GAZETTE NOTICE No. 2495

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT*CAUSE NO. 32 OF 1982*Parties:

Kenya Management Staff Association
and Nzoia Sugar Co. Limited

Issue in dispute:

Wrongful termination of Mrs. R. B. Magina.

1. The Kenya Management Staff Association shall hereinafter be referred to as Claimants and Nzoia Sugar Co. Ltd. shall hereinafter be referred to as Respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on 5th and 6th July, 1982 and in addition to relying on their written and verbal submissions called the following witnesses to give evidence on oath:

Claimants.—R. B. Magina.

Respondents.—G. J. Kang'ethe.

AWARD

3. The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 18th March, 1980, duly signed by the parties was received by the Court on 3rd May, 1982, together with the statutory certificates signed by the Minister for Labour and the Labour Commissioner.

Mrs. R. B. Magina started working for the Respondents on 24th November, 1977, as a secretary and her services were terminated on 2nd July, 1979. She was earning 3,385 per month when her services were terminated.

Mrs. Magina was first the project manager's and then the general manager's secretary until about 3rd October, 1978, when she was transferred to work for the general manager's personal assistant Mr. G. J. Kang'ethe. She however did not work for him for more than two months because she went on leave. It is not disputed that while she was on leave during which she was to get married under the customary law, she received a telegram reading:

"Report at Estate Offices on 1st December, 1978".

This was the only intimation that Mrs. Magina received of her transfer. At the time she was expecting and had regular appointments at the Aga Khan Hospital, Nairobi on 16th November, 1978, and 14th December, 1978. On the hospital card that was produced she had other two appointments also on 11th January, 1979, and 25th January, 1979.

In an issue of Nairobi Times dated 12th November, 1978, an controversial article written by Magina Magina appeared under the heading of, "Crisis Looms over Nzoia Sugar Firm". At that time in the Respondents records Mrs. Magina was stated to be single although it later transpired that she married Mr. Magina. It was put forward by the Claimants that she was victimised by being transferred to Bungoma because of this article as it was suspected that she had given inside information to Mr. Magina. Mr. Kang'ethe denied this allegation by saying that all their workers knew that they had all to go to Bungoma eventually and that Nairobi offices were only transitory.

Despite the most unusual circumstances and the manner in which Mrs. Magina was transferred the fact remains that she did report at Bungoma after 25th January, 1979, having pleaded against the transfer. Soon after reporting at Bungoma she applied for maternity leave from 26th February to 23rd May, 1979.

It is on record that on 7th May, 1979, she again wrote to the Management requesting that her transfer be reconsidered. The Respondents replied to this letter on 29th May, 1979, as follows:

"Please note that you were required to report back for duty on the 23rd May, 1979, but up to date you have not shown up. Since your absence from duty contravenes Company Regulations you are accordingly requested to show cause why appropriate disciplinary action cannot be preferred against you. Please note that at the expiry of 6 days of an unauthorized leave of absence appropriate steps will be taken to regard you as having deserted duty."

Your request that you be transferred back to Nairobi is not approved in that there is no vacancy against which you can be held."

By 2nd July, 1979, Mrs. Magina had still not reported on duty at Bungoma and the Respondents terminated her services on that date but with effect from 23rd April, 1979, the day her maternity leave expired. This is rather surprising because all along the Respondents have conceded that she was on maternity leave from 26th February to 23rd May, 1979.

In this rather unfortunate case the Respondents transferred this employee quite abruptly through a telegram while she was on leave and was expecting. Obviously they did not take her personal circumstances into account. On the other hand Mrs. Magina also from December, 1978—did not really do any work for the Respondents because she was either on local leave or maternity leave most of the time. Even on the expiry of the maternity leave she chose not to resume duty.

In these circumstances the Court has come to the conclusion that it would be just and proper for the Respondents to pay Mrs. Magina up to the end of July, 1979, along with other terminal benefits and the Court so awards. The terminal benefits to which she is entitled are leave earned if any for which she has not been paid and her benefits under the pension scheme in accordance with the rules of the scheme.

Given in Nairobi the 25th August, 1982.

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE No. 36 OF 1982

Parties:

Kenya Management Staff Association
and
D.T. Dobie (K) Ltd.

Issue in dispute:

Termination of Mr. Joseph Olando.

1. The Kenya Management Staff Association shall hereinafter be referred to as the Claimants and the D.T. Dobie (K) Ltd. shall hereinafter be referred to as the Respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on 22nd and 27th July, 1982, and in addition to relying on their written and verbal submissions called the following witnesses to give evidence on oath:

Claimants.—J. Olando.

Respondents.—A. Kitonga and J. Kibuba.

AWARD

3. The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 14th July, 1981, duly signed by the parties was received by the Court on 3rd May, 1982, together with the statutory certificates signed by the Minister for Labour and the Labour Commissioner.

The grievant Mr. J. Olando used to work for Respondents as a foreman in the spray painting workshop. His services were terminated on 15th November, 1979. He was told that he would be paid for all the days he had worked up to 15th November, 1979, one month's pay in lieu of notice and leave which he had earned on prorata basis.

The Claimants took up the matter of his termination with the Ministry of Labour and an investigation was carried out. The Ministry's findings and recommendation were as follows:

"Investigations revealed that Mr. Olando admitted that on 7th November, 1979, he and the driver had been at a Kiosk along Addis Ababa Road at 10 a.m. while they were supposed to have free tea at the company's premises. It is worth noting that it was along that Road where five tins of the paste disappeared later on."

When the driver arrived back at the Workshop he did not stop for a formal checking at the gate but instead was heading directly to Mr. Olando whereby the Workshops Manager intercepted the vehicle and found out that some tins were missing. All the facts suggested that Mr. Olando and the driver were involved in the conspiracy to defraud the company of the paste. It is therefore my considered opinion that the termination of Mr. Olando's services was justified.

In view of the facts in this case, I recommend that Mr. Olando should collect his terminal benefits from the employer. Finally, I appeal to both parties to accept the above recommendation as the basis of settling the reported trade dispute."

The Claimants rejected the findings and the recommendation and the matter is now before the Court.

The Court had the opportunity of listening to the evidence on oath given by the grievant and the Respondents' witnesses.

The Court cannot accept that Mr. Olando enjoyed continuous service with the Respondents from 1963, because prior to 5th June, 1973, he used to work for D.T. Dobie, Uganda which was a different legal entity from the Respondents in Kenya.

The events that led to the termination of Mr. Olando are that he ordered 20 tins of body filler paste from the stores but on 7th November, 1979, he received only 15 tins. The driver drove up to Mr. Olando's work place without going through Mr. A. Kitonga the stores clerk whose duty it was to order and receive the various items ordered by the various foremen in the workshop. In this case the driver did not follow the laid down procedure.

The workshop manager Mr. J. Kibuba while on a round of duties saw the driver drive up to the paint section and was rather curious because the driver did not stop and report to the stores clerk. So Mr. Kibuba started asking questions and became suspicious with the result that he informed his superior of what had happened who instructed Mr. Kibuba to refer the matter to the security.

The Court is satisfied that Security Consultant (E.A.) Ltd. carried out an investigation and in the memo sent to the Personnel Manager from the Chief Security Officer it is stated as follows towards the end:

"In view of the foregoing it would appear that there was conspiracy to defraud the Company of the five tins of filler paste and that the conspirators are Messrs.:

1. Joseph Olando — staff No. 839
2. Angellon Kitonga — staff No. 408
3. Samson R. Kaigira — staff No. 161

There is enough evidence for a Court case against the driver Samson Kaigira for the offence of theft by servant. There is also some truth in his allegation involving the other two employees that they planned the theft. Nobody can believe that the driver Samson could deliver 15 out of 20 tins of filler paste unnoticed and without the knowledge of the two Mr. Kitonga who should have checked the items before handing them over to Mr. Olando who should have checked them before putting them into his store. The loss was however, discovered before the tins reached the hands of the two employees (Kitonga/Olando). The Company has lost Sh. 800 the value of the 5 tins of filler paste through theft by known members of the staff. A deterrent action is recommended for all three employees."

The fact that the Respondents did not terminate the services of the stores clerk is a matter for them and does not in any way absolve Mr. Olando from his part in this unfortunate incident.

The Court cannot accept the Claimants' allegation that Mr. Olando was the victim of a conspiracy between Mr. Kibuba and the stores clerk. There is not a shred of evidence to indicate any such conspiracy and the Court rejects this allegation.

The Court has carefully considered the witnesses' evidence and the written and verbal submissions made by the parties and has come to the conclusion that the Respondents had adequate reasons and grounds for handing out a normal termination to Mr. Olando. No principles of natural justice were violated either.

The Court therefore rejects the Claimants' demand for Mr. Olando's reinstatement without loss of salary and directs him to collect the amount offered to him by the Respondents in the letter of termination, if he has not already done so.

Given in Nairobi the 27th August, 1982.
