THE INDUSTRIAL COURT
CAUSE NO. 54 OF 1986

Parties:

Kenya Plantation and Agricultural Workers' Union
 and
 Homa Lime Company Limited

Issues in dispute:

Preamble; hours of work for watchmen; overtime; leave for training/seminar and gratuity payment on retirement or resignation.

THE Kenya Plantation and Agricultural Workers' Union shall hereinafter be referred to as the claimants and Homa Lime Company Limited shall hereinafter be referred to as the respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on 27th October, 1986, and relied on their written and verbal submissions.

AWARD

3. The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 25th February, 1986, signed by the parties was received by the court on 13th May, 1986, together with the statutory certificate signed by the Labour Commissioner.

This dispute arose from the parties failure to reach an agreement during their negotiations for revising the collective agreement covering the period 1st October, 1983 to 30th September, 1985, on the disputed items which are now before the court.

The claimants stated on each item as follows:

Preamble.—The claimants told the court that the respondents employs about 206 unionizable employees out of which almost 100 workers have refused to join them and prayed the court to award that non-union members should not enjoy the services rendered by the union. The claimants accused the respondents of frustrating their members as a result of which some workers have withdrawn from the union.

Hours of work for watchmen.—The claimants stated that in Legal Notice No. 246 of 1983, the government had reduced working hours for security workers to 52 hours per week and accused the Federation of Kenya Employers of violating this directive by the government. The claimants told the court that the respondents security men work 60 hours per week and demanded that this be reduced to 52 hours per week.

Overtime.—The claimants stated that this item concerns watchmen in the respondents undertaking and they demanded that they be paid overtime for hours worked in excess of 52 hours per week as demanded in item 2.

Leave for training/seminars.—The claimants stated that this item has been overtaken by events as His Excellency the President gave a directive on May Day 1986 to the effect that workers be given leave with full pay when attending union seminars or went for training.

Gratuity payment on retirement or resignation.—Under this item the claimants are demanding gratuity payment to retiring workers or those who resign. This benefit to be given in addition to the N.S.S.F. benefits.

The respondents argued their case as follows:

Preamble.—The respondents stated that under the Industrial Relations Charter, it is the responsibility of the claimants to maintain a high degree of membership and the workers have the freedom of association. The respondents stated that the claimants are to be blamed for failing to recruit their employees into their membership. The respondents denied that there was frustration of union members and prayed the court to reject the claimants demand on this item.

Hours of work for watchmen.—The respondents argued their case by referring the court to Regulation of Wages (Agricultural Industry) Order, 1982 (Legal Notice No. 121) and Regulation of Wages (General) Order, 1982 (L.N. 120) which stated that normal hours of work in respect of stockmen, herdsmen and watchmen in the agricultural industry are 60 hours per week. The respondents stated that provisions of the Regulation of Wages (Protective Security Services) Order, 1983 (L.N. 246) did not apply to watchmen in the agricultural industry.

Overtime.—The respondents told the court that watchmen who work over 60 hours per week get their overtime as stipulated in the parties collective agreement and requested the court to reject the claimant's demand.

Leave for training/seminar.—Under this item the respondents are of the opinion that the claimants are demanding basically the same as "paid educational leave for trade union training", which should be rejected by the court as it is not the first time to be raised in court.

The respondents submitted that on May Day His Excellency the President, directed that the matter be dealt with by the appropriate tripartite body. They added that the Ministry was arranging for necessary action in the matter.

Gratuity payment on retirement or resignation.—The respondents stated that the claimants are attempting to amend the parties collective agreement through the court. In the collective agreement under review, employees whose services are terminated due to old age, certified ill health or death due to natural causes qualify for severance pay for services rendered prior to 1st July, 1966 at the rate of 16 days for every completed year of service. The provisions of the N.S.S.F. Act shall thereafter apply to the services rendered after the introduction of the scheme. The respondents did not offer anything on this item and requested the court to reject the claimants' demand.

After careful consideration of the submissions by the parties, on each item, the court awards as follows:

Preamble.—The court finds that the claimants' demand is full of practical difficulties in its implementation if granted. Moreover if granted it will be inconsistent with the provisions of the Industrial Relations Charter and violate the freedom of association enjoyed by the workers in Kenya. The demand is accordingly rejected.

Hours of work for watchmen.—The court finds that the claimants interpretation of the Regulation of Wages (Protective Security Services) Order, 1983 (L.N. 246) to be misleading and accepts that the Regulation of Wages (Agricultural Industry) Order, 1982 (L.N. 120) as the order governing the respondents undertaking. The court, however, has decided to reduce the working hours for watchmen to 58 hours per week and so awards.

Overtime.—As there is a reduction in hours of work for watchmen as awarded by the court the watchmen will be entitled to receive overtime for any hours worked in excess of 58 hours per week.

Leave for training/seminars.—The court awards as follows:

The respondents shall grant their employees paid educational leave for trade union education for a maximum of three (3) months.

Provided that it shall be upon the claimants to request the respondents to grant such leave to give in writing a notice of not less than one month from the date of the start of such education course.

Provided further that such leave shall be granted to not more than one employee at any given time.

Gratuity payment on retirement or resignation.—After careful consideration of all the submissions and keeping in view the financial implications involved the court rejects the claimants' demand.

Given at Nairobi the 19th November, 1986.

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT CAUSE NO. 101 OF 1985

Parties:

Kenya Union of Commercial Food and Allied Workers
and
Pearl Dry Cleaners Limited

Issue in dispute:

Dismissal of Obala Ngode.

THE Kenya Union of Commercial Food and Allied Workers shall hereinafter be referred to as the claimants and Pearl Dry Cleaners shall hereinafter be referred to as the respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on 28th October, 1986, and in addition to relying on their written and verbal submissions, the parties called the following witnesses.

Claimants.—Obala Ngode.

Respondents.—James Mwashe.

AWARD

3. The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 25th May, 1985, duly signed by the parties was received by the court on 20th August, 1985 together with the statutory certificates signed by the Minister for Labour and the Labour Commissioner. The dispute was originally fixed for hearing on 30th December, 1985 and then on 17th July, 1986, but due to the claimants' delay in the submission of their memorandum, the hearing could not proceed.

The grievant was employed by the respondents on 28th June, 1966 and was instantly dismissed on 18th March, 1983, after a service of 16 years on an allegation that he fought one David Mwale at the respondents' canteen for failing to serve him with food.

The claimants told the court that the respondents provide lunch to their employees between 1 p.m. and 1.30 p.m. The food is prepared at the canteen by two cooks who are also employees of the respondents. The claimants told the court that on 18th March, 1983, Mr. Ngode went to the canteen at 1.15 p.m. and requested David Mwale to serve him with food but Mr. Mwale refused as Mr. Ngode was late but the other cook, James Mwashe, gave him food. Mr. Ngode put the food on the table and proceeded to wash his hands, but when he returned he found his food had been thrown into a dustbin by Mr. Mwale who had earlier refused to serve him. On enquiring as to why the food was thrown, the grievant was hit by Mr. Mwale and a scuffle started. They were separated by Mr. Mwashe and another man. The matter was then reported to the management and both Messrs. Mwale and Ngode were summarily dismissed the same day.

Giving evidence in court, Mr. Ngode stated that on the day in question, he went to the canteen at 1 p.m. and lined up with the other workers for lunch. He asked Mr. Mwale for food but he refused to serve him. Mr. Mwashe, the other cook, however, served him. He placed his food on the table then proceeded to wash his hands. On returning to the table he found his food had been thrown into the dustbin. When he asked Mr. Mwale why he threw the food away, Mr. Mwale answered by giving him a fist blow on the face and then a scuffle started. The grievant stated that the workers separated them. The matter was then reported to the personnel manager who called a meeting which was attended, among others, by the shopstewards. At this meeting, it was decided to instantly dismiss both Messrs. Mwale and Ngode.

The respondents told the court that Mr. Ngode went to the canteen after it had closed and demanded his lunch. Mr. Mwale refused to serve him with food saying he was late and he had not reported that he would come late. Despite Mr. Mwale's protest, the other cook, Mr. Mwashe gave Mr. Ngode part of his own food. This gave rise to an exchange of abusive words between Messrs. Mwale and Ngode. Within a short time the two employees were exchanging blows and Mr. Ngode was floored by Mr. Mwale. They were separated by Mr. Mwashe. The matter was then reported to the personnel manager who convened a meeting between the management and the shopstewards plus the two employees. This meeting resolved that the two employees were guilty of gross misconduct and were summarily dismissed.

Giving evidence in court, Mr. Mwashe stated that on 18th March, 1983, Mr. Ngode came to the canteen for lunch at 2.30 p.m. and asked Mr. Mwale for lunch which he refused to serve him as he was late. Despite Mr. Mwale's refusal he gave him part of his food which was not enough. Mr. Ngode got in the kitchen and helped himself with more food and took it to the table. During this time, Mr. Mwale had gone out. When he came back he found Mr. Ngode eating, and he snatched the food from him. Mr. Ngode caught hold of him by the neck and a fight started. Mr. Mwashe said that another employee, Mr. Okare, came in and helped to separate them.

After careful consideration of the parties' submissions and the evidence adduced by the parties' witnesses, the court finds that the grievant had gone late to the canteen for lunch. The court, however, finds that Mr. Mwale erred by throwing the grievant's food into the dustbin which resulted in the aforesaid incident. The proper course for the cook was to report Mr. Ngode to senior management for appropriate action rather than snatch the food and throw it in the dustbin. Under the circumstances, the court finds that Mr. Ngode has suffered a wrongful dismissal taking into account his sixteen years of service with the respondents.

The court concurs with the Ministry of Labour's findings and recommendations that Mr. Ngode's dismissal be reduced to normal termination and that he be paid six months' salary for wrongful dismissal in addition to his terminal benefits and the court so awards.

Given in Nairobi on the 20th November, 1986.

GAZETTE NOTICE NO. 5113

THE TRADE MARKS ACT

(Cap. 506)

NOTICE is given that any person who has grounds of opposition to the registration of any of the trade marks advertised herein according to the classes may, within sixty (60) days from the date of this Gazette, lodge notice of opposition on form TM. No. 6 (in duplicate) together with a fee of KSh. 50.

Notice is also given that official objection will be taken under rule 21 (3) to all applications in which the specification claims all the goods included in any class unless the registrar is satisfied that the claim is justified by the use of the mark which the applicant has made, or intends to make if and when it is registered. Where an applicant considers that a claim in respect of all the goods included in a class can be justified & will save unnecessary delay in examining applications if a claim is filed simultaneously with the application, accompanied in appropriate cases by supporting documents.

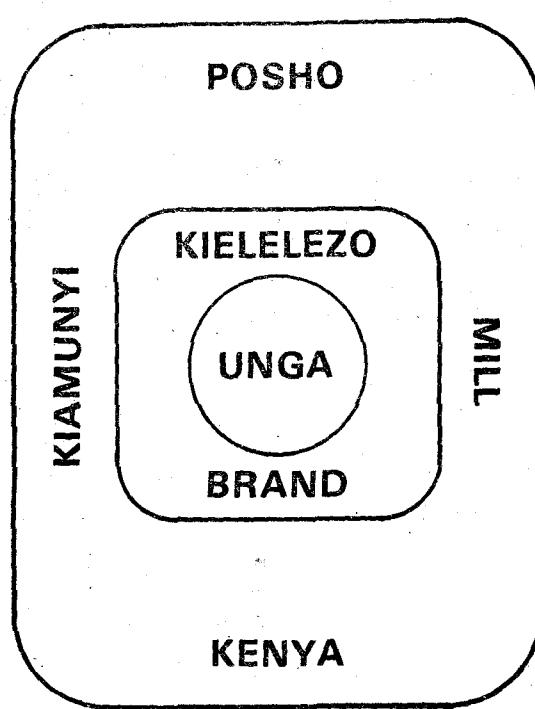

The period for lodging notice of opposition may be extended by the registrar as he thinks fit and upon such terms as he may direct. Any request for such extension should be made to the registrar so as to reach him before the expiry of the period allowed.

Formal opposition should not be lodged until after reasonable notice has been given by letter to the applicant for registration so as to afford him an opportunity of withdrawing his application before the expense of preparing the notice of opposition is incurred. Failure to give such notice will be taken into account in considering any application by an opponent for an order for costs if the opposition is uncontested by the applicant

Where it is stated in the advertisement of the applicant that the mark, upon its registration, is to be limited to certain colours, the colours are, as far as possible, indicated in the accompanying representations of the mark in the usual heraldic manner.

Representations of the marks advertised herein can be seen at the Trade Marks Registry, State Law Office, Nairobi.

Applications for registration in part A of the register are shown with the official number unaccompanied by any letter. Applications for part B are distinguished by the letter B prefixed to the official number.

The translation into English of the Kiswahili words "KIELELEZO" and "UNGА" forming part of the mark is "SAMPLE" and "FLOUR" respectively.

Registration of this trade mark shall give no right to the exclusive use of the words "UNGА BRAND" and "KENYA" each separately and apart from the mark as a whole.
