Amendment of section 19 of the principal Ordinance

MEMORANDUM OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

This Bill amends the Forfeiture of Lands Ordinance, 1953, in such a manner as to extend the powers of forfeiture conferred thereby so as to include power to forfeit the native land rights not only of persons leading or organizing but also of persons participating or aiding in, armed or violent resistance against the forces of law and order. In addition to the present procedure under the principal Ordinance for forfeiture or penal setting-apart of identified lands and interests in land, a simplified and more expeditious procedure is introduced whereby “native land rights confiscation orders” may be made naming any number of persons as subjects thereof, and forfeiting all existing lands and land rights of such persons in the Native Lands the lands and land rights affected by such orders will be subsequently identified, non-clan land being vested in Local Land Boards with wide powers of disposal, and rights in clan land being extinguished. It is intended that the Bill after enactment and subject to Her Majesty’s assent, shall be brought into force simultaneously with the withdrawal of the present surrender offer.

Clause 4 sets out the provisions which, by way of amendment of section 3 of the principal Ordinance, will confer the powers to make “native land rights confiscation orders”

Clause 6 introduces a new section 7A into the principal Ordinance providing for the effect of such orders on lands and land rights of the persons named therein, for the disposal and use of non-clan lands affected thereby, and for the extinction of rights in clan land affected thereby

Clause 9 amends section 12 of the principal Ordinance in regard to compensation to innocent persons whose rights or interests are adversely affected by such orders and clause 10 brings within the jurisdiction of the Tribunal established under section 11 of the principal Ordinance questions and disputes as to the nature or extent of any interest or the boundaries or extent of any non-clan land, alleged to be affected by a native land rights confiscation order, since clan rights will merely be extinguished by such orders no question of compensation will arise in regard thereto

By clause 14, sub-section (1) of section 18 of the principal Ordinance (which relates to revocation or variation of orders) is amended to include within its scope native land rights confiscation orders

The remaining amendments contained in the Bill are either formal or consequential

No additional expenditure of public moneys will be incurred if this Bill is enacted

Nairobi,
10th June, 1955

E N GRIFFITH-JONES,
Attorney General
