Issues in dispute:—

- (1) Service Gratuity.
- (2) House Allowance.

1. The Kenya Shoe and Leather Workers' Union shall herein-after be referred to as the Claimants and Dragon Tanning Company Limited shall hereinafter be referred to as the Respondents.

2. The Parties were heard in Nairobi on the 16th day of January 1967, and relied on their written and verbal submissions.

GENERAL BACKGROUND

3. In Cause No. 37 of 1965 between the Parties hereto the Court made the following award in respect of Service Gratuity:—

"The agreement on this issue which exists between the Parties is an unusual one and is not in line with the general trend. The Court is satisfied that the Claimants have made out a good case for the revision of this agreement and considers that there are exceptional circumstances to warrant this."

The Court, therefore, awards as follows:—

In the event of termination of service, other than by resignation of the employee, the employee shall be entitled to:

- (a) Seven days' pay for every completed year of service up to five years;
- (b) ten days' pay for every completed year of service after five years and up to and including the tenth year of service;
- (c) fifteen days' pay for each completed year of service after the tenth year of service."

In October 1966, the Claimants forwarded their various demands including wages to the Respondents and agreement was reached on all items except the two in dispute. The matter was referred to the Ministry of Labour as a trade dispute, but no conciliation was carried out and the Parties were recommended to take the dispute to the Industrial Court. Consequently, they signed the notification of dispute form on 5th December 1966, in accordance with the Trade Disputes Act 1965.

MAIN SUBMISSIONS ON BEHALF OF THE CLAIMANTS

4. (1) Service Gratuity.—The Claimants submitted that, they had asked for a further amendment to the Industrial Court award by the deletion of the words "other than by resignation of the employee" as they felt it was unfair and could work against the interest of an employee who, for genuine reasons wished to leave the employment in that, in these circumstances he would not be entitled to any gratuity. They rejected the suggestion that, if their demands were accepted, the workers would start resigning.

The Claimants cited the case of Bulleys Tanneries who had paid out the benefits which had accrued to their employees by way of service gratuity on account of the commencement of the National Social Security Fund. They also drew the Court's attention to the Industrial Court Cause No. 40 of 1966 in which the Court had not restricted the award of gratuity to termination of service due to retirement or at the instance of the employer. The Claimants stated that, their demand was in the alternative as they first preferred the Court to award that, all the money accrued to various employees under this benefit should be paid out to them immediately failing which, the Industrial Court award should be varied by the deletion of the words mentioned hereinabove. The Claimants conceded that, as per their Collective Bargaining Agreement, it was not easy for the Respondents to dismiss any of their employees and adequate machinery existed for dealing with cases of dismissal. They also pointed out that, the Respondents did not operate any provident fund scheme.

The Claimants also argued that, if an employee wished to resign from employment he should be paid gratuity for the number of years' service that he had rendered to the Respondents because, in accordance with the African way of life, the workers often wished to leave employment so that they could live on their farms.

(2) House Allowance.—The Claimants submitted that, Kenya was one of the advanced countries in East Africa today and, therefore, the workers expected to live in decent houses, but unfortunately, the Respondents were exploiting their workers as they were housed in groups of three in rooms which were 10 ft. by 16 ft. with the result that, the employees were separated from their families. The Claimants described these houses as stables and pointed out that, they had referred the matter to the Medical Officer of Health, Nairobi City Council and the Labour Officer and although the Respondents had been advised to build modern houses, they had completely ignored this advice. The Claimants felt that, the present houses should be allocated to one employee per room and he should be allowed to live with his family. All others who could not get houses should get Sh. 60 per month by way of house allowance. The Claimants stated that, non-Africans who were doing similar jobs as other African employees were allocated superior type of houses.

MAIN SUBMISSIONS ON BEHALF OF THE RESPONDENTS

5. (1) Service Gratuity.—The Respondents submitted that, during the course of joint negotiation on 31st October 1966, the Claimants had demanded that, all moneys which had accrued to employees under the Court's award in Cause No. 37 of 1965 should be paid out. The Respondents had rejected this demand as it was contrary to the published policy of the Government and drew the Court's attention to a statement issued following meetings between the Government and C.O.T.U. They argued that, the Court should not go against the published policy of the Government. The Respondents further argued that, the policies of the General Manager of the Bulleys Tanneries were hardly relevant to the present dispute. The Respondents drew the Court's attention to the various Industrial Court awards which were in line with the one made by the Court in Cause No. 37 of 1965. In these circumstances, bearing in mind that the Claimants had proved no cases of hardship, the Respondents requested the Court to reject the Claimants' demand. The Respondents pointed out that, the Claimants had repeatedly changed their stand on this issue as on 1st December 1966, they made another approach to secure the pay out of the moneys and demanded that, the Respondents should alter the Court's award by deleting the words "other than by resignation of the employee".

(2) House Allowance.—The Respondents submitted that, the Court had on previous occasions accepted the view that it was not the Court's function to be academic and each and every award must be a positive solution to a specific problem and this view could clearly be applied to the Claimants' demand on housing in this dispute as they had demanded that, employees who were not housed by the Respondents should receive an allowance of Sh. 60 per month. The Respondents maintained that, there was sufficient housing for all employees, therefore, the question of an allowance did not arise and if an employee wished to live elsewhere, then this must be a personal decision which in no way involved the Respondents.

The Respondents argued that, the other aspect regarding the conditions of the houses provided was that the Ministry of Labour had set down "minimum standards of housing" and the various local authorities were interested in housing provided by employers for their employees. In these circumstances to ask the Court to make an award in circumstances where a situation was adequately guarded by appropriate legislation enforced by officers of the Government Ministries, would appear to be a pointless exercise. They drew the Court's attention to Cause Nos. 24 and 60 of 1965 where the Court had expressed a similar view.

AWARD

6. The Court has very carefully considered the submissions and the evidence tendered by the Parties in support thereof before making its findings.

(1) Service Gratuity.—This issue was negotiated between the Parties on the 19th of June 1963, and following further negotiations, had been increased to the rates which existed prior to the Industrial Court Cause No. 37 of 1965 on 15th June 1964. The Court had then, as a result of its award in the said Cause No. 37 of 1965, varied it further. In these circumstances the Court finds that, as no exceptional circumstances have been pleaded by the Claimants for any further amendment, it has no other alternative but to make a nil award.

(2) House Allowance.—The Court rules that adequate legal provisions exist to ensure that workers are not housed in sub-standard accommodation or are not forced to live in over-crowded conditions. The Court can, therefore, do nothing more than to point out that, if the Claimants feel aggrieved, then they should take up this question with the appropriate authorities. In view of this the Court makes a nil award on this issue as well.

Given in Nairobi this 2nd day of February 1967.

GAZETTE NOTICE NO. 521

THE TRADE MARKS ACT
(Cap. 506)

NOTICE is hereby given that any person who has grounds of opposition to the registration of any of the trade marks advertised herein according to the classes may, within 60 days from the date of this Gazette, lodge notice of opposition on Form T.M. No. 6 (in duplicate) together with a fee of Sh. 50.

Notice is also hereby given that official objection will be taken under rule 21 (3) to all applications in which the specification claims all the goods included in any class unless the Registrar is satisfied that the claim is justified by the use of the mark which the applicant has made, or intends to make if and when it is registered. Where an applicant considers that a claim in respect of all the goods included in a class can be justified it will save unnecessary delay in examining applications if a claim is filed simultaneously with the application, accompanied in appropriate cases by supporting documents.

The period for lodging notice of opposition may be extended by the Registrar as he thinks fit and upon such terms as he may direct. Any request for such extension should be made to the Registrar so as to reach him before the expiry of the period allowed.

Formal opposition should not be lodged until after reasonable notice has been given by letter to the applicant for registration so as to afford him any opportunity of withdrawing his application before the expense of preparing the notice of opposition is incurred. Failure to give such notice will be taken into account in considering any application by an opponent for an order for costs if the opposition is uncontested by the applicant.

Where it is stated in the advertisement of the applicant that the mark, upon its registration, is to be limited to certain colours, the colours are, as far as possible, indicated in the accompanying representations of the mark in the usual heraldic manner.

Representations of the marks advertised herein can be seen at the Trade Marks Registry, State Law Offices, Nairobi.

Applications for registration in Part A of the Register are shown with the official number unaccompanied by any letter. Applications for Part B are distinguished by the letter B prefixed to the official number.
