GAZETTE NOTICE No. 3500

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE NO. 34 OF 1981

Parties:

Kenya Management Staff Association
and
African Safari Lodges (K) Ltd.

Issue in dispute:

Dismissal of Mr. S. W. Kariuki.

1. The Kenya Management Staff Association shall hereinafter be referred to as the Claimants and African Safari Lodges (K) Ltd. shall hereinafter be referred to as the Respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on 21st September and 5th October, 1981 and relied on their written and verbal submissions. The Claimants also called Mr. S. W. Kariuki to give evidence on oath.

AWARD

3. The Minister for Labour signed the reference of this dispute to the Industrial Court on 20th May, 1981 in accordance with section 8 of the Trade Disputes Act. The Court received the notification of dispute from the Minister on 28th May.

Mr. S. W. Kariuki who was employed by the Respondents as an assistant manager at Watamu Beach Hotel at a monthly salary of Sh. 2,500 was summarily dismissed by them. It was alleged that he was running a bar in the vicinity of the Watamu Beach Hotel which was contrary to the company regulations. The letter of summary dismissal was dated 1st June, 1976 and he was asked to vacate his room by 25th June, of the same month.

The Claimants took up the matter on his behalf and reported a trade dispute to the Minister for Labour. The Ministry carried out a thorough investigation into the dispute and released its findings and recommendation to the parties on 14th April, 1978. The findings were that the Respondents had not been able to prove the allegation that Mr. Kariuki was running a bar near Watamu Beach Hotel or was in any manner connected with that bar. It was also proved that the company had no regulations prohibiting their employees from carrying on their own businesses. The Ministry recommended as follows:

"In this particular case I find that Mr. Kariuki did not deserve to lose his job in the line where he was developing a career. This is a case where the complainant deserves the protection of the law. Because the complainant had had an outstanding reputation and had done nothing to contribute to his dismissal I recommend he be reinstated into his job without loss of salary and benefits. Alternatively he should be paid twelve months salary as compensation for wrongful dismissal plus one month's pay in lieu of notice and any other accrued benefits if any."

The Respondents rejected the Ministry's findings and recommendation and the dispute is now before the Court.

The Claimants during the hearing relied substantially on the submission which they had made to the Minister for Labour on this dispute and the Ministry's subsequent findings and recommendation. They have claimed a sum of Sh. 44,116 from the Respondents for the wrongful dismissal that Mr. Kariuki has suffered which amount is made up as follows:

	Sh.
"3 months salary in lieu of notice (2,500 x 3) ..	7,500
Entertainment allowance of Sh. 400 p.m. ..	1,200
Accrued leave of 40 days (November, 1974-June, 1976) ..	2,500
25 days salary for days worked in June, 1976 and entertainment allowance for same period inclusive ..	2,416
Travelling allowance (Mombasa/Nyeri bus ..	500
Maximum compensation (12 x 2,500) ..	30,000
	<hr/>
	44,116

The Respondents also repeated their submission to the investigator and also referred to a false information which Mr. Kariuki had given to the Immigration Department regarding his superior which had led to the Respondents incurring heavy expenses in order to get the record straight. The Respondents, however, stated that this was not the reason why they had terminated his services but it was because he had engaged in another business near the Watamu Beach Hotel.

The Respondents stated that Mr. Kariuki had found another job at the Small World Country Club in Machakos District from where he left to join his present employers Midland Hotel in Nakuru in 1977 or 1978. They pleaded that the Ministry's recommendation had not been based on any legal basis as it had not taken into account the concept of diminished damages where alternative employment is obtained immediately after dismissal. They offered to pay him the following amount:

	Sh.
"3 months salary in lieu of notice ..	7,500
Days worked in June ..	2,416
Prorata entertainment allowance ..	333
Travelling allowance ..	120
	10,369"

The Court must comment on one very unfortunate aspect of this dispute and that is the Respondents' whole attitude towards it. To begin with the fact that the Minister for Labour had personally to use his powers under section 8 of the Trade Disputes Act to refer this dispute to the Industrial Court shows that the Respondents had refused to sign the Notification of Dispute Form "A". Then when the dispute was registered by the Court they made no arrangements either to appear or to be represented during the first mention on 14th June, 1981 with the result that another mention had to be arranged when the dispute was fixed for hearing on 21st and 22nd September, 1981. On 21st September the Federation of Kenya Employers appeared on behalf of the Respondents at the last minute and had not even filed their written submission and they accepted that their member was not very co-operative. The hearing was then adjourned to 5th October, when it was finally concluded.

During the hearing the Claimants called Mr. Kariuki to give evidence on oath but the Respondents did not call any evidence whatsoever on the grounds which led to his summary dismissal. In these circumstances the Court has no choice other than to rely on the investigation carried out by the Ministry of Labour. The Court may add that the investigation in this dispute appears to have been particularly thorough and the investigator went to great pains to elicit the truth of the matter.

The Court has carefully considered the Ministry's findings and recommendation and the parties' submissions which they made during the hearing and finds that there was no reason for the Respondents to have terminated the services of Mr. Kariuki. The only possible reason could be that they suspected him of having given some false information to the Immigration Office. Mr. Kariuki accepted that he gave information to the Immigration Office but maintained that it was accurate and added that the Respondents had at no time called him to explain this particular incident. He denied that he engaged in any other business apart from his employment with the Respondents and added that some girls had been asked to give false information against him and they had been promised jobs by the Respondents' manager.

The Court is satisfied that Mr. Kariuki has suffered a wrongful dismissal but in assessing the compensation that should be granted to him the Court has taken into account that he lived at the Small World Country Club for three months in May, June and July, 1977 while he was looking for a job which he found after July, 1977. The Court, however, very much doubts if he helped his friend, the owner of this club, for three months without any remuneration.

After taking all the circumstances into account the Court awards that Mr. Kariuki should be paid nine months' salary by way of compensation by the Respondents. This compensation includes pay in lieu of notice for the termination of his service. In addition to this, he should be paid the following amounts:

	Sh.
Pay in lieu of leave ..	2,500
Salary for the days worked in June 25 days and entertainment allowance for the same period ..	2,416
Travelling allowance ..	500
	5,416

To sum up the Court awards that the Respondents should pay a sum of Sh. 27,916 (nine months' salary Sh. 22,500 plus the aforesaid amount of Sh. 5,416) to Mr. Kariuki being the compensation which the Court has awarded to him for the wrongful dismissal that he suffered.

Given in Nairobi the 9th November, 1981.

Judge.

S. M. MAITHYA,

GAZETTE NOTICE No. 3501

THE TRADE MARKS ACT

(Cap. 506)

NOTICE is given that any person who has grounds of opposition to the registration of any of the trade marks advertised herein according to the classes may, within sixty (60) days from the date of this Gazette, lodge notice of opposition on Form TM. No. 6 (in duplicate) together with a fee of Sh. 50.

Notice is also given that official objection will be taken under rule 21 (3) to all applications in which the specification claims all the goods included in any class unless the Registrar is satisfied that the claim is justified by the use of the mark which the applicant has made, or intends to make if and when it is registered. Where an applicant considers that a claim in respect of all the goods included in a class can be justified it will save unnecessary delay in examining applications if a claim is filed simultaneously with the application, accompanied in appropriate cases by supporting documents.

The period for lodging notice of opposition may be extended by the Registrar as he thinks fit and upon such terms as he may direct. Any request for such extension should be made to the Registrar so as to reach him before the expiry of the period allowed.

Formal opposition should not be lodged until after reasonable notice has been given by letter to the applicant for registration so as to afford him any opportunity of withdrawing his application before the expense of preparing the notice of opposition is incurred. Failure to give such notice will be taken into account in considering any application by an opponent for an order for costs if the opposition is uncontested by the applicant.

Where it is stated in the advertisement of the applicant that the mark, upon its registration, is to be limited to certain colours, the colours are, as far as possible, indicated in the accompanying representations of the mark in the usual heraldic manner.

Representations of the marks advertised herein can be seen at the Trade Marks Registry, State Law Office, Nairobi.

Applications for registration in Part A of the Register are shown with the official number unaccompanied by any letter. Application for Part B are distinguished by the letter B prefixed to the official number.
