(G. N. 9532 of 2006)

RULES OF PROCEDURE

WHEREAS in exercise of powers conferred by section 62 (5) of the Constitution of Kenya, His Excellency the President, through Gazette Notice No. 9532 of 2006; appointed a Tribunal to investigate the conduct of Puisne Judge Tom Mbaluto;

AND WHEREAS the said Gazette Notice mandates the Tribunal to regulate its own procedure;

NOW THEREFORE, the Tribunal makes the following Rules of Procedure:

1. The Tribunal shall sit on such days, and at such times and venues as shall be determined by the Tribunal.
2. The Tribunal as duly constituted shall sit to carry out its proceedings, provided that the absence of a member shall not limit its competence to discharge its mandate.

3. The hearings shall be held in private save that the subject of the investigation may choose to have the hearing in public.

4. The Tribunal may exclude any person or class of persons from all or any part of the investigation if satisfied that it is desirable so to do for the following reasons:

- (a) the preservation of order; or
- (b) the due conduct of the investigation; or
- (c) the protection of any witness in the investigation or any person referred to in the course of the investigation or the property or reputation of such witness or person;

5. The subject of the investigation shall have the right to be present during the proceedings and may be represented by legal counsel.

6. The Counsel assisting the Tribunal shall draw up a list of the allegations against the subject of the investigation, together with a summary of the evidence in support of the allegations and shall serve the documents containing the allegations and the summary of the evidence on the subject of investigation at least fourteen (14) days before the date of hearing.

7. The Tribunal shall serve on the subject of investigation a hearing notice, at least fourteen (14) days before the date of hearing.

8. The Tribunal may, at its sole discretion, summon any person or persons to testify before it on oath or to produce such documents as the Tribunal may require, and the person so summoned shall be obliged to attend and to testify or produce the required documents, and the provisions of the law relating to witnesses in the regular courts shall, in this respect, be applicable.

9. The Counsel assisting the Tribunal shall present evidence relating to the conduct of the subject and any matter relevant to the investigation.

10. The Tribunal shall be guided by basic rules applicable to fair trial, including rules of natural justice and relevance, but shall not be bound by the provisions of the Evidence Act (Cap 80, Laws of Kenya).

11. Every testimony made before the Tribunal shall be given either under oath or affirmation.

12. The subject of investigation shall have the right to cross-examine any witnesses in the investigation;

Provided that cross-examination shall be conducted bona fide, with a consciousness for time and relevance, and as may be directed by the Tribunal.

13. (1) The subject once duly served, may elect not to attend in person or by counsel or at all, in which event the Tribunal shall be entitled to consider the evidence available and make a report and appropriate recommendations.

(2) The subject of investigation shall be entitled to call evidence to rebut allegations made against him;

Provided that such evidence shall be called in good faith and, if need be, the Tribunal shall give any such directions as it shall deem fit in respect of such evidence.

14. The Tribunal and Counsel assisting the Tribunal shall be entitled to cross-examine the subject, where he elects to give evidence, and any of the witnesses called by the subject.

15. The Tribunal may call for further evidence on any relevant point or matter before it and may recall any witness for further examination.

16. Evidence may be presented in form of memoranda, affidavits or other documentation and the Tribunal shall be entitled to receive such documents and to use the contents thereof in forming its opinion;

Provided that the subject shall be furnished with copies of any such documentary evidence and may seek leave to address the Tribunal thereon.

17. At the close of all evidence called before the Tribunal, Counsel assisting the Tribunal and the subject of investigation or, if represented, his Counsel may make final submissions.

18. The Tribunal may, from time to time, by notice in the Gazette amend these rules.

19. Nothing contained in these Rules shall be deemed to limit or otherwise affect the powers of the Tribunal necessary for the proper execution of its mandate as set out in the aforementioned Gazette Notice.
