GAZETTE NOTICE NO 1956

THE TRADE MARKS ACT

(Cap 506)

NOTICE is given that any person who has grounds of opposition to the registration of any of the trade marks advertised herein according to the classes may, within sixty (60) days from the date of this Gazette lodge notice of opposition on form TM No 6 (in duplicate) together with a fee of KSh 1,500 (local applications) or US$ 75 (foreign applications).

Notice is also given that official objection will be taken under rule 21 (3) to all applications in which the specification claims all the goods included in any class unless the registrar is satisfied that the claim is justified by the use of the mark which the applicant has made, or intends to make if and when it is registered. Where an applicant considers that a claim in respect of all the goods included in a class can be justified it will save unnecessary delay in examining applications if a claim is filed simultaneously with the application, accompanied in appropriate cases by supporting documents.

The period for lodging notice of opposition may be extended by the registrar as he thinks fit and upon such terms as he may direct. Any request for such extension should be made to the registrar so as to reach him before the expiry of the period allowed.

Formal opposition should not be lodged until after reasonable notice has been given by letter to the applicant for registration, so as to afford him any opportunity of withdrawing his application before the expense of preparing the notice of opposition is incurred. Failure to give such notice will be taken into account in considering any application by an opponent for an order for costs if the opposition is unsuccessful by the applicant.

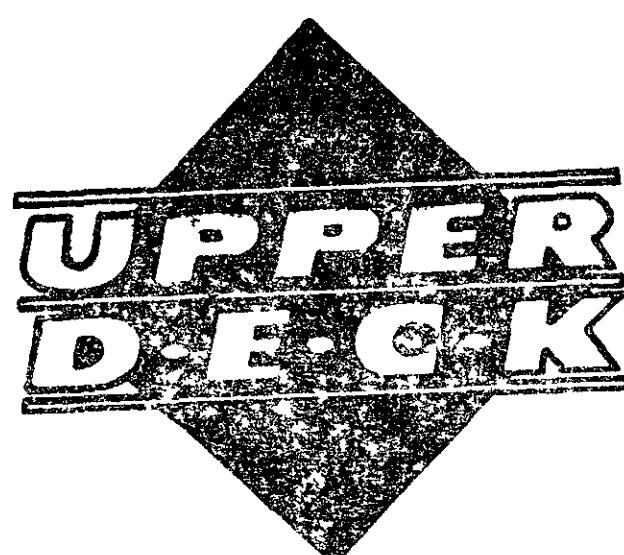

Where it is stated in the advertisement of the applicant that the mark, upon its registration, is to be limited to certain colours, the colours are, as far as possible indicated in the accompanying representations of the mark in the usual heraldic language.

1 Licensee agree to join with licensor in application(s) to register licensee as a permitted user of the trade marks as provided in the Trade Marks Act. Such registration of licence as permitted user shall be kept in effect for so long as this agreement remains in force, and shall become auto-

- matically null and void upon expiration or termination of this agreement for any reason. If any formalities or procedures are required for such nullification of the registration, such formalities or procedures shall be promptly initiated and prosecuted by an attorney nominated by licensor. Licensee shall promptly render to licensor or its attorney all necessary or proper co-operation, including, but not limited to, submission and, or signing of documents, which will be required for initiating and prosecuting the formalities or procedures for such registration and maintenance or cancellation thereof.
2. Licensee will, under the technical assistance agreement, assemble (1) the specific model(s) of radio receivers, radio cassettes and car audios of licensor designing as will be selected from time to time during the term of the technical assistance agreement by licensor and licensee (hereinafter called "the permitted goods"). Licensor grants to licensee permission to use in the Republic of Kenya the trade marks "Panasonic" and "National" as shown in schedule "A" and numbered 13550, 33869, 13559 and 25082 and on or in relation to the permitted goods assembled by licensee under the technical assistance agreement.
3. In the event of export from the Republic of Kenya by licensee of the permitted goods bearing the trade marks, licensee shall export them in strict compliance with the manner of use of the trade marks as licensor shall from time to time previously direct.
4. The permission to use the trade marks on the permitted goods herein granted to licensee shall be non-exclusive and non-transferable and shall not preclude licensor, its subsidiaries and any other person permitted by licensor to use any of the trade marks, from using the trade mark in the Republic of Kenya and other countries in such manner as licensor shall from time to time think fit.
5. The use by licensee of the trade marks under this agreement shall be deemed to be the use by licensor itself of the trade marks for the purpose of the maintenance of the registration of the trade marks and obtaining and maintaining any other rights with respect to the trade marks.
6. In the event of licensee acquiring any right to or interest in the trade marks by the use of the trade marks under this agreement, licensee shall immediately sign and/or execute any and all documents to rest without any consideration in licensor all such rights during or after the term of this agreement, at the request of licensor.
7. For the purpose of this agreement, the use of the trade marks shall mean and be limited to the act of affixing the trade marks on the permitted goods and the packages thereof, and to reproduce the trade marks on catalogues, leaflets, signboards and other advertising media and structures in the normal course of commercial advertising activity, in compliance with the specifications prescribed by licensor, and subject to prior written agreement of licensor, unless any other use is previously and specifically approved licensor in writing within the extent of the intrinsic purpose of a trade mark.
8. Anything contrary elsewhere in this agreement notwithstanding licensee shall be an independent contractor and not an agent of licensor in any sense.
9. Licensee shall use the trade marks pursuant to the specifications prescribed by licensor, and shall not use trade marks together with any letters, figures, or indications other than the particular registration indication or any other indication compulsorily required by applicable laws of the Republic of Kenya if any, and given prior acceptance by licensor in writing. Licensee shall previously inform licensor of indication, if any, required by law.
10. Licensor may, irrespective of whether required by law or otherwise, if licensor deems necessary for the maintenance of the rights in the trade marks, request or instruct licensee to affix any letters or figure in addition to the trade marks and licensee shall always and strictly comply with such request or instruction.
11. Licensee shall ensure that the permitted goods on which the trade marks are used meet and conform with the quality standards and the specifications set by licensor. Licensee shall not use the trade marks in any manner that may impair the reputation or goodwill of the trade marks or dilute or weaken its uniqueness. If the reputation, goodwill or any of the rights to the trade marks is impaired by use or acts of licensee in any manner, licensee shall be liable to licensor for remedy for such impairment.
12. Licensor or its authorized agent shall have the right to have free access to facilities, premises or buildings of licensee, and if necessary, of sub-contractor of licensee who makes plates, packages, printed matters or any other objects indicating or relating to the trade marks at any time during business hours and to inspect books, literature, or documents of any kind as well as the permitted goods and other related objects for purpose of checking whether or not the use by licensee of the trade marks is in compliance with provisions of this agreement. Licensee shall furnish licensor free of charge and at the sole expense of licensee with specimen of the permitted goods and all materials and objects bearing the trade marks upon request of licensor made at anytime during the term of this agreement.
13. At anytime during the term of this agreement, licensee shall, upon request of licensor, co-operate with licensor in respect to registration of the trade marks and in maintaining the registration thereof, and preserving the validity thereof and/or preventing the removal of registration thereof and/or defending trade marks in infringement or other proceedings. Licensee further agrees that it will not, either during or after the term of this agreement, deny or contest or contribute or aid in any way either directly or indirectly or dispute the ownership or other rights of licensor derived from and existing in the trade marks in the Republic of Kenya or in any other country. Upon discovery by licensee of the infringement or possible infringement of licensor's rights derived from the trade marks, licensee shall promptly advise licensor of any such infringement, and licensee shall co-operate with licensor in a warning or other legal proceeding instituted by licensor against such infringement. If any opposition, invalidation or nullification proceeding should be instituted by any third party against licensor with respect to the trade marks, licensee shall, upon request of licensor, stand by licensor and co-operate with licensor in every necessary respect.
14. If any of the trade marks is for whatever reason refused registration or if the registration of any of the trade marks or any right or interest therein is invalidated for any reason, licensor shall not be liable in any manner to licensee for such rejection or invalidation. Licensor shall be either responsible for actual or alleged infringement upon any rights of any third party caused or arising as a result of the use of the trade marks by licensee nor be held responsible for any obligation or liability arising out of or in connection with such actual or alleged infringement. Licensee shall indemnify licensor and its subsidiaries for, and hold licensor and its subsidiaries, harmless from, any claims, losses, liabilities, damages, objection, suits or allegation made by any person for alleged infringement proceedings, costs and expenses (including fees of counsel) upon any trade mark right owned or controlled by such persons due to the use of the trade marks.
15. This agreement shall be deemed to have retroactively become effective as from 30th August, 1992, the effective date of the technical assistance agreement as described in recitals B subject to the approval of this agreement by the Government of the Republic of Kenya to the extent required by law, and shall thereafter continue in effect for three (3) years, unless earlier terminated in accordance with any other provision of this agreement.
16. Licensor may terminate this agreement at any time during the term of this agreement by giving at least six (6) months prior notice in writing to licensee without prejudice to any right, which licensor may then have under or in connection with this agreement.
17. This agreement shall, at licensor's option, terminate upon the occurrence of any one or more of the following events:
- (a) In the event that any application for bankruptcy, receivership, liquidation or other similar proceeding against licensee is made by licensee or any other person.
  - (b) In the event that the assets of licensee are seized or attached, in conjunction with any action against licensee by any third party.
  - (c) In the event that licensee is dissolved, or that a sale of all or substantially all of the assets of licensee is made, or that this agreement is attempted to be assigned by licensee without the prior written consent of licensor.
  - (d) In the event that the technical assistance agreement terminates,

- (e) In the event that there occurs any such change in the capital ownership and/or the management control of licensee as, in the sole discretion and opinion of licensor, may adversely effect the performance of this agreement
- 18 Licensor may terminate this agreement by giving written notice to licensee in case licensee shall have been in a breach or default and such breach or default shall not have been cured within sixty (60) days after receipt of notice specifying the nature of such breach or default. No failure or delay on the part of licensor to exercise its rights of breaches or defaults shall be construed to prejudice its rights of termination for any other or subsequent breaches or defaults.
- 19 Expiration or termination of this agreement for any reason whatsoever shall not affect the rights of licensor which shall have been accrued hereunder.
- 20 If this agreement is terminated, licensee shall, at its sole expenses, dispose of all items which bear the trade marks and which remain at the time of termination of this agreement, always and strictly in accordance with instruction then to be given by licensor. Upon termination or expiration of this agreement, licensee shall cease to use the trade marks and shall cause its sub-contractor who makes any objects indicating or relating to the trade marks to cease to use the trade marks, including, but not limited to, affixing to the permitted goods, use in advertising or publicity.
- 21 Licensor shall have the right to make any instruction, notice, request or other communication requiring hereunder to licensee through licensor's attorney previously notified in writing by licensee, and licensee may make any notice, report or communication required by it to be made to licensor hereunder to such attorney.
- 22 Neither this agreement nor any rights and obligation hereunder shall be assignable or otherwise transferable by licensee to any other person, firm or corporation, voluntarily or by operation of law or otherwise, without the prior written consent of licensor.
