GAZETTE NOTICE No. 2201

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE NO. 19 OF 1968

Parties:—

Kenya Game Hunting and Safari Workers' Union and

East African Professional Hunters' Association

Issues in dispute:—

(1) Wages.

(2) Effective date and duration of agreement.

(3) Was an agreement reached on Severance Pay, Overtime and House Allowance. In the event of there not being an agreement the Court to rule on these issues as well.

1. The Kenya Game Hunting and Safari Workers' Union shall hereinafter be referred to as the Claimants and the East African Professional Hunters' Association shall hereinafter be referred to as the Respondents.

2. The Parties were heard in Nairobi on the 12th day of June 1968. The Claimants relied on their written and verbal submissions and the Respondents in addition to their written and verbal submissions called one witness.

AWARD

The sequence of events leading up to this dispute which appears under the general background hereinabove clearly shows that the Claimants, right from the very beginning, were at a complete loss as to their stand on the various issues involved in finalizing the first comprehensive agreement covering wages and terms and conditions of service of the Respondents' employees. During the various meetings held between the Parties the Claimants would come to certain agreement with the Respondents only to back out of it at the next meeting. The Claimants' confused approach during negotiations in this dispute was either due to inexperience or deliberate, but the fact remains that the negotiations had dragged on for months entirely due to their unfortunate tactics.

On the evidence before it the Court is satisfied that the issues of severance pay, overtime and house allowance were either settled or eliminated during negotiations.

The fact that at one stage in March 1968, the Parties had referred their dispute to the Industrial Court on the issues of wages, effective date and duration of agreement only clearly shows that all the other matters had been settled. It was unfortunate that the Parties had used an obsolete form which the Industrial Court had to reject. Subsequently the Claimants had tried to revive these three issues again. The Court cannot allow this. Accordingly the Court finds that the only issues in dispute are wages, effective date and duration of agreement.

During the hearing the Claimants produced a list of job titles in the hunting industry along with the current rates per month being paid to the workers engaged on these jobs. The Respondents totally rejected these on the ground that both the job titles and the rates were not correct. In the absence of any tangible evidence and on account of lack of substantiation by the Claimants, the Court must reject their list of job titles and the rates in respect of them. The Court has no alternative but to accept the list produced by the Respondents which appears hereinbelow along with the rates offered by them in respect of each:—

	Per Month	Per Week	Per Day
	Sh. cts.	Sh. cts.	Sh. cts.
Domestic and Safari:—
Cooks ..	250 00	68 60	11 40
Assistant Cook and Mess ..
Waiter ..	227 50	63 05	10 45
Tent/Mess Attendant ..	207 50	57 50	9 55
Tent/Mess Attendant 2 ..	187 50	51 80	8 60
Kitchen Hand ..	167 50	46 10	7 65
Drivers ..	310 00	86 00	14 30
Gunbearers ..	250 00	68 60	11 40
Gunbearers 2 ..
Porters ..	187 50	51 80	8 60
General:—
Clerks ..	410 00	113 00	18 80
Mechanics ..	360 00	98 90	16 45

Watchman ..
Store Labourers ..	182 50	50 60	8 40
Messengers ..
Sweepers ..

The Court has carefully considered the above offer and the submission in support thereof against the Claimants' demands which are as follows:—

	Present Wages	Claimants Proposed Wages
1. Mechanic I 1,000	Sh. 1,025
2. Mechanic II 700	1,000
3. Mechanic Ungraded 570	900
4. Driver Truck 550	800
5. Driver Car 430	600
6. Clerk 565	600
7. Storekeeper 590	700
8. Office Messenger 180	250
9. Tailor 225	380
10. Laundry 340	360
11. Carpenter 330	450
12. Sweeper 240	300
13. Caretaker (Animal) 265	500
14. Animal Feeders 260	450
15. Watchmen 290	350
16. Day Watchmen 260	300
17. Painter 450	600
18. Storeman 370	500
19. Headman 390	700
20. Cook 300	600
21. Assistant Cook 240	450
22. Gunbearer 450	800
23. Skinner 390	800
24. Tentman 300	400
25. Porter 240	350
26. Mechanic III 985
27. Trapper 240	450

The Court finds that the Claimants' demands are unrealistic. On the other hand, the Court finds the Respondents' offer needs to be increased slightly. The Court has, therefore, decided to award that the rates for the job titles as offered by the Respondents as they appear hereinabove should be increased by a sum of Sh. 18 and further that this increase should be reflected in the weekly and daily rates.

On the issue of effective date the Court has decided that in view of the unnecessarily long delay which has occurred during negotiations for which the Claimants are to be blamed, that the Respondents should not be penalized by excessive backdating as from 1st November 1967. The Court awards that the effective date should be 1st March 1968 and that the agreement should remain in force for a period of two years from that date.

Given in Nairobi this 11th day of July 1968.

Wages paid to employees in Category (a) above will, therefore, be increased by the amounts shown above according to their grades.

PROVIDED THAT employees in Category (b) above shall receive increases which are exactly half the amounts by which the basic wages for their grades are being increased; and FURTHER PROVIDED THAT employees in Category (c) above shall only receive increases that may be necessary to bring their wages up to the level of the wages which will, as a result of this award, be payable to employees in Category (b).

The Court would like to impress on the Parties the desirability of having all Unionizable staff earning the negotiated rate for the job. The above award is a step in this direction and it is hoped that during the next wage negotiations the Parties will be able to achieve it.

(2) Working Hours

Nil award.

If, within the 12 months period, the employee commits a similar or any other offence which does not warrant dismissal, he will be further warned in writing in his employment record card, and the two warnings shall remain valid for a period of 12 months from the date of the second warning. If, within this 12 months period the employee commits a further offence which does not warrant dismissal, he will be issued with a final letter of warning which will make him liable to summary dismissal for any other offence which he may commit thereafter. A final letter of warning will remain valid for a period of one year from the date of issue. A copy of the final warning shall be sent to the General Secretary of the Union.

(8) Termination of Service

GAZETTE NOTICE No. 2206

THE TRADE MARKS ACT
(Cap. 506)

NOTICE is hereby given that any person who has grounds of opposition to the registration of any of the trade marks advertised herein according to the classes may, within 60 days from the date of this Gazette, lodge notice of opposition on Form T.M. No. 6 (in duplicate) together with a fee of Sh. 50.

Notice is also hereby given that official objection will be taken under rule 21 (3) to all applications in which the specification claims all the goods included in any class unless the Registrar is satisfied that the claim is justified by the use of the mark which the applicant has made, or intends to make if and when it is registered. Where an applicant considers that a claim in respect of all the goods included in a class can be justified it will save unnecessary delay in examining applications if a claim is filed simultaneously with the application, accompanied in appropriate cases by supporting documents.

The period for lodging notice of opposition may be extended by the Registrar as he thinks fit and upon such terms as he may direct. Any request for such extension should be made to the Registrar so as to reach him before the expiry of the period allowed.

Formal opposition should not be lodged until after reasonable notice has been given by letter to the applicant for registration so as to afford him any opportunity of withdrawing his application before the expense of preparing the notice of opposition is incurred. Failure to give such notice will be taken into account in considering any application by an opponent for an order for costs if the opposition is uncontested by the applicant.

Where it is stated in the advertisement of the applicant that the mark, upon its registration, is to be limited to certain colours, the colours are, as far as possible, indicated in the accompanying representations of the mark in the usual heraldic manner.

Representations of the marks advertised herein can be seen at the Trade Marks Registry, State Law Offices, Nairobi.

Applications for registration in Part A of the Register are shown with the official number unaccompanied by any letter. Applications for Part B are distinguished by the letter B prefixed to the official number.
