GAZETTE NOTICE NO. 3037

THE TRADE MARKS ACT
(Cap. 506)

NOTICE is given that any person who has grounds of opposition to the registration of any of the trade marks advertised herein according to the classes may, within sixty (60) days from the date of this Gazette, lodge notice of opposition on form TM. No. 6 (in duplicate) together with a fee of Sh. 120.

Notice is also given that official objection will be taken under rule 21 (3) to all applications in which the specification claims all the goods included in any class unless the registrar is satisfied that the claim is justified by the use of the mark which the applicant has made, or intends to make if and when it is registered. Where an applicant considers that a claim in respect of all the goods included in a class can be justified it will save unnecessary delay in examining applications if a claim is filed simultaneously with the application, accompanied in appropriate cases by supporting documents.

The period for lodging notice of opposition may be extended by the registrar as he thinks fit and upon such terms as he may direct. Any request for such extension should be made to the registrar so as to reach him before the expiry of the period allowed.

Formal opposition should not be lodged until after reasonable notice has been given by letter to the applicant for registration so as to afford him an opportunity of withdrawing his application before the expense of preparing the notice of opposition is incurred. Failure to give such notice will be taken into account in considering any application by an opponent for an order for costs if the opposition is uncontested by the applicant.

Where it is stated in the advertisement of the applicant that the mark, upon its registration, is to be limited to certain colours, the colours are, as far as possible, indicated in the accompanying representations of the mark in the usual heraldic manner.

Representations of the marks advertised herein can be seen at the Trade Marks Registry, State Law Office, Nairobi.

Applications for registration in part A of the register are shown with the official number unaccompanied by any letter. Applications for part B are distinguished by the letter B prefixed to the official number.

GAZETTE NOTICE No. 3076

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE No. 65 of 1989

Parties:

Kenya Local Government Workers' Union
and Masaku County Council

Issue in dispute:

Wrongful deduction of Mrs. Martha Muuo's salary.

THE Kenya Local Government Workers' Union shall herein-after be referred to as the claimants and the Masaku County Council shall hereinafter be referred to as the respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on 15th January and 20th March, 1990, and relied on their written and verbal submissions.

AWARD

3. The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 30th November, 1988, and duly signed by the parties, was received by the court on 16th August, 1989, together with the statutory certificate signed by the Labour Commissioner.

Mrs. Muuo was employed by the respondents on 2nd January, 1980, as a nursery school teacher at Kithimani Nursery School in scale G. 10 at a salary of KSh345 x 36—669 per annum. In 1982 she applied for a year's course at Kenyatta Educational Institute, Njoro, and the respondents supported her application by their letter dated 7th October, 1982, to the District Basic Education Officer.

After she successfully passed the interview, together with three other nursery school teachers, Mrs. Muuo requested the respondents for leave of absence to attend the training and she was accordingly released. As a matter of procedure in local authorities, the matter was subsequently placed for deliberation before the finance, staff and general purposes committee meeting, held on 25th February, 1983, and under Min. FSGP 23/83, it was resolved that:

- (1) The above officers be given a leave without pay.
- (2) The council would not meet any messing charges of the four officers.
- (3) In future no officer should authorize staff to attend course(s) without prior authority of the council.

The respondents' full council adopted the above resolution and withheld Mrs. Muuo's salary with effect from April 1983. On 13th June, and 5th September, 1983, Mrs. Muuo complained in writing to the respondents that the decision to withhold her salary while on training was "improper" and "unfair". On 19th October, 1989, she was paid, as per cheque No. 096667, her six months salary, amounting to Sh. 3,825, which the respondents had withheld. Mrs. Muuo also continued to receive her monthly salary until she successfully completed her training in December 1983. After her training, she resumed her teaching duties with the respondents, and went on to receive her salary until October 1984, when the respondents began to deduct Sh. 500 from her monthly salary of Sh. 1,000, pursuant to the finance staff and general purposes committee's resolution of 26th April, 1984, under Min. No. FSGP 36/84, which reads as hereunder:

"that the money paid to Martha N. Muuo was illegally paid to her since the council had resolved that all those who attended courses not sponsored by the council should not be paid their salaries for the period they are attending and therefore the money paid should be recovered from Mrs. Muuo's salary in suitable instalments."

The respondents strongly argued that, in the absence of a constituted council, "the decision by the respondents' acting clerk/treasurer to ignore, rescind, revoke or otherwise change the standing resolution of the council" of 26th April, 1984, was not referred to the "officers-in-committee" as stipulated in the aforestated Permanent Secretary's circular letter; and, as such, the decision was null and void.

In her letter of 16th November, 1984, Mrs. Muuo challenged the respondents for deducting her salary, but she was informed by the council's acting clerk/treasurer in his letter dated 28th December, 1984, that the deductions from her salary were being made to recover the amount which had been illegally paid to her while undergoing training. Under the circumstances, Mrs. Muuo handed over the matter to her union, the claimants, who requested the respondents to convene a joint staff committee meeting in order to discuss the issue. A meeting was held on 4th April, 1985, but this issue was not reached. The meeting reconvened on 14th April, 1986, and after a long discussion the parties reached a deadlock on the issue and the claimants declared a trade dispute with the respondents.

The claimants notified the Ministry of Labour on 18th April, 1986, of the existence of this dispute under section 4 of the Trade Disputes Act (Cap. 234). The dispute was accepted and processed by the Ministry under section 7 of the Act, and Mrs. B. W. Mwai, the District Labour Officer, Machakos, was appointed an investigator. She carried out detailed investigation and made the following recommendation to the parties:

Recommendation

After a careful consideration of both parties' submissions and in view of the above findings it is recommended that Masaku County Council should refund the total deductions made from Mrs. Muuo's salary subject to financial regulations governing the parties.

The claimants communicated their acceptance of these findings and recommendation to the respondents by their letter dated 15th June, 1988; but, in response thereto, respondents rejected the findings and recommendation in their letter of 6th December, 1988, on the ground that the investigator did not address her mind to the fact that once the council had made a decision not to pay the grievant, the officers could not simply revoke such a decision. The matter is now before the court for consideration.

The claimants prayed the court to award Mrs. Muuo a refund of KSh. 10,120 which was unlawfully deducted by the respondents from her salary.

The respondents suggested that the proper course of action which Mrs. Muuo should have taken in this matter would have been for her to appeal against, or seek review of, their decision and the matter could have received their appropriate consideration.

The respondents urged the court to uphold their decision and reject the claimants' demand.

In this dispute, Mrs. Muuo is claiming a refund of KSh. 10,120, being an amount which was deducted from her salary by the respondents while she was undergoing one year training course at Kenyatta Educational Institute, Njoro, and to which she was by law entitled. Mrs. Muuo alleged that the decision by the respondents to withhold or deduct her salary during her training in 1983 was improper and unfair, and she wants a refund. She pressed her complaint with much zeal and did not at any time waive her right to complain of it. On the other hand, the respondents forcefully contended that in terms of the clerk to council's letter dated 16th December, 1982, and the finance, staff and general purposes committee's resolution, Min. No. FSGP/23/83 of 25th February, 1983, which was later adopted by the full council, Mrs. Muuo was released for the course without pay. They argued that at the time Mrs. Muuo proceeded on the training, the respondents' council had been dissolved in preparation for the local government elections; in the circumstances, the council's powers and decisions were left in the hands of the officers-in-committee in accordance with the Ministry's directive. Hence, the town clerk treasurer's failure to observe the directive in the absence of a properly constituted council was void, inoperative and of no effect.

The court is aware that the respondents' purpose of allowing Mrs. Muuo to attend the training was geared towards the acquisition of skills and knowledge in order to better her career. This is in line with the anxiety of both the local authorities' and central government's desire to further the educational training the importance of staff morale, performance and efficiency. In addition, training is also an investment in, and equips, the employee for higher responsibilities and reinforces his confidence in what he does and helps to improve his attitude towards superiors, colleagues and subordinates. In considering how the respondents' decision to recover the sum of KSh. 10,120 from Mrs. Muuo's salary rests in this case, it is necessary to keep to the fore the issue in dispute without allowing it to be submerged in procedural and legal technicalities.

The then acting town clerk or acting chief executive of the respondents properly took the decision of allowing Mrs. Muuo to proceed for the training as a matter of policy and in full understanding that the responsibility for implementing the respondents' policies was delegated to him, and he could only bring a matter to their attention when it was of some importance or when the course of action which he took was not clear. Mrs. Muuo proceeded for the training without realizing that the terms under which she was released by the respondents would be onerous and oppressive to her. Of course she had no reason to think so because in her mind a good administration should, as it seems to the court, act not merely impartially but also fairly.

When all has been said, the upshot remains that in maintaining the balance of legality and fair dealing, the court must exercise its right and duty to enforce basic principles of fairness and reasonableness against the respondents because their action was in itself manifestly unjust, capricious and repugnant to the general aims of the empowering rules and regulations and also contrary to law.

On these grounds and after careful consideration of all the aspects relating to this dispute, the court accepts the Ministry's recommendation, and has come to the firm conclusion that the respondents should refund, subject to any lawful deductions, Mrs. Muuo the sum of KSh. 10,120 which was improperly and unfairly deducted from her salary while on training, and the court so awards.

Dated the 13th June, 1990.
