THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE NO. 12 OF 1988

Parties:

Tailors and Textiles Workers Union
and

Garment Manufacturing Mass Production Group of F.K.E.

Issue in dispute:

Retirement Benefits

THE Tailors and Textiles Workers Union shall hereinafter be referred to as the claimants and the Garment Manufacturing Mass Group of F.K.E. shall hereinafter be referred to as the respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on 27th June, 1988, and relied on their written and verbal submissions.

AWARD

3. The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 7th October, 1987, duly signed by the parties was received by the court on 23rd February, 1988, together with the statutory certificate signed by the Labour Commissioner.

The Garment Manufacturing Mass Production Group of F.K.E. comprises of 60 members who are scattered all over Nairobi, Nakuru and Mombasa. The group employs nearly 2,000 workers.

The court has carefully considered all aspects of the parties' submissions in this dispute and finds that the monetary implications in the claimants' demand are such that it would not be feasible to make an award in line with their demand without seriously endangering the employment of hundreds of workers involved in this dispute.

The court therefore rejects the claimants' demand.

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE NO. 13 OF 1988

Parties:

Kenya Union of Commercial Food and Allied Workers
and

Kenya Grain Growers Co-operative Union Ltd.

Issue in dispute:

Terminal Benefits.

THE Kenya Union of Commercial Food and Allied Workers shall hereinafter be referred to as the claimants and the Kenya Grain Growers Co-operative Union Ltd. shall hereinafter be referred to as the respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on 24th May, 1988, and relied on their written and verbal submissions.

AWARD

3. The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 29th December, 1987, duly signed by the parties was received by the court on 23rd February, 1988, together with the statutory certificate signed by the Labour Commissioner.

The Respondents have 55 branches throughout the country and cater for 45,000 members who are drawn from the farming community in Kenya. The Respondents have a total labour force of 2,000 employees out of whom 1,700 are unionizable. Therefore 1,700 employees are subject of this trade dispute.

The court notes that the claimants in this dispute are seeking to abrogate an agreement that the claimants entered into with the liquidator of K.F.A. on 8th February, 1985. The court further notes that on 22nd January, 1987, the claimants and the respondents entered into yet another agreement supporting the earlier one that workers should be paid their terminal benefits in a staggered manner. The court is surprised that the claimants are now seeking to have the two agreements discarded away and an award made in their favour for terminal benefits to be paid at once.

The court cannot agree to do that as such an award would drive the respondents into a financial crisis.

The court having considered carefully all aspects of this dispute finds that parties should strictly follow the agreements made between them. The court accordingly rejects the claimants' demand that the respondents should immediately pay out Sh. 27 million being terminal benefits due to the former K.F.A. employees. The claimants' demand is rejected.

Dated the 29th September, 1988.
