AWARD OF BRITISH EMPIRE MEDAL

HIS EXCELLENCY the Governor is pleased to announce that information has been received from the Secretary of State that Her Majesty the Queen has been graciously pleased to approve the immediate award of the British Empire Medal to—

KIKUYU GUARD NJOMO S/O KARANJA

for gallantry of a high order

On 9th October 1954 an evening patrol from the Murengeti Post, led by Private Stephenson of the Kenya Regiment, noticed activity on the forest edge near Morson's farm in the Limuru settled area. On investigation Private Stephenson ascertained that a Mau Mau gang had just ambushed one of Morson's Home Guard, injuring him seriously and stealing his rifle. The gang was reported to have gone into the forest nearby. A crowd had gathered and Private Stephenson utilized them to put a cordon round the immediate area where the terrorists were thought to be. K G Njomo s/o Karanja was put on the left flank together with K G Mwigai s/o Ngigi and a civilian African called Kagema s/o Njomo—a brother of Mr Morson's Home Guard, who had been injured and from whom the rifle had been stolen—who had turned out to assist.

When the cordon was in position Private Stephenson entered the bush and sprayed the undergrowth with his Patchett gun. Immediately three terrorists broke cover and ran towards the left side of the cordon. K G Njomo s/o Karanja followed by K G Mwigai s/o Ngigi and Kagema s/o Njomo chased the three terrorists for about 300 yards. During this time the terrorist who had the 303 rifle stolen from Morson's Home Guard shot at Njomo s/o Karanja who was unarmed but for a simie. Nothing daunted Njomo caught up with him and, ducking under the rifle, he slashed the terrorist with his simie killing him. He then picked up the rifle from the dead man and killed a second terrorist with it. The third terrorist was caught and killed with spears by Kagema s/o Njomo and Mwigai s/o Ngigi.

Njomo s/o Karanja, Mwigai s/o Ngigi and Kagema s/o Njomo by their courage and disregard of danger, recovered a precision weapon which might well have caused the death of many people.
