GENERAL NOTICE No 192
ADMIRALTY TEMPORARY COMMISSION
RETENTION OF RANK ON
DEMOBILIZATION

The subjoined regulations have been approved by the Admiralty (Weekly Order 3214/19-C W 22369-27-9-19) and are published for general information

(C W 22369 — 27-9-1919 )

The following arrangements have been approved as regards the retention of rank, &c, by Officers granted temporary commissions by the Admiralty during the war —

(1) RETENTION OF RANK BY TEMPORARY OFFICERS

All temporary Officers, R N, R M R N R, and R N V R including those entered under agreement T 124 and its variants, including T 299, who have received a war gratuity or to whom it may be approved to award a war gratuity except as stated below, will, on the termination of their commissions or warrants or on demobilisation, be granted permission to retain their rank, with the right of wearing uniform under the same conditions as are laid down for Retired Officers, that is, on state and other occasions of ceremony. Their names will not, however, be retained in the Navy List.

It must be understood that, although the general rule will be that an Officer is eligible to retain his rank if he is granted a gratuity, the Admiralty reserve discretionary power to withhold the privilege in such cases as they may think fit and to withdraw the privilege at any time should the conduct of an officer not be considered such as to merit its continuance.

The privilege of retention of rank is granted on the understanding that all officers to whom it applies will regard it as an individual obligation to serve again in the same capacity, if called upon to do so in any future emergency.

The above privilege will not be granted to Gentlemen granted commissions on the Unattached List, Royal Marines, but with this exception, the foregoing rules will be applicable to temporary officers holding HONORARY commissions.

(2) RETENTION OF HIGHER ACTING AND TEMPORARY RANKS

R N R and R N V R Officers promoted to Acting Ranks for Specially Meritorious Service in the Fleet

Officers holding permanent or temporary commission in the R N R and R N V R who were granted promotion to the ranks of Acting Commander and Acting Lieutenant-Commander, R N R or R N V R under the provisions of M O s 1230/17 and 499/18 which provided for a limited number of such promotions each half year for specially meritorious service in the Fleet will be permitted to retain their acting ranks after demobilisation.

The Board recognise the general principle that in considering claims for retention of acting rank it is desirable to distinguish between acting rank granted for specially meritorious service, and acting rank granted on account of appointment held and "whilst holding present appointment" and, with a view to treatment similar to that provided for in the preceding paragraph, they will consider on their merits the cases of R N R and R N V R Officers, not covered by the provisions of that paragraph, who have received promotion to acting rank for specially meritorious service. This consideration will extend to the cases of officers who, while they were originally granted promotion to acting rank on account of the appointments they held, would subsequently have received promotion for meritorious service but for the advancement already granted. Action to review all such instances of acting rank will be initiated forthwith and individual applications for consideration should not be made to the Admiralty.

Junior R N R Officers granted rank as Acting Lieutenant under the special regulations contained in M O 3017/18 will be permitted to retain their acting rank, subject in the case of permanent officers who have not qualified for a Master's certificate, to their obtaining such a certificate within 12 months from the date of the termination of the war, failing which, they will revert to the rank of Sub-Lieutenant.

Acting Sub-Lieutenants, R N and R N R, and Acting Sub-Lieutenants (Acting), R N R

Temporary Officers who hold either of these ranks will be permitted to retain the rank of Acting Sub-Lieutenant on final discharge.

Other Junior Commissioned and Warrant Officers

With the exception stated below temporary Officers who have been granted acting rank in the lowest commissioned or warrant rank of their branch, is in the case of Acting Mate (E) and Acting Artificer Engineer will be permitted to retain their rank on final discharge.

Chief Petty Officer Pensioners and R F R or active service ratings over the age for pension, who were given promotion to the rank of Temporary Acting Warrant Officers, R N, will, however, not be allowed to retain their acting warrant rank but will be required to revert to their substantive ratings, in accordance with the conditions laid down when they were promoted.

Officers who have served in the R M and with the R N D. Temporary Officers of

(A) The Royal Munks

(B) The Royal Naval Volunteer Reserve (63rd Division) who have served only with the Army will be granted confirmed rank equivalent to the highest acting or temporary rank which they may have held, subject to their having held the acting or temporary rank for an aggregate minimum period of six months or having been invalidated by reason of wounds or sickness entirely attributable to the service.

Officers who belonged to the R N V R before the war but who have served in the Royal Naval Division will be given the option of discharge from the rank to which they would be entitled under the foregoing rule, or of reverting to their original rank in the R N V R. In the former case they will sever all connection with the R N V R, in the latter case they will be allowed to return with seniority as they had served continuously in the R N V R.

The cases of permanent Warrant Engineers and Engine Room Artificers R.N.R. granted temporary commissions as Commissioned Engineer Officers, R.N.R., under M.O. 2515/17 and Wireless Operators granted temporary Warrant rank are still under consideration and a further announcement as to the question of the retention by these Officers of their commissioned or warrant rank will be made in due course.

In all other cases, Officers holding acting rank will be required to relinquish their acting rank as from the date of issue of this Order, or on demobilisation, whichever is later.

Nothing in this Order shall confer on my Officer or class of officers any title to an increased rate of remuneration, or to a continuance of remuneration from the State beyond the period normally provided for under existing regulations.

The foregoing decisions will be retrospective in effect to the beginning of the present war, and will apply to officers who have been invalidated from the service by reason of wounds or sickness attributable to the service.

A date will shortly be announced from which all temporary commissions and warrants still in force will cease to have effect, and temporary officers who have been demobilised or are not serving are to consider the announcement referred to as an intimation that their services are then finally dispensed with.
