THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE NO 7 OF 1965

Parties

Kenya Distributive and Commercial Workers' Union
(Claimant)
and
Kenya Orchards Limited (Respondent)

Issue in Dispute

Minimum wage rates for agreed grades

1 The parties were heard in Nairobi on 30th March 1965 and relied on their written and verbal submissions

GENERAL BACKGROUND

2 In Industrial Court Cause No 10 of 1964 the Court in making its award included the following recommendation —

"As this increase in wages is very closely linked with the grading exercise which is about to be completed, the Court strongly recommends that on completion of the grading the matter should be referred back to the Court to adjudicate on the rate for the grades. The Court expects the job classification to be completed within six weeks of the date hereof"

In accordance with this the job evaluation at the Respondent's factory was carried out by Mr C Heywood, the Executive Officer of the Motor Trade and Allied Industries Employers' Association. He has produced the job classification split into seven grades. He carried out this exercise on the generally accepted principles and took into account factors such as education, experience, mental effort, initiative, responsibility for contact with the public, probable result of errors, physical efforts, visual attention, responsibility for safety, responsibility for Company's property (in direct charge) and working conditions. This job classification has been accepted by the Union. The matter was discussed at the Joint Industrial Council meeting on 12th January 1965, and as the difference in the rates for the grade was very wide, an agreement could not be reached. Union demanded Sh 330 for the lowest grade as against the Management's offer of Sh 135. The issue has, therefore, been referred to the Industrial Court.

MAIN SUBMISSIONS BY THE UNION

3 The Union states that the Respondent has dismissed the 10 per cent additional employees taken on by them under the Tripartite Agreement. Further that all the profits made by the Respondent are invested in capital expansion. Therefore, the argument put forward by them that there is just no money to increase their offer, is fallacious. The Union further submits that there is absolutely no reason why the Respondent should not follow the example of their competitors in this field like Kenya Canners, Uplands Bacon Factory, Kenya Meat Commission and Trufoods. Some of these firms made a smaller profit and paid higher wages to their employees than the Respondents. The Respondent and the said firms used to belong to the Food Processing Association. The Union's original demand which carried a salary of from Sh 300 for

Grade I to Sh 600 for Grade VII was reduced to Sh 300 for Grade I to Sh 500 for Grade VII. This was done in a spirit of give and take but the Respondent was adamant. The Union finally submits that the Respondent's offer is very low and as their demand is reasonable the Court should so award

MAIN SUBMISSIONS BY THE RESPONDENT

4 The Respondent submits that the Court by its award in Cause No 10 of 1964, has established the wage rate applicable to the lowest possible grade of job which is for any unskilled labourer requiring no previous training and the use of implements of a common nature to carry out the task. The Respondent, therefore, maintains that to establish the wage scale by grades therefrom one requires to fix a rate for the most highly evaluated job or group of jobs, i.e. Grade VII. The highest wage paid in the factory exclusive of drivers of heavy vehicles, is that applicable to a seamer mechanic whose job is the setting and repairing of can seaming equipment, whose basic monthly wage is Sh 297 and that this wage has been increased by the Court's recent award. The Respondent points out that by plotting the points evaluation on a graph is against the wage already established for Grade I and the points evaluated and the wage that the Respondent proposes for Grade VII, and connecting these two points with a straight line the wage to be paid for Grade II and Grade VI inclusive fall into their true relationship with one another.

Having in mind the increases made to all staff following the recent award and the fact that these changes will increase the burden upon an enterprise which is at present unprofitable, the Respondent requests the Court to confirm the minimum wage for each grade as follows —

	Sh
Grade I	135
Grade II	151
Grade III	167
Grade IV	183
Grade V	216
Grade VI	240
Grade VI (a)	240 Driver up to 1½ tons
Grade VII	276
Grade VII (a)	290 Driver over 1½ tons and under 7½ tons
Grade VII (b)	330 Driver 7½ tons or over (with trailer)

AWARD

5 The Respondents appear to be labouring under a misapprehension in saying that the Court in its previous award determined the minimum wage. The previous decision was an award of an interim increase pending the completion of job classification and the Court kept the matter in hand so that when the rate for the job is decided the interim increase as a result of the Court award is not overlooked. This was the pattern followed by the Claimant Union and the other members of the now defunct Grain Milling and Food Processing Employers Association.

The Court after a very careful consideration of all the points urged by the parties, awards as follows —

	Sh
Grade I	150
Grade II	165
Grade III	180
Grade IV	195
Grade V	225
Grade VI	245
Grade VI (a)	250 Drivers up to 1½ tons
Grade VII	280
Grade VII (a)	310 Drivers over 1½ tons and under 7½ tons
Grade VII (b)	360 Drivers 7½ tons or over (with trailer)

This award is with effect from 1st April 1965 and shall be for a duration of 12 months.

CAUSE No 8 OF 1965

Parties

Kenya Distributive and Commercial Workers' Union
 (Claimant)
 and
 P Phillips and Co Limited (Respondent)

Issue in Dispute

Gratuity Scheme for previous services

1 The hearing of the dispute took place on 31st March 1965 and the parties relied on their written and verbal submissions

GENERAL BACKGROUND

2 The Respondent recognized the Claimant as from 25th July 1962 and a Recognition Agreement was signed between the parties and came into effect from that date. Following the Recognition Agreement an agreement governing terms and conditions of employment was signed and came into effect as from 1st September 1962. Under Clause No N of this agreement it is provided —

Pension—Provident Fund—Insurance—Gratuity

The Company will give consideration to the subject

It appears that no discussions under this head ensued until last year although the Union claims that it supplied to the Respondent several schemes that were operating in various industries inclusive of the Tanzanian scheme but all this was in vain. On 20th January 1964 the Respondent gave in writing to the employees notes on the lines the Respondent was thinking to start a gratuity scheme. This the Union calls the Respondent's proposals. Then cropped up the question of the African staff who were currently participating in a joint saving scheme initiated by the Company in 1959. The scheme involved equal contributions from the employee and the Company which were interest earning with the Savings and Loan Company. The Respondent wanted to know what would be the future of this scheme. The Union informed the Respondent that the participants in this scheme wished to retain it and that the Union only wished to pursue the interests of persons not covered by any form of service benefits. Meetings were held in April and August 1964. On the Union stating that it had either misunderstood or had been misinformed the Respondent agreed to start fresh discussions on this matter.

Subsequently Union advised the Respondent that one all embracing scheme would be preferable and made counter proposals. The Respondent considered some minor points in the Union's proposals but refused to embark on a bargaining session over the basic content of their intentions. The last meeting took place in January 1965, but nothing came out of it. The Respondent was then asked by the Union to come to the Industrial Court.

MAIN SUBMISSIONS BY THE UNION

3 The Union submits that the Respondent is operating several schemes whereby the Europeans are entitled to pension scheme, provident fund and insurance scheme benefits and whereas some of the Africans are a party to a saving scheme no provision has been made for the Asian employees who have served the Respondent faithfully and loyally for many years. The Union submits that the Respondent produced a scheme attached to the Union memorandum as Appendix "A" and the Union made counter proposals on this scheme which is attached to the Union memorandum as Appendix "B". The discussions continued till the Government announced plans for the introduction of National Provident Scheme. On this announcement the Respondent backed out of all the negotiations. The Union asked the Respondent through letters and at meetings as to how the Respondent wished to benefit the employees for services up to the time the National Provident Fund Scheme was launched but the Respondent gave no satisfactory reply. The Union submitted several schemes being operated in other industries for the benefit of the Court. The Union demands an award of one and a half months salary for every year of service calculated on the retiring salary. Those Africans who are a party to the savings scheme and would benefit less than the Union demands should be reimbursed for the difference. The Union feels strongly and is opposed to Europeans only enjoying better benefits and privileges than Africans and Asians.

MAIN SUBMISSIONS BY THE RESPONDENT

4 The Respondent submits that the Recognition Agreement between the parties hereto specifically precludes the question of Provident Funds, etc from negotiation with the Union but the Union has seen fit to take advantage of the Company's willingness to consult on matters which involve the interest of the employees. In agreeing that this matter shall be referred to the Industrial Court the Company has conceded a large measure of its prerogative but the course of action has been dictated to a great extent by the Union's attitude on non-negotiable matters.

The Respondent's efforts to establish a suitable scheme have been hampered by a variety of problems, the two main ones being —

- (a) The fact that employee/union representation has never been the same no two consecutive meetings, have been attended by the same official with the added complication of changes in office holders.
- (b) At the meeting held in December with a Union officer the Union expressed acceptance in principle of the Company's policy intentions.

In spite of this acceptance the Union has continued its attacks on the Respondent alleging racism and injustice. Precisely the same attacks are levelled in the Union submission.

The Respondent states that it could have refused quite legitimately to agree to this matter being referred to such a forum as the because issue is not negotiable. However in weighing up the pros and cons of the situation they were confronted with the fact that a refusal could endanger the harmonious domestic relations existing as it would be difficult to delineate clearly in the minds of the employees the difference between consultation and joint negotiation. The Union has recorded its acceptance in principle of the Respondent's intentions and it is sage has there been bargaining between the Respondent and the Union. The Respondent requests the Court to endorse it clearly demonstrated good intentions because logically this is the only matter which can be deemed to be in dispute although the Union from its submissions obviously hope that the Court will open up the whole field and lend in in of virtue to the Union's deviation from the terms of their own agreement.

AWARD

5 After careful study of all the points urged by both parties and taking into account the various overtures made on the establishment of a gratuity scheme, the Court is satisfied that the Respondent has surrendered his prerogative in this respect and has entered into negotiation with the Union.

The Court therefore awards that a gratuity scheme shall be implemented and that the details shall be worked out by the parties in joint negotiation.

However in order that there shall be no dispute on the primary details of the scheme the Court awards, further, that —

- (a) The scheme shall be deemed to commence on 1st November 1951.
- (b) (i) For the first three years of continuous service the gratuity (severance allowance) shall be seven days basic pay for each year of service.
- (ii) For the next three years of continuous service up to and including the sixth year the gratuity shall be ten days basic pay for each completed year of service.
- (iii) Thereafter, the gratuity shall be fifteen days basic pay for each completed year of continuous service.

With these fundamental details established by the Court it is expected that the parties will be able to work out a scheme with a minimum of delay.
