The following extract from the Indian Code of Criminal Procedure is published for general information.—

WHIPPING.

390. Execution of sentence of whipping only.—When the accused is sentenced to whipping only, the sentence shall be executed at such place and time as the Court may direct.

391. (1)—Execution of sentence of whipping, in addition to imprisonment.—When the accused is sentenced to whipping in addition to imprisonment in a case which is subject to appeal, the whipping shall not be inflicted until fifteen days from the date of the sentence, or if an appeal is made within that time, until the sentence is confirmed by the Appellate Court; but the whipping shall be inflicted as soon as practicable after the expiry of the fifteen days, or, in case of an appeal, as soon as practicable after the receipt of the order of the Appellate Court confirming the sentence.

(2) The whipping shall be inflicted in the presence of the officer in charge of the jail unless the Judge or Magistrate orders it to be inflicted in his own presence.

(3) No accused person shall be sentenced to whipping in addition to imprisonment when the term of imprisonment to which he is sentenced, is less than three months.

392. (1) Mode of inflicting punishment.—In the case of a person of or over sixteen years of age, whipping shall be inflicted with a light ratau not less than half an inch in a diameter, in such mode, and on such part of the person of the Local Government directs; and in the case of a person under sixteen years of age, it shall be inflicted in such mode, and on such part of the person, and with such instrument, as the Local Government directs.

(2) Limit of number of stripes.—In no case shall such punishment exceed thirty stripes.

393. Not to be executed by instalments.—No sentence of whipping shall be executed by instalments:

Exemptions.—And pone of the following persons shall be punishable with whipping (namely):—

(a) females:

(b) males sentenced to death, or to transportation, or penal servitude, or to imprisonment for more than five years;

(c) males whom the Court considers to be more than forty-five years of age.

394. (1) Whipping not to be inflicted if offender not in fit state of health.—The punishment of whipping shall not be inflicted unless a medical officer, if present, certifies, or if there is not a Medical Officer present, unless it appears to the Magistrate of officer present, that the offender is in a fit state of health to undergo such punishment.

(2) Stay of execution.—If, during the execution of a sentence of whipping, a medical officer certifies, or it appears to the Magistrate or officer present, that the offender is not in a fit state of health to undergo the remainder of the sentence, the whipping shall be finally stopped.

395. (1) Procedure if punishment cannot be inflicted under section 394.—In any case in which, under section 394, a sentence of whipping is, wholly or partially prevented from being executed, the offender shall be kept in custody till the Court which passed the sentence, can revise it; and the said Court may, at its discretion, either remit such sentence, or sentence the offender in lieu of whipping, or in lieu of so much of the sentence of whipping as was not executed, to imprisonment for any term not exceeding twelve months, which may be in addition to any other punishment to which he may have been sentenced for the same offence.

(2) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to authorise may Court to inflict imprisonment for a term exceeding that to which the accused is liable by law, or that which the said Court is competent to inflict.

LCNDON 30TH MARCH.—The Empress of Germany's fracture is simple and there are no complications. Col. Morland's Column left Kano for Sokoto on the 16th February and had a few skirmishes on the March. The Waterless tracts through which the column passed and the cold nights caused much sickness. In the mean time the Emir of Kano's troops which had fled with him had surrendered to General Sir F. D. Lugard who disarmed them and they are returning quietly to their Homes.

After a conference which Sir Hector Macdonald's son had with the British Embassy in Paris, it was announced that the body was to leave Paris on Sunday night for Scotland.

It is officially stated that the French scientific expedition to Martinique has returned to Paris. It is optimistic regarding further eruptions, but precautionary measures must be maintained.

Some strikers in the Government iron works at Teatoust, Russia demanded the release of three of their comrades who had been arrested. They mobbed the Governor of the Province as he was entering the Manager's house which they stormed and wrecked. The troops fired killing twenty eight and wounding fifty.

A violent Cyclone has swept Madagascar ravaging several of the Coast Towns; houses and shops have been swept away.

LONDON 31st MARCH.—The Admiralty have issued a circular regarding the changes in the existing system of training Officers and men in the Navy. This is a complement to the main scheme published at

The remains of Sir Hector Macdonald were quietly burried at Edinburgh at 6 A.M. yesterday morning, the body was conveyed straight to the Cemetery from the train.

The Times yesterday published two New York news telegrams of about 150 words altogether received by the Marconigraph.

The British occupied Sokoto on the 13th March after a feeble resistance, the Emir and his Prime Minister both fled.

Lord Lansdowne stated that the Government were informed that the Turkish Troops had been withdrawn from the Tribal Territory in the Aden Hinterland. The work of delimitation was proceeding.

London 1st April.—It is officially announced that their Majesties will visit Ireland in July or August. Mr. Brodrick stated in the House of Commons that experiments were proceeding with a variety of quickfirers for field service. It was believed it would shortly be possible to begin the construction of quickfirers superior to anything we at present had got.

The Times Paris report that the King will visit Paris to interview President Loubet is regarded in well informed quarters as correct. The French Chambers sat all night endeavouring to compose the differences concerning the Budget, the Senate having reduced the expenditure on the Army and Navy.

The French Budget has passed the Chamber.

The King's Birthday will be kept at Foreign Stations on the 9th of November.

The Bridge between Mustafa and Adrianaple was blown up yesterday just after the passage of the Orient Express.

The Macedonian Committee at Sofia announce that Turkish troops massacred a revolutionary band and all the inhabitants of Abalitche, themselves lesing heavily.

LONDON 2ND APRIL.—The Revenue for the year has been £151,551,698 an increase of £8,553,699 but £633,302 below Sir Michael Hicks Beach's estimate.

The Albanians on Monday surrounded Mitrovitza demanding the removal of the recently established Russian Consulate; they finally attacked the Town but were repulsed with heavy loss by the Turkish troops after two hours fighting.

The Russian Ambassalor has been instructed to make strong representations to the Porte to check the Albanian insubordination. Russia has addressed a Iresh warning to Bulgaria. The situation is eausing ancasiness in Vienna.

The Albanian assault on Mitrovitza was a regular battle. The garrison consisted of 3,000 Turkish Regulars who have since been reinforced by four Battalions, the extent of the losses is unknown.

This insurrectionary movement of the Albanians has caused great consternation in Constantinople.

LONDON 4.70 APRIL.- The Kaiser has arrived at Copenhagen on a visit to King Christian. He was welcomed by the King in the most hearty manner and was appointed a Danish Admiral. The Kaiser has appointed Prince Waldemar "a la snite" of the German Navy. At a court dinner in the evening the most cordial toasts were exchanged.

The King of Portugal after spending an hour and a half on the Royal Yacht conducted King Edward ashare in his galley. On landing a most tremendous reception was given, crowds were present and even the roofs of the houses were packed with spectators. After the King of Portngal had presented his Ministers and some of the notabilities to King Edward, the Royal party party proceeded to Necessidades Palace in ancient state coaches receiving an ovation all along the routes

King Edward made at pleasures excursion to Contra visiting the Palaces there. He returned to Lisbon the same evening, received the Deplomatic Corps, also an address from the Cortes which alluded in the warmest terms to the alliance between the two Nations which had been maintained for five centuries. King Edward in his reply said that he accepted the address as a renewed affirmation of the alliance.

LONDON 67H APRIL. -There is much comment regarding some inspired articles in the Novoe Vremya emphasising Russia's pacinic aims in the Balkaus and charging the French Bovernment with eucouraging the Slavs in the false hope that Russia is secretly dispused to incovene in disputing the right of France to claim a Protectorate over the Balkans Slavs.

General Mannings Colman occupied Galade on the 31st March after struggling through a waterless desert suffering the greatest privations.

Authorisation has been refused to the English Passionist Fathers to settle in Paris, these Fathers will leave Paris without any resistance; but it is stated other bodies of II anks will offer a passive resistance exhausting every means of Legal Procedure, though several prominent bodies will disperse without resistance.

The reception of the King at Lashon has been of the most extraordinary cordiality. All the addresses appear inspired with esteem and gratification at the visit and pleasure at the closeness of the alliance. King Edward on Saturday visited the Museum of the Geographical Society, where the ladies in the galleries showered rose leaves upon him.

Prior to the occupation of Galadi the British advance force had a stiff brush with a force of the enemy who lest five killed and fifteen prisoners. The bulk of the enemy 12,000 strong are concentrating near Walval Wells a day and a half distant from Galadi.
