THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE No. 90 OF 1983

Parties:

Kenya Union of Commercial Food and Allied Workers
and
Kenya Breweries Ltd.

Issue in dispute:

Dismissal of Godfrey Koira and Abdurahman Noor.

THE Kenya Union of Commercial Food and Allied Workers shall hereinafter be referred to as the claimants and Kenya Breweries Ltd. shall hereinafter be referred to as the respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on 15th and 17th February and 8th May, 1984, and in addition to relying on their written and verbal submissions called the following witnesses:

Claimants:

G. Koira.
A. Noor.
J. K. Njehia.

Respondents:

J. M. Thurainira.
M. F. Olaly.
L. Ruguaro.

AWARD

3. The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 20th April, 1983, duly signed by the parties was received by the court on 23rd September together with the statutory certificates signed by the court on 23rd September together with the statutory certificates signed by the Minister for Labour and the Labour Commissioner.

The two grievants Messrs. Koira and Noor used to work for the respondents as drivers. Mr. Koira started working for them on 1st August, 1974, and Mr. Noor on 16th April, 1975. Both were dismissed on 19th March, 1982. Their salary was KSh. 2,960 per month at the time of dismissal.

The reason for their dismissal was an allegation that they had siphoned diesel from company vehicle KMF 664 with intent to steal and sell the same on 17th March, 1983. They were suspended on 19th March and the respondents carried out thorough investigations into the whole incident and then gave them dismissal letters on 15th April, 1982, but the dismissal took effect from 19th March.

The claimants took up the matter on their behalf and the dispute was investigated by the Ministry of Labour whose findings was that they had been wrongfully dismissed and they should be reinstated back to their former jobs without loss of benefits or seniority. The ministry further recommended that they be paid half month's salary for each month since they had been out of employment. The respondents rejected the findings and the recommendations.

The facts of this dispute are that both the drivers went on official business to Meru on 16th March, 1982, in a lorry KMF 664 to which was attached a trailer Z8346. The respondents' security office, F. Olaly was on a safari to Nanyuki, Embu and Meru, while undertaking official duties. He had left Ruaraka on 16th March and stayed at Embu. On 17th March when he was on his way to Meru from Nanyuki, at about 2.30 p.m. or 2.45 p.m. about 5 km. from Timau he saw the aforesaid lorry and trailer parked on the wrong side facing Nanyuki off the tarmac. He stopped his car to investigate as he had seen three persons standing outside the lorry but before he could come out he was approached by one of the three who was dressed in the respondents' drivers uniform and asked him who he was. At this stage Mr. Olaly identified that this person was Mr. Noor. Mr. Olaly identified himself and inquired if the driver had any problems, on hearing this Mr. Noor ran back very fast and grabbed something like money from one of the other persons standing near the lorry and picked up a jerrycan and handed it to the other driver who by that time had jumped in the driver's seat (identified by Mr. Olaly as Mr. Koira) while the third person from whom Mr. Noor had grabbed the money disappeared into the bush. Mr. Olaly stated that he had seen a blue jerrycan to which was attached a black plastic tube. Mr. Noor picked up the jerrycan and handed it over to Mr. Koira who started the lorry with Mr. Noor jumping on the co-driver's seat. When Mr. Olaly realized that they were determined to run away he took out his pistol and challenged them to stop as Mr. Koira had started the engine. Mr. Koira reversed the lorry and the trailer and got on to the tarmac and Mr. Olaly fired a shot in the air and stood in the way of the lorry. Mr. Koira, however, came straight on him and if he had not jumped he would have been run over by the lorry. The lorry with the trailer then dashed off at a very high speed towards Nanyuki and Mr. Olaly jumped in his pick-up with the intention of following it. In the meantime a government Land-Rover passed and Mr. Olaly followed them. Mr. Olaly stated that the road was not easy to negotiate and he could see some liquid falling out from the co-driver's seat and he noticed that the Land-Rover was slowing down as the liquid was falling on the Land-Rover's windscreen. After they had negotiated a bridge the Land-Rover stopped and Mr. Olaly also stopped as they had failed to overtake the lorry which was being driven in a zigzag fashion in order to prevent the Land-Rover and

Mr. Olaly overtaking them. Mr. Olaly radioed the headquarters and alerted them on what had happened and on the following day he along with other officers went to inspect the vehicle at Ruaraka and he saw plenty of sawdust in the cabin which was full of diesel on the co-driver's side. They also examined the rivets on the strainer and found that they had been tampered with as they were not the usual ones.

During the hearing in addition to Mr. Olaly who confirmed the above alleged facts, J. M. Thuranira who is a locational chief in the government administration at Timau gave evidence and stated that not very far from Timau when he and his constables were driving in a Land-Rover they were about to overtake a lorry and trailer but could not do so because a liquid substance was being poured from the left side of the lorry and it was blurring their windscreens. As their vision was not clear they did not overtake and followed the lorry and the trailer across the bridge. Moreover the lorry was travelling very fast. The chief found the whole thing very strange and did not know what was happening. The Land-Rover had to stop to clean the windscreens and they also noticed a pick-up which was following them. The witness identified Mr. Olaly as the driver of this pick-up. The chief confirmed to Mr. Olaly that the lorry was splashing liquid which fell on his Land-Rover windscreen which the chief confirmed smelled like diesel.

Both grievants completely denied the incident and Mr. Koira stated that all the way from Meru to Nairobi he slept in the cabin just behind the driver's seat and did not get up even once during the whole journey! Mr. Noor stated that he was the driver during the journey and completely denied the incident as narrated by Mr. Olaly and the chief.

The court finds that Mr. Olaly was a truthful witness and the court accepts the incident as related by him to be the true version of what took place. His evidence is corroborated by the chief in one very vital aspect and that is that diesel was being poured out of the lorry from the co-driver's side some of which fell on the windscreens of the Land-Rover. Mr. Noor was obviously getting rid of the diesel from the Jerry can which they were trying to sell.

The court finds Koira's statement that he slept all the way from Meru to Ruaraka to be absurd. The court further does not find any reason why the respondents' security officer Mr. Olaly should come and tell lies against these two drivers.

The only worthwhile point which might have raised some doubt in favour of the two grievants was the evidence of J. K. Njehia who stated that on 19th May, 1982, he checked the rivets fitted on the filter of the lorry at the mouth of the diesel tank and found that the rivets were correct as he had fitted them at the workshop. As against this there is the evidence of L. Rugaro who is the services workshop supervisor who on 20th March, 1982, inspected the vehicle to see if the strainer had been tampered with and found several scratches suggesting someone had tampered with the strainer and that the rivets had not been fitted properly. He further stated that the rivets were shorter and were made of aluminium whereas at the material time the rivets they were using at the workshop were longer and were of steel. He confirmed that the rivets he found on KMF 664 had been discontinued by the respondents about eight years ago. This witness also confirmed that the whole upholstery in the driver's cabin was full of diesel mixed up with sawdust and stated that it was an attempt to clean up the diesel.

In the light of the aforesaid evidence which was given on oath during the hearing the court finds that the ministry's findings and recommendation leaves a lot to be desired. The court cannot understand how the ministry came to the conclusion that the two drivers were innocent and they should be reinstated and paid salary for the time they were out of employment!

After careful consideration of all the submissions the court finds that both the grievants were caught by the respondents' security officer Mr. Olaly while they were committing a dishonest act and the court finds that they rightly deserved the dismissal that was handed out to them by the respondents. It is indeed a great shame that these two drivers have lost such good employment where they had served for several years through their greed and temptation which led them to commit such a dishonest act. They have no one to blame but themselves for the situation in which they find themselves now. The court rejects all the demands made by the claimants on their behalf.

Given in Nairobi the 17th July, 1984.

Judge.

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT CAUSE NO. 121 OF 1983

Parties:

Kenya Chemical Workers' Union
and Simbarite Limited

Issue in dispute:

Wrongful termination of Jairus Musinga.

THE Kenya Chemical Workers' Union shall hereinafter be referred to as the claimants and Simbarite Limited shall hereinafter be referred to as the respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on 5th, 18th and 19th April and 9th May, 1984, and in addition to relying on their written and verbal submissions called the following witnesses:

Claimants.—J. Musinga.

Respondents:

P. Maiga.
H. N. Ndonye.

AWARD

3. The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 10th August, 1983, duly signed by the parties was received by the court on 22nd December together with the statutory certificates signed by the Minister for Labour and the Labour Commissioner.

The grievant started working for the respondents on 6th March, 1975, and was dismissed on 19th December, 1980. At the time of his dismissal he was performing a job of non-clerical responsibility as he was working like an ordinary helper. Prior to this he had worked as production clerk grade 2 and from there he was transferred to the position of dispatch clerk grade 2. During all these transfers and demotions he did not suffer a reduction in his salary. The reason for his dismissal was that he had refused to sign a warning letter which was issued to him dated 18th December, 1980, and he refused to obey the instructions given to him by the sales administration and distribution manager and of the marketing manager requiring him not to work until he signed the warning letter and finally for using abusive and insulting language in front of other subordinate staff to the marketing manager on 19th December.

The claimants took up the matter on his behalf and reported a trade dispute to the Minister for Labour and the dispute was investigated by Mr. Kibachia of Mombasa Labour Office. The ministry's finding was that Mr. Musinga's record had been commendable during the early part of his service with the respondents but his performance and attitude underwent a change for the worse perhaps partly because of the fact that he became the claimants' branch secretary. The ministry found that punishment meted out to him as a result of the incident of 27th October, 1980, was rather harsh and it was found that the dismissal was wrongful. It was recommended that he should be paid in addition to all his terminal dues two month's salary as compensation for the loss of employment. Both parties rejected the recommendation.

It is not disputed that Mr. Musinga was claimants' member since sometime in 1975 and was elected their branch secretary in March, 1980. It is also not disputed that he was actively engaged in union affairs at Bamburi as he was given permission to attend job classification meetings at the Bamburi Cement Factory on not less than eighteen separate occasions. He was also granted permission to attend other union matters during October and December, 1980. From the numerous letters that were put in as exhibits especially by the claimants the court notes one particular letter issued by the respondents' personnel manager addressed to the claimants' Coast Province representative on 19th July, 1980, in connection with permission for Mr. Musinga to attend a seminar in which the first paragraph read:

"I wish to advise you that whereas it is agreed in principle that the attendance of Musinga at the above seminar would be beneficial to both himself and the claimants it is regretted that permission to this effect will not be granted unless and until Musinga shows a positive and co-operative attitude towards industrial grievances under discussion at company level now."

It is quite obvious to the court that what this paragraph meant and the only logical inference to be drawn from it was that the respondents expected Mr. Musinga to be co-operative with the management to the detriment of the workers' grievances.

Mr. Musinga had a warning letter issued to him on 10th November, 1980, which was the first warning and it was because he had absented himself from his place of work for more than four hours on 22nd October, 1980, without permission from his superior.

The court would now like to deal with the incident that led to Mr. Musinga's dismissal. On 27th November, 1980, he and a colleague asked for permission to attend a meeting that day at 1 p.m. which permission was granted with the respondents maintaining that it was on condition that they clock their cards out and clock in. Both of them went to the meeting and came back but they had neither clocked out nor in and they were asked to give an explanation which at first they ignored and were then given a deadline in writing after which both Mr. Musinga and his colleague gave their written explanations. His colleague explained that he punched out at 13.09 hours and punched in at 13.16 hours. He added the following paragraph in his letter of explanation:

"I could not punch again after 13.16 p.m. because that would mean I had to punch thrice which is not applicable during lunch hours and I would have misfollowed the punching system during lunch hours."

Mr. Musinga appears to have given two letters of explanation the first one sentenced letter saying "I forgot to punch in and out the clock and I reported the matter to the charge hand". His second letter of explanation dated 2nd December was more detailed in which he stated that he forgot to punch the card because the meeting was urgent and the time was short. His explanation bears two comments from his superiors the first one said that "he forgot to punch out while going out to the meeting and that was a mistake so please handle the matter". The second note reads "this is a very lame excuse. He has been with the company long enough to get used to the punching habit". It was after consideration of the above explanation from Mr. Musinga that the authorities decided to give him a written warning. His colleague was given a strong verbal warning only. The respondents maintained that he was given a written warning because of his contemptuous behaviour, arrogant attitude towards his superiors and his past conduct.

Mr. Musinga did not dispute that he refused to sign the warning letter because he felt that if he signed it then that would be the end of the matter and his further appeals would be fruitless. He refused to sign despite the respondents having told that the warning letters did not in itself confirm guilt on his part. It was also alleged that he said he did not care losing his job as then he could work for the union and then work for the respondents' downfall.

The court has carefully considered this matter and would like to point out that P. Maiga, the respondents' marketing manager in his evidence said that the respondents did not use the employment cards system but issued letters of warning. He further stated he did not think refusal to sign a warning letter is gross misconduct and further said that Mr. Musinga had told him that he did not care losing his job as he could work for the union and then work for the downfall of the company. Mr. Maiga further added that Mr. Musinga abused him by saying that he was a man like him pointing a finger at him and that he could also lose his job through sickness or be sacked.

The court agrees with Mr. Maiga that refusal to sign a warning letter is not strictly a gross misconduct but the court does not agree with him that the alleged words which Mr. Musinga used against him were abusive. Such words are a normal human reaction when a worker feels that he is cornered for an offence which is not all that serious. The court having made this finding has come to the conclusion that the respondents did not really have all that solid grounds for dismissing Mr. Musinga as a result of the incident of 27th November. It is in this context that the respondents' letter to him which has been quoted hereinabove early in the award requiring him to show a positive and co-operative attitude towards industrial grievances becomes relevant in that it shows that Mr. Musinga having failed to respond to the respondents' request was a marked man and they wanted to get rid of him otherwise there is no reason why the incident of 27th November should have bloated to the extent where the respondents felt that he should be summarily dismissed.

The court agrees with the ministry's finding that Mr. Musinga has suffered a wrongful dismissal but the court finds that its recommendation of compensation of two month's salary in addition to terminal benefits to be rather on the low side. The court has considered the question of reinstating Mr. Musinga but finds that it would be best in the interest of both parties if he is not reinstated as he has already lost his union post at Bamburi and he is no longer the claimants' branch secretary.

The court awards that the respondents should pay Mr. Musinga seven months' salary by way of compensation for the wrongful dismissal that he has suffered in addition to his terminal benefits under the collective agreement which was in force at the material time.

Given in Nairobi the 18th July, 1984.
