to retain harmonious employer/employee relationship within the factory particularly when expensive machinery is involved. The Respondents alleged that the Claimants had failed totally either by design or default over the past four years to pursue an agreed policy.

The Court notes that at present there are certain workers who are on the basic minimum rates while others earn Sh. 17 per month more than them as a result of the last agreement. Further that the Respondents have increased labour force from 426 to 587—an increase of nearly 37 per cent. This is most encouraging and is in accordance with the Government policy. In view of the fact that the making up of knitted garments is a hand operation and therefore labour intensive, it is not unreasonable for the Respondents to demand that the Claimants should take steps to remove unreasonable differentials in costs in order to encourage fair competition. During the hearing there was a divergence of views on the number of workers employed in this industry in Mombasa, with the Respondents claiming that there were 850 workers and the Claimants alleging the figure to be only 132. The Court fails to understand the reason why there should be such a big difference of opinion on this point. The fact remains that the Claimants should take positive steps in this direction as their duty lies equally to those workers also who are earning less than the Respondents' employees.

In arriving at its conclusion the Court has carefully considered all the submissions and the evidence produced during the hearing and the fact that the Kenya firms were now confined to Kenya market only and that they must compete not only with each other but with products from Tanzania and Uganda as well.

The Court finds that the Claimants' demand of Sh. 85 per month wage increase is unrealistic and shows that they had not gone into and studied the economics of this industry at any great length. The Court awards a wage increase of Sh. 17 per month to all workers on their present wages but rules that the basic minimum rates should stay at the same level where they are.

The Court further awards another wage increase of Sh. 15 per month with effect from 1st March 1971 for a period of 12 months.

Given in Nairobi this 29th day of June 1970.

| 5 | Looms menders | 220 |
| 6 | Dresser | 300 |

In this dispute an agreement between the Claimants and the Kisumu Cotton Mills Ltd. was used and referred to extensively by both parties as the Respondents and this firm in Kisumu compete with each other. The Respondents produced the appropriate exhibits to show their products and how similar they were to those of the Kisumu Cotton Mills Ltd. The Respondents argued that the difference in prices in their products was in cents and any increase in their costs would expose them to very unfair competition. The Claimants on the other hand strongly argued that the Respondents had been in business for over 20 years whereas the Kisumu Cotton Mills Ltd. started business only four years ago. The Respondents, however, clarified the situation by stating that Nath Brothers Ltd. had introduced spinning in 1965 and weaving in 1967/68; Sunflag, which was only involved in spinning, introduced their plant in 1967/68.

The Claimants submitted that the cost of living had gone up, the industry was prosperous and that other similar firms paid much higher wages to their workers than the Respondents and quoted the case of Kenya Rayon Mills and Towel Manufacturers—both in Mombasa—which gave a minimum wage of Sh. 220 and Sh. 200 respectively. They also referred to United Textiles which gave a minimum wage of Sh. 217 p.m. consolidated and stated that the Respondents paid the lowest wages in the textile industry.

The Respondents strongly submitted that on average wages payable in Kisumu are Sh. 45 less than those paid by the Respondents which meant that in an intensely competitive market the labour costs in an industry which is labour intensive exceed £2,000 p.m. more for Nath Brothers and Sunflag in excess of £1,500. The core of employment in these industries is the machine operator; in Kisumu the consolidated minimum wage is Sh. 177 whereas the Respondents pay a minimum of Sh. 200 plus a housing clause providing for either free housing or an appropriate housing allowance prescribed by law for the area concerned. The Respondents once again drew the Court's attention to the restrictions on their market and that reverse traffic from the neighbouring countries was not prevented.

The Court is not at all satisfied that the negotiations in this dispute and the one in Cause No. 11/70 were conducted with any seriousness as both the meetings finished within less than an hour and the Respondents' representatives are alleged to have laughed at the demands made by the Claimants. The reason for this is obvious and that is that the Claimants' original demands, and then as subsequently modified, were very unrealistic and the parties never came within a talking distance. Here again there is evidence that the Respondents have created new jobs and had given a wage increase of Sh. 17 with effect from 1st August 1968. The Court appreciates this as the Respondents are local companies employing local capital, and the extension and the creation of new jobs is what the Government requires of the private industry. In view of this encouraging trend the Court cannot make an award anywhere near the figure which has been demanded by the Claimants and, after a careful consideration of all the submissions and the evidence produced, the Court awards a monthly increase of Sh. 17 to all workers currently in employment with effect from 1st March 1970, on their present wages. The Court rules that the minimum rates for the various grades should remain as they are.

The Court further awards a wage increase of Sh. 15 p.m. with effect from 1st March 1971, for a period of 12 months.

GAZETTE NOTICE NO. 1924

THE TRADE MARKS ACT

(Cap. 506)

NOTICE is hereby given that any person who has grounds of opposition to the registration of any of the trade marks advertised herein according to the classes may, within 60 days from the date of this Gazette, lodge notice of opposition on Form T.M. No. 6 (in duplicate) together with a fee of Sh. 50.

Notice is also hereby given that official objection will be taken under rule 21 (3) to all applications in which the specification claims all the goods included in any class unless the Registrar is satisfied that the claim is justified by the use of the mark which the applicant has made, or intends to make, if and when it is registered. Where an applicant considers that a claim in respect of all the goods included in a class can be justified it will save unnecessary delay in examining applications if a claim is filed simultaneously with the application, accompanied in appropriate cases by supporting documents.

The period for lodging notice of opposition may be extended by the Registrar as he thinks fit and upon such terms as he may direct. Any request for such extension should be made to the Registrar so as to reach him before the expiry of the period allowed.

Formal opposition should not be lodged until after reasonable notice has been given by letter to the applicant for registration so as to afford him any opportunity of withdrawing his application before the expense of preparing the notice of opposition is incurred. Failure to give such notice will be taken into account in considering any application by an opponent for an order for costs if the opposition is uncontested by the applicant.

Where it is stated in the advertisement of the applicant that the mark, upon its registration, is to be limited to certain colours, the colours are, as far as possible, indicated in the accompanying representations of the mark in the usual heraldic manner.

Representations of the marks advertised herein can be seen at the Trade Marks Registry, State Law Offices, Nairobi.
