GAZETTE NOTICE No. 2019

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE NO. 20 OF 1968

Parties:—

E.A. Federation of Building and Construction Workers' Union and
H. Young & Company (E.A.) Limited

Issue in dispute:—

Alleged wrongful dismissal of Mr. Mungai, shop steward.

1. The E.A. Federation of Building and Construction Workers' Union shall hereinafter be referred to as the Claimants and H. Young & Company (E.A.) Limited shall hereinafter be referred to as the Respondents.

2. The Parties were heard in Nairobi on the 10th day of June 1968, and relied on their written and verbal submissions.

AWARD

Mr. Mungai, who was employed by the Respondents as a fitter was elected as the Chief Shop-steward in 1967 and in April he was elected the Claimants' Branch Treasurer. It is alleged by the Claimants that the Respondents were not happy at this. In view of the letter written by the Respondents' Director and General Manager to Mr. Mungai on 29th August 1967, the Court is convinced that the allegation is true. The following three paragraphs appear in this letter:—

"We do not believe that you can satisfactorily perform your duties as a plater whilst you are employed in an official capacity by an organization other than H. Young & Co. (E.A.) Ltd.

We recognize that you have every right to continue normal activities as a shop-steward whilst in the Company's employment but we cannot continue to employ you while you are also occupied in carrying out your additional duties as Nairobi Branch Treasurer for the Union.

Please consider the above carefully and inform us of your decision regarding your future Union activities so that we may act accordingly."

The Court has noted that until the incident of 11th October 1967, which will be mentioned hereinafter there had been no complaints against Mr. Mungai either relating to his work or otherwise. In fact he has risen from an ordinary labourer to the job of a fitter.

After his election as Branch Treasurer and the exchange of letters between him, the Respondents and the Claimants, the matter rested at the letter written by the Claimants' General Secretary to the Respondents' Director and General Manager dated 5th September 1967. The Court, therefore, has drawn the conclusion that the Respondents, whatever their feelings in the matter, accepted the situation.

On 11th October 1967, a foreman at the Respondents' work place engaged four casual labourers who had not worked with them previously. Mr. Mungai objected to their recruitment and the foreman sent them out and engaged those men who had worked before. On Mr. Kemp's complaint to the Director and General Manager, Mr. Mungai was summoned to the latter's office where a heated argument took place—the Director and General Manager alleged that Mr. Mungai was interfering in the Management affairs. This was denied by Mr. Mungai who wanted the matter discussed. He was, however, ordered by the Director and General Manager to leave his office which he refused. Later on that day at about 11 a.m. his services were terminated forthwith. This resulted in a strike by all the workers and the strike lasted until 18th October 1967, when the following return to work formula was agreed between the Parties:—

"At a meeting held today in the Ministry of Labour under the Chairmanship of Mr. G. K. Murengi, Chief Industrial Relations Officer, it was agreed—

- (1) that all workers return to work immediately;
- (2) that an independent investigator be appointed by the Ministry of Labour to investigate the reasons—
 - (a) for the dismissal of Mr. Moses Mungai the shop steward;
- (3) that Mr. Mungai be suspended on full pay pending the findings of the investigation; and
- (4) no victimization on either side for striking, sympathizing, or not taking part in the strike."

Prior to this settlement the Director and General Manager had written a letter to the Permanent Secretary, Ministry of Labour, on 18th October 1967, in which the following paragraph appears:—

"We also confirm that at a meeting held at the Industrial Area Labour Office under the Chairmanship of Mr. Kabuki, on 13th October 1967, we were prepared to agree with the following return to work formula suggested by Mr. Kabuki:—

'That the workers return to work except Mr. Mungai who would be suspended on full pay pending an inquiry to be conducted by an independent body into the terms of his dismissal. Mr. Mungai's wages would be held by the Labour Office pending the findings of the inquiry and if it was proved that he was wrongfully dismissed he would be handed his wages and fully reinstated in the Company.'

However, the Union would not agree to this suggestion and insisted that Mr. Mungai be reinstated pending an inquiry."

The Court is satisfied from the above and the return to work formula that it was agreed between the Parties that if Mr. Mungai's services were terminated wrongfully he would be fully reinstated in his job. The Respondents, however, have construed this to mean that the investigator was to determine merely whether or not the Respondents had complied with their contractual obligations when terminating Mr. Mungai's services. The Court cannot accept this interpretation as an investigator is not required to determine the Parties' contractual rights. The investigator was to find out exactly what led to the dismissal of Mr. Mungai. The investigator (Miss Mbuya) in her exhaustive report in para. 5 says as follows:—

"It would appear, therefore, that Mr. Mungai rightly or wrongly assumed that he had been called by Mr. Stobbs for discussion as a shop-steward and not as an employee of the Company. This assumption led him to believe that he had every right to be given a hearing by Mr. Stobbs in his capacity as workers' representative. The Managing Director, on the other hand, maintained that Mr. Mungai had been called to the office as an employee to be warned against unnecessarily interfering with the recruitment of casual labour in contravention of the terms of the agreement of 23rd September 1966. It will be seen from the foregoing that there was a serious misunderstanding on the rights of each other. Mr. Mungai can be blamed for acting in a stubbornly manner by refusing to leave the office, and similarly Mr. Stobbs can also be blamed for having mistreated Mr. Mungai when reported to his office. Had Mr. Stobbs taken the trouble to explain the terms of the agreement to Mr. Mungai perhaps the whole incident would not have occurred."

The Court is not concerned with Miss Mbuya's recommendations but must take into consideration her findings which are that as a result of a serious misunderstanding Mr. Mungai was ordered to leave the Director and General Manager's office which he refused to do claiming that at that particular moment he was in the office as a shop-steward.

The Respondents submit that these findings clearly prove that Mr. Mungai refused a lawful order of the Director and General Manager, and therefore, the termination of his services was justified. But they overlook the other part of the findings which are in favour of Mr. Mungai that is that the Director and General Manager could also be blamed for having mistreated Mr. Mungai when he reported to his office.

After a careful scrutiny of all the facts and submissions the Court has come to the conclusion that Mr. Mungai's Union activities have led to his dismissal. Had the incident of 11th October 1967, not been preceded by earlier exchange of correspondence on the election of Mr. Mungai as the Claimants' Branch Treasurer, the matter would never have gone this far.

The Respondents have strongly submitted that they have not only terminated Mr. Mungai's services properly but have, in fact, been quite generous to him in payment of wages, etc. They requested the Court, therefore, to find that Mr. Mungai's services were not terminated wrongfully.

As far as the legal argument goes this probably is a correct submission but the Court must find that Mr. Mungai has been victimized due to his Union activities and that the termination of his services in the circumstances is an unfair labour practice.

On the evidence before it the Court finds that the Respondents had agreed to reinstate Mr. Mungai if the reasons for his dismissal were not good enough. The Court has already referred to the investigator's findings and is of the view that the incident of the 11th October 1967, viewed in its proper perspective is not a sufficient reason to entitle the Respondents to terminate Mr. Mungai's services.

In these circumstances the Court finds that the Respondents must keep and honour the undertaking they have given and reinstate Mr. Mungai without any loss of salary and other rights and privileges.

The issue in dispute is answered by the Court's findings that Mr. Mungai's dismissal was wrong.

Given in Nairobi this 28th day of June 1968.

President.

P. L. LUBULELLAH,

THE TRADE MARKS ACT
(Cap. 506)

NOTICE is hereby given that any person who has grounds of opposition to the registration of any of the trade marks advertised herein according to the classes may, within 60 days from the date of this Gazette, lodge notice of opposition on Form T.M. No. 6 (in duplicate) together with a fee of Sh. 50.

Notice is also hereby given that official objection will be taken under rule 21 (3) to all applications in which the specification claims all the goods included in any class unless the Registrar is satisfied that the claim is justified by the use of the mark which the applicant has made, or intends to make if and when it is registered. Where an applicant considers that a claim in respect of all the goods included in a class can be justified it will save unnecessary delay in examining applications if a claim is filed simultaneously with the application, accompanied in appropriate cases by supporting documents.

The period for lodging notice of opposition may be extended by the Registrar as he thinks fit and upon such terms as he may direct. Any request for such extension should be made to the Registrar so as to reach him before the expiry of the period allowed.

Formal opposition should not be lodged until after reasonable notice has been given by letter to the applicant for registration so as to afford him any opportunity of withdrawing his application before the expense of preparing the notice of opposition is incurred. Failure to give such notice will be taken into account in considering any application by an opponent for an order for costs if the opposition is uncontested by the applicant.

Where it is stated in the advertisement of the applicant that the mark, upon its registration, is to be limited to certain colours, the colours are, as far as possible, indicated in the accompanying representations of the mark in the usual heraldic manner.

Representations of the marks advertised herein can be seen at the Trade Marks Registry, State Law Offices, Nairobi.

Applications for registration in Part A of the Register are shown with the official number unaccompanied by any letter. Applications for Part B are distinguished by the letter B prefixed to the official number.
