THE 2024 ANNUAL REPORT SUBMITTED TO THE COUNTY ASSEMBLY
ON 13TH DECEMBER, 2024

Foreward

On behalf of the Homa-Bay County Public Service Board, it is my honor to present to you the Annual Report for the year ended 31st December 2024. This period was set on delivery of services especially based on targets on performance contract for the FY 2023/2024.

The Homa Bay Public Service Board therefore has remained committed to promoting an efficient, accountable, and ethical public service in line with the vision of Homa Bay County Government. Consequently, guiding the utilization and management of the human resource capital to great effect in the county.

This report highlights the activities, achievements, challenges, and recommendations of the Board in fulfilling its mandate under the County Government Act, 2012.

I take this opportunity to thank the Executive for its continued support during this period. I also thank my Board members and the Acting Secretary/CEO of the Board and the Secretariat for their dedicated support in discharging our mandate.

May God continue to bless you all.

ISAIAH O. OKOTO,
Chairman, County Public Service Board.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

This Annual Report 2024 has been prepared in line with our mandate and commitment to excellence in public service delivery. It reviews the Board's key achievements, challenges, and forward-looking strategies as we strive to build a competent, inclusive, and values-driven workforce. It reflects our unwavering dedication to promoting diversity, upholding national values, and ensuring effective governance within the public service. By submitting this report to the County Assembly, we aim to provide a transparent account of our performance and invite continued collaboration to achieve our shared vision for the county's development.

The Board has remained committed to quality, effective and efficient service delivery, maintained good relationship with all its customers, stakeholders and the public at large while discharging its key responsibilities. It upholds transparency, equity, and professionalism in delivering its mandate to support the county's development objectives in overseeing the recruitment, promotion, discipline, enforcement of policies and regulations, training and development and welfare of public servants in the county.

The Annual report summarizes the Board's dedication to excellence and its roadmap for enhancing public service in the county and outlines a comprehensive review of its operations, achievements, and challenges over the year. It highlights strides in recruitment and capacity building, as well as adherence to core values and principles of governance. Further, it emphasizes on compliance with disciplinary measures on upholding public service ethics and progress in promoting diversity by incorporating marginalized groups and persons with disabilities, albeit with room for improvement. The financial overview reflects prudent resource management, supporting strategic initiatives and operational goals. Looking ahead, the Board recommends targeted reforms to address challenges and foster innovation.

I wish to acknowledge the cordial working relationship and support given to the Public Service Board of Homa Bay by the Executive and the County Assembly. Further, my appreciation goes to the Board members and the secretariat staff for their unmatched support towards service delivery to the public.

RUTH ALOO,
Ag. Secretary/CEO, County Public Service Board.

3. Solomon Owuor Ochogo County Payroll Manager

3.0. Promotion of Values and Principles

In line with Article 232 of the Constitution of Kenya, the Board ensured that public service values such as professionalism, ethics, equity, and accountability were actively promoted. Compliance with Article 73 and Chapter Six of the Constitution was strictly adhered to by ensuring that public officers submitted duly filled wealth declaration forms.

4.0. Disciplinary Control and Compliance

In the period under review, the County Public Service Board managed various disciplinary cases by ensuring compliance with legal procedures and fairness. Key outcomes included—

- (a) Addressing employee misconduct through thorough investigations and hearings.
- (b) Implementing transparent termination processes as necessary.
- (c) Training for managers and disciplinary committees to enhance compliance.

On resolution of disciplinary cases in the period 2023, the CPSB is collaborating with CHRMAC to fast-track the determination and conclusion of these cases.

The Board also undertook the validation of the PWC Census Audit Implementation Report as follows:

4.1. Introduction

The Homa Bay County Public Service Board received the Implementation report of the PWC Audit on the 3rd of April 2024 as well as the hard copy of the PWC report from the County Secretary and Head of Public Service for further necessary action. Upon receipt of the report, the Board embarked on a validation and a thorough scrutiny of the findings and recommendations therein before taking any disciplinary actions against affected staff. The resolutions informed the Board's recommendations on the report which are summarized here under:

5.0. Inclusivity and Diversity

During the year under review, efforts were made by the Public Service Board to ensure representation of marginalized groups within the public service. In adherence to the County Government Act (CGA) 2012 and its mandate to uphold inclusivity, the CPSB committed to ensuring equitable representation of gender, marginalized groups, and persons with disabilities (PWDs) in its recruitment processes. This report provides a summary of inclusivity in staffing for 2024, categorized by gender, region, and disability representation.

Specific achievements included—

- (a) Gender representation objectives were met during recruitment.
- (b) Initiatives to support persons with disabilities in the workplace were institutionalized.
- (c) Focused effort on integrating human resource planning with budgetary processes.
- (d) Conducted workforce analysis for current and future staffing needs.
- (e) Co-ordinated with the County Treasury for accurate budgeting of personnel emoluments.

5.1. Gender Representation

The CPSB recruited a total of 23 staff members in 2024, with the following breakdown:

1. Male: 17 (73.9%)
2. Female: 6 (26.1%)

While efforts have been made, there is a notable gender gap favoring male recruits.

5.2. Representation of Marginalized Groups

1. From Homa Bay County: 22 recruits (95.7%)
2. Outside Homa Bay County: 1 recruit (4.3%)

The CPSB has prioritized local representation, aligning with its goal to promote equitable development.

5.3. Persons with Disabilities (PWDs)

PWD recruits: 1 (4.3%)

The inclusion of PWDs reflects compliance with the CGA 2012 mandate. However, the proportion remains below the statutory minimum threshold of 5%.

Category-Specific Analysis

1. Leadership and Administration Roles:

- (a) Senior Assistant Director of HRM&D and Chief Officer positions were filled by local female and male respectively.
- (b) Sub-County and Ward Administrators included one PWD and included female representation (4 out of 15 officers).

2. Specialized Roles:

- (a) Professional positions such as Radiographer II, Payroll Manager, and Legal Assistant III were filled by males, with one (1) female occupying advisory role.

6.0. Recommendations for Improvement

The County Public Service Board identified critical areas for development during the period under review—

- (a) Enhanced training programs for recruitment, selection, disciplinary procedures and performance management
- (b) Improved stakeholder engagement to bolster public participation in county service processes
- (c) Continued efforts to capacity build ICT and other skills among county employees for efficient and productive service delivery

- (d) Enhanced outreach and targeted recruitment strategies to attract more female and PWD candidates and collaboration with organizations supporting PWDs to improve awareness and accessibility.
- (e) Promotion of affirmative action in recruitment and selection process to ensure inclusivity of marginalized sections of the citizenry

7.0. Financial Overview

7.1. Budget Outlook for the Financial Year

The Public Service Board received a budget allocation of KSh. 76,643,515 (seventy-six million, six hundred forty-three thousand, five hundred fifteen) for the fiscal year 2023/2024. This comprised of KSh. 3,140,000 for Development and KSh. 73,503,515 for Recurrent; out of which KSh. 53,244,549 was allocated for personnel emoluments and KSh. 20,258,966 for operations and maintenance. In the year under review, the Board managed to absorb a total of KSh. 65,807,372 which represents an absorption rate of 85.86%.

The table below provides a detailed breakdown of the expenditures incurred by the board over the past financial year.

7.2. Budget Trend Analysis

The budget trend analysis for the Homa Bay County Public Service Board over the past financial years reveal fluctuations in the allocated amounts with notable decrease in majority of the years. The Board has continuously advocated for adequate funding through the relevant channels and offices. Our efforts have, however not resulted in significant increase in allocation to fully facilitate the Board's programmes. We are still hopeful that subsequent supplementary estimate processes will yield positive results to the Board.
