THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE NO. 113 OF 1985

Parties:

Railways and Harbours Union (K)

and

Kenya Railways Corporation

Issue in dispute:

Failure and/or refusal by the Kenya Railways to pay 28 months' salary to Philip Rono, yard foreman grade RB. V, following the quashing of his conviction and sentence by the High Court of Kenya.

THE Railways and Harbours Union (K) shall hereinafter be referred to as the claimants and Kenya Railways Corporation shall hereinafter be referred to as the respondents.

2. This dispute was referred to the court by the Minister for Labour under section 8 of the Trade Disputes Act on 4th October, 1985, it was mentioned on 22nd November, 1985, and the court fixed a further mention for 4th March, 1986, to fix a hearing date.

On 4th March, 1986, the dispute was again mentioned and the hearing date fixed for 18th June, 1986. On 17th June, 1986, before the hearing date the claimants requested the court that they were not prepared to proceed with the hearing as scheduled and that the dispute be mentioned on 6th October, 1986.

When it came up for mention on 6th October, the parties requested the dispute to be mentioned on 19th December, 1986.

On 9th October, 1986, the respondents forwarded an agreement of settlement by parties to the court and requested the court to make an award by consent.

AWARD

3. By consent of the parties the court awards as follows:

(a) That Mr. Rono will be paid the half salary retained during his period of interdiction, i.e. from 4th February, 1977 to 1st September, 1977.

(b) That Mr. Rono is not entitled to any payment for the period 2nd September, 1977 to 3rd November, 1978, when he was in prison and the time taken by his advocates to notify the respondents of the result of the appeal.

(c) That Mr. Rono be paid for the period 4th November, 1978 to 20th June, 1979. This represents the period taken to consider Mr. Rono's case and the decision to reinstate him less one month. In effect payment to be made from 4th December, 1978 to 20th June, 1979.

(d) That Mr. Rono is not entitled to any payment for the period 21st June, 1979 to 5th July, 1979, the period taken by Mr. Rono to report for duty.

(e) That Mr. Rono be granted annual increments due to him. This has in effect been done and no further payment should be made to him as he reached the maximum of his grade on 1st January, 1979.

The court further rules that the above award is in full and final settlement of this dispute.

Given on the 16th October, 1986.

SAEED R. COCKAR,
Judge.

GAZETTE NOTICE NO. 4574

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE NO. 9 OF 1986

Parties:

Kenya Plantation and Agricultural Workers Union
and
Kenya Tea Development Authority

Issue in dispute:

Termination of services of Joyce Nyambura.

THE Kenya Plantation and Agricultural Workers Union shall hereinafter be referred to as the claimants and Kenya Tea Development Authority shall hereinafter be referred to as the respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on 24th July, 18th and 19th September, 1986, and in addition to relying on their written and verbal submissions they called the following witnesses:

Claimants.—Joyce Nyambura and Roda Kathini Maloba.

Respondents.—Lydia Nyota, John Njoroge and Kamithi Ng'ang'a.

AWARD

3. The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 4th August, 1985, duly signed by the parties was received by the court on 21st January, 1986 together with the statutory certificates signed by the Minister for Labour and the Labour Commissioner.

The grievant, Joyce Nyambura, was employed by the respondents on 4th July, 1980, as a cleaner and was thereafter assigned the duties of tea-maker. The grievant was summarily dismissed on 14th October, 1983, for allegedly serving a senior officer with tea containing mucus.

The claimants strongly submitted that at the time of her dismissal she had no valid warning in her record. They further stated that the respondents had not properly investigated the incident before dismissing her.

The claimants stated that tea-making was being done by three persons including the grievant but the other two were never interviewed to establish the source of the mucus.

The claimants further submitted that the written statements given by Lydia Nyota, Kamithi Ng'ang'a and John Njoroge were given long after the dismissal of the grievant and on the instructions of the assistant general manager. They further told the court that the respondents had agreed to reinstate the grievant in a meeting which was held on 19th October, 1983, between the management and the shop stewards. The claimants stated that the allegations levelled against their member were not proved and that the procedure which was followed was not proper as the letter of dismissal was signed by the assistant general manager, whereas such cases are dealt with by the personnel department. The claimants strongly castigated the respondents for dismissing the grievant without giving her a chance to defend herself more so when she had denied the allegations. They requested the court to reinstate her without loss of benefits.

The respondents countered the claimants submissions by stating that the grievant was given a chance to defend herself but she chose to be quiet. They further stated that previously the grievant had been dismissed for stealing a packet of milk after a service of nearly two (2) years but was pardoned by the general manager on humanitarian grounds.

The respondents submitted that on the 14th October, 1983, the grievant served one of their officers with tea contaminated with mucus. They further submitted that the grievant was exhaustively interviewed in the presence of other members of staff but chose to be quiet.

The respondents strongly denied that they had accepted to reinstate her as alleged by the claimants. They submitted that they dismissed Miss Nyambura for gross misconduct which was management prerogative under section 17 (c) of the Employment Act.

The respondents further submitted that they never victimized the grievant but she was dismissed for performing her duties carelessly and therefore the question of whose mucus it was did not arise. They stated that three (3) employees had witnessed mucus in the cup.

The respondents stated that her failure to explain how the mucus got into the cup displayed the attribute of negligence or carelessness for an employee who performs duties requiring a higher standard of hygiene.

The court has carefully considered the various aspects of this dispute and the evidence tendered by the parties through their witnesses and finds that it is established quite clearly that there was mucus in the cup of tea which was served to John Njoroge and that it was sticking at the side in the middle of the cup.

The court further notes that there was no grudge at any time between the grievant and the officer in question which could make her do such a thing to him. The court was told that there is a team of tea-makers who serve tea and wash dishes and it is therefore difficult to pinpoint through whose act the mucus found its way in the cup. The only fault the court can find with the grievant is that she probably did not check the cup when she poured tea in it. If she had done so she would have noticed the unclean state of the cup. Because of this slight negligence, on her part the employer has treated her rather harshly and dismissed her on the grounds of serious gross misconduct. The respondents would have been well advised to interview the other tea-makers as well.

The court finds that the grievant deserved a letter of warning and not a dismissal.

The court has considered the request for her reinstatement but in view of this rather dirty accident the court feels that she would not be looked upon with favour by other employees. Under the circumstances the court finds that an award of compensation would meet the dictates of justice. The court accordingly awards that she, the grievant, should be given six (6) months' salary by way of compensation for the wrongful dismissal she suffered in addition to her normal entitlements under the collective agreement in force at the time.

Given at Nairobi the 16th October, 1986.

GAZETTE NOTICE NO. 4575

THE TRADE MARKS ACT

(Cap. 506)

NOTICE is given that any person who has grounds of opposition to the registration of any of the trade marks advertised herein according to the classes may, within sixty (60) days from the date of this Gazette, lodge notice of opposition on form TM. No. 6 (in duplicate) together with a fee of KSh. 50.

Notice is also given that official objection will be taken under rule 21 (3) to all applications in which the specification claims all the goods included in any class unless the registrar is satisfied that the claim is justified by the use of the mark which the applicant has made, or intends to make if and when it is registered. Where an applicant considers that a claim in respect of all the goods included in a class can be justified it will save unnecessary delay in examining applications if a claim is filed simultaneously with the application, accompanied in appropriate cases by supporting documents.

The period for lodging notice of opposition may be extended by the registrar as he thinks fit and upon such terms as he may direct. Any request for such extension should be made to the registrar so as to reach him before the expiry of the period allowed.

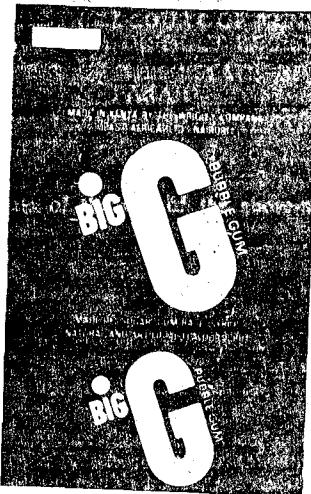

Formal opposition should not be lodged until after reasonable notice has been given by letter to the applicant for registration so as to afford him an opportunity of withdrawing his application before the expense of preparing the notice of opposition is incurred. Failure to give such notice will be taken into account in considering any application by an opponent for an order for costs if the opposition is uncontested by the applicant.

Where it is stated in the advertisement of the applicant that the mark, upon its registration, is to be limited to certain colours, the colours are, as far as possible, indicated in the accompanying representations of the mark in the usual heraldic manner.

Representations of the marks advertised herein can be seen at the Trade Marks Registry, State Law Office, Nairobi.

Applications for registration in part A of the register are shown with the official number unaccompanied by any letter. Applications for part B are distinguished by the letter 'B' prefixed to the official number.
