GAZETTE NOTICE No. 102

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE No. 80 OF 1986

Parties:

Kenya Union of Commercial Food and Allied Workers
and Nararashi Wholesalers (K) Limited

Issues in Dispute:

(a) Lock out/dismissal of:

Richard Kahia.
Philip Ochami.
Kamau Wanjenga.
Keeru Gikuyu.
John Kamau.
Ndoton Waiganjo.
Peter Kiumu.

(b) Payment of the arrears correctly to the above members as per Industrial Court Award Cause No. 8 of 1983.

THE Kenya Union of Commercial Food and Allied Workers shall hereinafter be referred to as the claimants and Nararashi Wholesalers (K) Limited shall hereinafter be referred to as the respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on 7th December, 1987, and relied on their written and verbal submissions. The dispute was previously heard on 12th February, 1987, 13th March, 1987, and 26th June, 1987, as far as issue No. 2 was concerned which issue was in due course settled.

AWARD

3. The Minister for Labour referred this dispute to the industrial court on 19th May, 1986, in accordance with section 8 of the Trade Disputes Act and the reference was received by the court on 22nd August, 1986, together with the statutory certificate signed by the Labour Commissioner.

The court after considering submissions from both parties finds that, the parties did not seek interpretation of the court's award in cause No. 8 of 1983 and instead engaged themselves in unnecessary protracted endeavour of hiring private auditors to assist them only to return to the court after four years from the date of the court's award for a final decision. The court also notes that the respondents method of calculating arrears due to workers caused all the problems leading to an unhappy situation where the workers stayed without a wage increase for all these years in those days of high inflation. There is no doubt that all these generated the problems that led to sit-in strikes. Technically the industrial action taken by the workers was unlawful but taking into account all the circumstances which led to these sit-ins the workers deserve sympathy. The court would not like legal technicalities to defeat ends of justice in industrial relations.

The court in making its award in this dispute has taken into account the fact that it took the respondents' employees over eight years to be paid their wage increases and other allowances.

The court having found that both parties were at fault in not applying to the court for interpretation of the court award in good time has decided to apportion the blame between them. As a result, the court confirms the Ministry's recommendation that the grievant's dismissal should be reduced to normal termination which would entitle them to their terminal benefits and in addition they should be paid two months salary by way of compensation for the wrongful dismissal they suffered and the court so awards.

Given at Nairobi on 29th December, 1987.

GAZETTE NOTICE No. 103

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE No. 119 OF 1986

Parties:

Kenya Union of Commercial Food and Allied Workers
and Gilbeys East Africa Limited

Issue in Dispute:

Dismissal of Richard Maluta.

THE Kenya Union of Commercial Food and Allied Workers shall hereinafter be referred to as the claimants and the Gilbeys East Africa Limited shall hereinafter be referred to as the respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on 30th November, 1987, and relied on their written and verbal submissions. Previous to this the hearing was fixed for 28th April, and 27th July, 1987.

AWARD

3. The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 15th February, 1986, duly signed by the parties was received by the court on 17th December, 1876, together with the statutory certificates signed by the Labour Commissioner and the Minister for Labour.

After careful consideration of all the submissions advanced by the parties the court finds that Mr. Maluta had worked diligently for the respondents for 17 years without receiving any warning letter. The court also notes that the respondents had no complaint against him apart from the immediate incident of his dismissal and the respondents had offered to re-employ him as a new employee.

The grievant's dismissal in this case has much to do with the problem of smoking by the respondents' employees in the restricted area and the claimants' letter to them dated 24th July, 1984, objecting to the fining system which had been introduced by the respondents. The relevant parts of the letter read:

"With regard to the overall question of smoking in prohibited areas, please do not think for a moment that we condone such practices. There are of course, other proper disciplinary measures that can be taken against employees who wilfully disobey such rules. We do hope, however, that there are clearly legible signs denoting such prohibited areas.

Lastly, I note with interest your claim that the matter arose because our shopsteward is this time the culprit. Although I was not aware of this I have no reason to doubt your word. Notwithstanding this disclosure, we hereby call upon all the shopstewards to collectively impress it upon our members that smoking in prohibited areas may call for disciplinary measures against them. If they have any problems in connection therewith they are free to call on us for further discussion/advise".

It was as a result of this letter that the grievant with 17 years service was summarily dismissed when he was caught smoking in the restricted area. The court cannot rule out the possibility that the respondents were peeved by the claimants' aforesaid letters and also that they were determined to take drastic action which would be a deterrent to all workers, and stop them from smoking in the restricted area. There is no doubt that the respondents had placed a "no smoking" notice in the ablation block and the fact that the grievant smoked in the restricted area is not disputed.

The court has taken all these points and the parties attempts at the Ministry of Labour level to settle this dispute in making its award.

The court awards that Mr. Maluta's dismissal should be reduced to normal termination in terms of the parties collective agreement and he should also be paid all his terminal benefits. In addition he should be paid two months salary by way of compensation as summary dismissal under the circumstances was harsh indeed.

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE No. 18 OF 1987

Parties:

Transport and Allied Workers Union
and
E. A. Overland Transport Co. Ltd.

Issue in Dispute:

Termination of service of A. S. Fondo.

THE Transport and Allied Workers Union shall hereinafter be referred to as the claimants and E.A. Overland Transport Company Limited shall hereinafter be referred to as the respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on 17th August, 1987, and 10th December, 1987, and in addition to relying on their written and verbal submissions called the following witnesses to give evidence on oath:

The claimants—A. S. Fondo.

*The respondents—J. Kithuka.
S. Makokha.*

AWARD

3. The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 23rd October, 1986, duly signed by the parties was received by the court on 26th March, 1987, together with the statutory certificates signed by the Labour Commissioner and the Minister for Labour.

In this dispute the court finds it confirmed by both parties that, the respondents vehicle KJD 190 broke down with an engine knock at Taru which is 70 kms. away from Voi town and the court's main concern is to establish if Mr. Fondo was responsible for the vehicle's mechanical break down.

The court finds it difficult to believe the claimants' version of evidence that the respondents chose a defective vehicle among their fleet of trucks to transport 4½ tons of petrol all the way to Voi a distant of 162 kms. up country. The court cannot also overlook the fact that the vehicle in question was fairly old—so it is possible that it completely broke down on the journey to Voi and back. The respondents' witness, J. Kithuka, stated in court that on the journey back from Voi when a noise started in the engine, Mr. Fondo stopped the vehicle and both of them checked the engine but could not find any fault. They then proceeded but the noise increased and they stopped at Taru where they slept. The next day after they had telephoned Mombasa another vehicle came from Mombasa and KJD 190 was towed. Later this witness said that after the first stop he had suggested to Mr. Fondo to stop but he did not do so.

After evaluating the evidence of the witnesses the court cannot come to a positive conclusion that Mr. Fondo was solely responsible for the breakdown of KJD 190. The court feels that the Ministry of Labour's finding should be upheld in this dispute and the court accordingly awards that on top of terminal benefits on a normal termination Mr. Fondo should get three months salary by way of compensation for having suffered a wrongful termination of service. The grievant was earning Sh. 1,416 per month.

CAUSE No. 26 OF 1987

Parties:

Kenya Timber & Furniture Workers Union
and
McCraes Limited

Issue in Dispute:

Dismissal of Stephen Nguku.

THE Kenya Timber and Furniture Workers Union shall hereinafter be referred to as the claimants and McCraes Limited shall hereinafter be referred to as the respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on 3rd December, 1987, and relied on their written and verbal submissions. In addition the following witnesses were called to give evidence on oath.

The claimants—Stephen Nguku.

*The respondents—S. Kalsi.
C. Andago.
N. Osimbo.*

AWARD

3. The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 15th May, 1986, signed by the parties was received by the court on 7th April, 1987, together with the statutory certificates signed by the Labour Commissioner and the Minister for Labour.

After a careful evaluation of the evidence tendered, the court finds that the manner in which the stock-checking was carried out was questionable. The court notes that the G-clamp was found on a bench where Mr. Nguku was working with a Mr. Atieno but only Mr. Nguku was questioned about the matter. Mr. Kalsi said Mr. Atieno was absent that day but the respondents two other witnesses said that Mr. Atieno was on duty and was present on his work table at the time of the search. Mr. Atieno who was Mr. Nguku's tablemate and who would have been a key witness was not called to come and testify. Again the respondents involving a former shop steward in a serious matter like this one in a place of work where there were other 50 employees including an assistant shop steward did not help the situation either. In these circumstances, the court finds that the respondents allegation against Mr. Nguku to have been far fetched. Moreover since all the new 25 G-clamps were missing showed that there was something wrong in the workshop as far as security of the respondents' property was concerned—surely Mr. Nguku was not responsible for the loss of all 25 G-clamps.

Under the circumstances the court finds that Mr. Nguku has suffered a wrongful dismissal. The court awards that, Mr. Nguku's summary dismissal be reduced to normal termination which should entitle him to all his lawful dues under the parties collective agreement. In addition, he should be paid Sh. 500 for some of his own tools he left behind in the workshop and 2½ months salary by way of compensation for loss of service.

GAZETTE NOTICE NO. 106

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE No. 41 OF 1987

Parties:

Tailors & Textiles Workers Union
and

Londra Limited (Knitting Factory)

Issues in Dispute:

Annual leave.
House and House allowance.
Minimum Wages.
General wage increase.

THE Tailors and Textiles Workers Union shall hereinafter be referred to as the claimants and Londra Limited (Knitting Factory) shall hereinafter be referred to as the respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on 26th November, 1987, and relied on their written and verbal submissions.

AWARD

3. The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 24th February, 1987, duly signed by the parties was received by the court on 23rd June, 1987, together with the statutory certificate signed by the Labour Commissioner.

Annual leave

The court feels that the current 24 annual leave days are adequate for the employees and has decided to reject the claimants' demand.

House allowance

The court has carefully considered this issue of housing allowance and finds that the claimants' demand will culminate to an additional Sh. 5,980 per month as compared to Sh. 2,300 additional labour cost per month arising from the respondents' offer. In view of this court awards that all the unionizable employees should get Sh. 280 per month as housing allowance.

Minimum Wages and General Wage Increase

The court has carefully considered the points raised by the parties in this dispute and has taken note of the fact that the respondents have created over 100 new jobs from a total of 22 employees in 1984 to a total of 140 in 1987 within the two year period under review. The court commands the respondents for this. It is obvious that with the increased labour force there is a correlation increase in the labour costs as well as over-head costs of the respondents. It is not desirable to increase these labour costs as demanded by the claimants and the court has decided to award increases of 8.0 per cent and 6.0 per cent for the first and second year on the basic minimum wages.

The court has carefully considered the issue of general wage increases and finds that the claimants' demand of Sh. 100 or 10.2 per cent per year or a total of 20.4 per cent for the two-year period is beyond the permissible wage compensation ceiling of 15.7 per cent for the two years. The court has considered the respondents' offer of 6.6 per cent per year and finds that the offer is slightly less than what the workers entitlement is under the wages guidelines.

The court has decided to award the employees what is their entitlement under the guideline and awards that the respondents should grant their employees a general wage increase of 8.0 per cent for the first year and a further 8.0 per cent increase for the second year of the agreement.

GAZETTE NOTICE No. 107THE INDUSTRIAL COURT
CAUSE No. 44 OF 1987Parties :

Datini Mercantile Limited
and

Kenya Engineering Workers Union

Issues in Dispute :

- General Wage Increases.
- Housing Allowance.
- Transport of the Workers.
- Retirement Benefits.
- Casual Workers.
- Leave Travelling Allowance.

THE Kenya Engineering Workers Union shall hereinafter be referred to as the claimants and Datini Mercantile Limited shall hereinafter be referred to as the respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on 13th November, 1987, and relied on their written and verbal submissions.

AWARD

3. The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 26th March, 1987, duly signed by the parties was received by the court on 30th June, 1987, together with the statutory certificate signed by the Labour Commissioner.

The court has carefully considered the various points put forward by the parties and notes that the respondents have an accumulated loss of Sh. 5,261,948 by 1986. In addition they are repaying outstanding loans of nearly Sh. 13 million in foreign currency and some Sh. 8 million belonging to the directors. The respondents have strengthened their management team on the recommendation of Industrial Development Bank with the result that the top management now is about ten. The claimants were right in saying that the salaries of all the additional members of management were being paid by the respondents and not Industrial Development Bank. The respondents have started manufacturing ploughs, spades and so on, but their products are not in the market yet. The respondents are nearing the completion of a contract with Kenya Posts & Telecommunications Corporation under which they made 500 telephone booths for them and are expecting another contract for 7,000 telephone booths which contract would last for 30 months.

General Wage Increases

The court awards a wage increase of 9 per cent for the first year and an increase of 8 per cent for the second year during the two-year duration of the collective agreement. These increases should be effective from 1st January, 1986, and 1st January, 1987.

House allowance

The court awards that every employee shall get a house allowance of 20 per cent of his/her salary per month instead of the previous 15 per cent.

Transport of the workers

The court notes that the claimants' demand on transport of the workers would lead to an additional expense of Sh. 11,400 per month. In view of the wages and house allowance increases the court finds the claimants' demand unreasonable and accordingly this demand is rejected. There is no merit in it.

Retirement Benefits

The court notes that this is a new demand that the claimants want introduced in the parties' collective agreement. At present the employees on retirement are entitled to N.S.S.F. dues which implies that the claimants' demand is for another retirement benefit to run parallel to the N.S.S.F.

The court has come to the conclusion that there is no justification for this demand due to the respondents' financial position. The court accordingly rejects the claimants' demand on this issue.

Leave travelling allowance

At present the employees are entitled to Sh. 220 as leave travelling allowance. The respondents have proposed an increase of Sh. 30 and the claimants have demanded an increase of Sh. 130 per employee.

The court awards that the present leave allowance be increased to Sh. 300 per employee.

Casual Workers

The claimants made a scathing attack on the respondents for exploiting workers by engaging them as casuals year after year. They pointed out the respondents employ about 59 permanent employees and against this they employ 118 casual workers on a continuous basis for years—sometimes for more than three years.

The claimants have demanded that all casuals should be converted to permanent terms with retrospective effect.

The court notes that the respondents' position on this matter is to leave it to the Government, COTU and Federation of Kenya Employers to come out with a solution and the court should leave the matter pending for the time being.

The Department of Manpower Planning and Development report confirms that at present there are 103 casual workers employed by the respondents. They have been working as casuals as follows: one from 1981, two from 1982, three from 1983, 14 from 1984, 12 from 1985 and all the rest from 1986 and 1987.

The court has given anxious thought to this state of affairs and the claimants' demand and the contract which the respondents secured from Kenya Posts & Telecommunication Corporation and that there is a likelihood of a second contract as well.

The court awards that all the casual workers employed by the respondents and who are still with them from 1981, 1982, 1983 and 1984 should be converted to monthly terms with effect from 1st January, 1988, provided that such casual workers have worked for the respondents for a period of at least three months continuously each year from the date they started working for the respondents. This point is to be determined by the office of the Chief Industrial Relations Officer, Ministry of Labour after scrutinizing the respondents' employment records.

THE following notes are for the guidance of persons submitting "copy" for inclusion in the Kenya Gazette, Supplement, etc.:

- (1) The Kenya Gazette contains notices of a general nature which do not affect legislation. They are, therefore, submitted to the Government Printer directly.
- (2) Legislative Supplement contains Rules and Regulations which are issued by the Central Government. Because of this they must be submitted to the Government Printer through the office of the Attorney-General.
- (3) Bill Supplement contains Bills which are for introduction in the National Assembly.
- (4) Act Supplement contains Acts passed by the National Assembly.

All "copy" submitted for publication should be prepared on one side of an A4 sheet no matter how small the notice or Act, each page being numbered, and should be typewritten with double spacing. Copy should be clear, legible and contain a minimum of alterations.

Particular attention should be paid to the following points:

- (i) Signature must be clarified by means of rubber-stamping or typing the name of the signer in capital letters.
- (ii) Dates must be correct and filled in where necessary.
- (iii) Care should be taken to ensure that all headings to notices and references to legislation are up to date and conform with the Revised Edition of the Laws of Kenya.

EXTRACT FROM THE CODE OF REGULATIONS, SECTION D—

Kenya Gazette

"D 41. (1) Communications for the Kenya Gazette should reach the Government Printer not later than 9 a.m., on Friday of the week before publication is desired. The Government Printer will not publish communications received after that hour until the next subsequent issue of the Gazette.

(2) It will facilitate work at the Press if Permanent Secretaries will forward Gazette notices to the Government Printer when ready."

It is emphasized that these notes are for guidance only, but it is requested that persons submitting copy for publication first satisfy themselves that such copy is complete in every respect.
